THE PORRORS OF WAR.

The correspondent of the London Telegraph thus writes of the scene presented after the battle of Solferino :-

The plain of Guidizzolo is really horrible to look upon. Even so late as yesterday the dead were not all buried. They were to be seen in groups of twenty and thirry, huddled together in one spot, where a shell had exploded or the Charseurs d'Afrique had passed. All still maintained the attitude in which death had struck them down. Here was one with uplifted arm to ward off the blow which had split near. Close by was another, with his hand upon his breast, shivered and rent by the grape. Another seemed to be smiling, as if in mockery of the grim warrior's approach. Some were lying upon their backs with faces turned towards heaven, and prayers still seemed to linger upon Further on, there was a Hungarian, who had thrust his clothes into a ghastly wound near the heart. At his left was a Tyrolese, with unused cartridge between his teeth. To the right, a Croat had his head out off by a ball, and right, a Croat had his need out off by a bail, and his head was by his side, with its horrible cycs, glaring and leering, as it seemed, at the dismembered body. Two young lads, of certainly not more than sixteen, were lying in each other's arms. Death had surprised them in that attitude; or, perhaps, feeling themselves and is a good araile land, having a considerable and the surprised them in that attitude; or, perhaps, feeling themselves again. Upon the body of a Bohemian officer we noticed a dog, waiting, apparently, for his master to get up!

On every side it was the same. Death, in his most herrible and ghastly form, glared at us, no matter where we went.

A Scene. - Among the incidents of the Italian war reported by European correspondents, the following is full of poetry. It touches the beart, and we do not wonder that the thousands of the Milanese who witnessed it were moved to tears. As Marshal McMahon entered Milan, a little girl of five years of age, dressed in white, presented him with a bouquet nearly as big as herself. He raised her up, and placed her standing before him on the saddle bow.—

M., and will be firmished and exhibited to bidders on the day of sale.

The sale will commence at one o'clock, P.
M., and will be contitued from day to day till all is sold. The child threw her little arms around the sun-burnt head of the hero of Magenta, and kissed him repeatedly. The Marshal seemed delighted with the child, and fondled her most tenderly, looking frequently at her pretty features. And so they both entered Milan amidst a shower of bequets and applause. Can anything more beautiful be conceived? A child with her arms full of flowers crowning the conquering hero at the head of his war-worn veterans, and riding in his arms into the streets of a city, ready to welcome him as a deliver. It is an acted poem.

Hop. Alexander C. Walker, who was nominated for Congress by the Democrats of the Richmond district in Georgia, in the place of Alexander H. Stephens, has declined the nomination, and an effort is being made in and out of the State to in home Mr. Stephens to forego his resolution to ratine from public life and ac-cept the nomination. Mr. Stephens is too shrewd a politician to hezzard the reputation he has made in Congress, by returning thither when a democratic minority is inevitable.

EPILEPSY, OR FALLING FITS.

We believe we cannot do our readers a more important service, than by again calling their attention to that most remarkable preparation, discovered by Dr Seth S. Hance, of Baltimore, Md., which possesses the power of alleviating and curing that horsesses the power of alleviating and curing that horsesses. tid visitation of man-Epilerey, or Falling Fits.—In recommending this preparation to our readers, we do so with a conviction that we are not degradleg our columns to puff a common patent medicine, but are placing before them a discevery, which, if fully known, would probably do more to alleviate buman suffering, than any invention of modern times. Dr. Hance, it asking us to notice his preparation favorably in our editorial department, has sent us for persual a nuturier of latters from persons who have used his Pills, and have been cured there. who have used his Pills, and have been cured therely. All of them speak in the most grateful and call gistic terms. One great advantage this mediclie possesses is the fact, that it can be transported through the mails, thereby affording every one an opportunity of dealing directly with the inventor, and also precluding all tossibility of heigh imposed. and also precluding all possibility of being imposed by a counterfeit or spurious mitation. Drace pays the postage on his Pills to any part of country, and will forward them by return of the country and will forward them by return of the country and will forward them by return of the country and will forward them by return of the country and the country mail, on the receipt of a remittance. Talk of Beauty, it cannot exist without a find head of hair, then read the following, and if you ask more, see circular around each bottle, and no one can doubt.

DROFESSOR WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

DROFESSOR WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

—We call the attention of all, old and young, to this wonderful preparation, which turns beek to its original color, gray hair—covers the head of the baid with a luxuriant growth—removes the dandruff, itching, and all cutaneous cruptions—causes a continual flow of the natural fluids; and hence, i used as a regular dressing for the hair will preserve its color, and keep it from falling to extreme old age, in its natural beauty. We call then upon the baid the gray, or diseased in scalp, to use it; and surely the young will not, as they value the flowing locks, or the witching curi, ever be without it. Its praise is upon the tongge of thousands.

The agent for Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative in New Haven, received the following letter in regard to the Restorative, a few weeks since:

DEEP RIVER, CONN., July 23, 1856.

Mr. Leavenworth—Sir: I have been troubled with dandruff or scurf on my head for more than a year, my hair began to come out, scurf and hair together. I saw in a New Haven paper about "Wood's Hair Restorative" as a cure. I called at your store on the 1st of April last, and purchased one bottle to try it, and I found to my satisfaction it was the thing, it removed the scurf and new hair began to grow; it is now two or three inches in length where it was all off. I have great faith in it. I wish you to send me two bottles more by Mr. Post, the bearer of this. I don't know as any of the kind is used in this place, you may have a market for many bottles after it is known here.

Yours with respect, RUFUS PRAFT.

Philadelphia, Sept. 9, 1856.

Prof. Wood—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself deneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—in fact bald. I have used but two half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation I can induce many others to try it.

Yours respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D.

No. 464 Vine street.

VINCENNES, IA., June 22, 1853.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: As you are about to manufacture and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, I will state, for schemsoever it may concern, that I have used it and known others to use it—that I have, for several years, been in the habit of using other Hair Resterative, and that I find yours vasily superior to any other I know—It entirely cleanses the head of dandruff, and with one month's proper use will restore any person's he shirely cleaness the head of dandruff, and with one month's proper use will restore any person's hair to the original youthful color and texture, giving it a healthy, soft and glossy appearance; and all this, without discolering the hands that apply it, or the dress on which it drops. I would, therefore, recommend its use to every one desirous of having a fine color and texture to hair.

Respectfully, process.

Respectfully yours,
Whlson King.
