

Chills and Fever! One of the greatest remedies that has ever been laid before the public, for Fever and Ague, and which has received the highest encomiums from the press and the people, is DR. J. HOS- TETTER'S CELEBRATED BITTERS. Who would endure the tortures arising from this terrible disease, when it can be so easily cured? Who would endure sleepless nights, burning fevers and icy chills alternately, when a remedy can be obtained for a mere trifle? And yet how many families linger out a painful existence under this deadly light, and do nothing but put down quinine until it becomes as common as their daily meals, and yet they are not relieved. None but the foolish and weak would hesitate to procure these valuable Bitters, and save themselves intense agony. Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere. See advertisement in another column. Jan. 27, 1860.

Do you want something to strengthen you? Do you want a good appetite? Do you want to build up your constitution? Do you want to feel well? Do you want to get rid of nervousness? Do you want energy? Do you want to be vigorous? Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling? If you do, use Hoodland's German Bitters.

DIED.

On the 15th inst., WILLIE BOWLES, son of Adam and Ellen M. Ferguson, aged 2 years and 9 days.

I saw one lovely morning (Each rose a little gone) Four tiny, lovely thousands, Hang on the parent stem.

I looked again at even, And my heart grew sad and sore; One little bud had wither'd, The worm was at its core.

I saw one summer evening, As the sun sank in the west, Four chirping little birds, Within the parent nest.

I looked again at morning, For the storm had burst overhead; And of those tender nestlings, One little bird was dead.

I saw four children cluster, Around the parent hearth; Joyous and bright and happy So full of infant mirth.

I looked again at sea them, The glad home fire beside; But one bright face was missing, One cherub boy had died.

Ah, me! I cried in sorrow, It is over this paradise; Pleasure to-day, to-morrow Bereavement, morning, death.

Our flowers are ever fading; Our bright things all decay; Scarce do we clasp our treasures, Ere they are torn away.

But, list! a voice is saying, "This place is not your rest;" To be here ever staying, 'T would make us quite unblest.

Whoos flowers here all are blooming, Hath none in its paradise; Who has no grubs in glory Will scarce to glory rise.

Then 'twit one, lift above you "Your heart with anguish riven;" Your little bird's an angel; Yes, your blossom blooms in heaven. C. N. H.

On Friday, the 20th inst., Mr. A. C. CRAINE, in the 57th year of his age.

Mr. Craine had been for many years previous to his death a resident of Bedford County. He was regarded as a highly estimable man by those who were long and intimately acquainted with him. Kind and courteous in his intercourse with others, and in all the relations of life of irreproachable character, his sudden decease is widely felt and sincerely mourned. He was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church in Bedford. His last days were characterized by great peace of mind, and calm resignation to the will of God. He seemed to have a clear apprehension of the plan of salvation, and unshaken confidence in the love and faithfulness of Christ. To the writer he repeatedly said: "I cling to Jesus. He is my only hope. He will not leave me nor forsake me."

And now, his suffering ended, we trust he has entered into rest. "And I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth. Yea, saith the spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them."

PUBLIC SALE OF BEDFORD FORGE AND LEMNOS IRON WORKS.

The undersigned will dispose of, at Public Sale, at the house of James Beckwith, in the town of Hopewell, Bedford County, Pa., on TUESDAY THE 21ST DAY OF FEBRUARY, NEXT, the valuable IRON PROPERTY, known as Bedford Forge and Lemnos Iron Works, situated in Hopewell Township, and within a short distance of the Huntingdon and Broad Top Rail Road.

The improvements at Bedford Forge, consist of a new Forge, (now in operation) with sheet iron roof, Coal House, Saw Mill, a large number of Houses for hands, a fine Mansion House, a good Barn and Stables. The tract of land on which these improvements are erected contains about 237 ACRES, and is well cultivated, and in a good state of cultivation. There is, also, on this tract, a very extensive and valuable vein of fossil iron ore, and one bank opened. Attached to this property there is another Farm of valuable land, containing about 7,000 ACRES, and veins of iron ore running through the whole of it.

The improvements at Lemnos, consist of a Clarion Furnace, (now in blast) Forge, Mansion House, Store House, Houses for hands, Stables, etc., etc. The ore bank, one vein of hematite, and the other of fossil, belonging to this property, contain iron of the best quality, and of vast extent. The timber lands attached to this property, contain about 4,500 ACRES, of which 1,000 Acres are good arable land, and can be converted into excellent farms.

The above lands will be sold together or in parcels to suit purchasers.

Drafts, diagrams, and full description of lands, will be furnished and exhibited to bidders on the day of sale.

At the same time there will be sold all the personal property belonging to Lemnos Iron Works, consisting of a large quantity of Pig Metal, Mule teams, Wagons, Harness, Forge and Furnace tools, Store Goods, Household Furniture, &c., &c.

The sale property, and will commence at 10 o'clock, P. M., and will be continued from day to day till all is sold.

TERMS—To suit purchasers, and will be made known at day of sale. A liberal credit will be allowed.
