FOR PRESIDENT IN 1860, HON. SIMON CAMERON. OF PENNSYLVANIA,

Subject to the decision of the National Convention.

FOR GOVERNOR:

ANDREW G. CURTIN, OF CENTRE COUNTY.

COL. ANDREW G. CURTIN.

We this day place at our mast-head, the name of Col. Andrew G. Curtin, the gentleman selected by the People's State Convention, as our candinate for Governor, there to remain till he is triumphantly elected in October. Col. Curtin was our first choice, and the first choice of the People's Party of Bedford County, and we confidently predict that he will receive a majority of her votes, as he is well known to many ecedings of the People's State Convention .or stands in higher estimation.

PEOPLE'S MEETING.

A meeting of the People's Party, assembled in the County Hall, on Monday evening last, for the purpose of placing in nomination a ticket to be supported at the Spring Election. The meeting was very large. Mr. Eben Pennell was appointed President, and Mr. Samuel J. Way, Secretary. After some discussion by Messrs. King, Russell, Barelay and others, the following ticket was placed in nomination.

Chief Burgess, Samuel L. Russell. Assistant Burgess, George R. Oster. Council, Samuel Vondersmith, Thomas M. Lyuch. High Constable, Alex. Henderson. Auditor, Wm. R. King. Town Clerk, Adam B. Carn.

Justices of the Peace, Samuel Radebaugh. Wm. T. Chapman. Judge of Election, Martin Millburn. Inspector, John R. Jordan. Assessor, Eben Pennell

The subject of this notice was a levely, amiable and intelligent child. Being blest with a pious example and instruction, we need not wonder that she early learned to look upon the pomp and vanities of the world as unworthy her attention. Though surrounded by the temptatious and allurements of the world she heeded them not, prefering that pleasure and happiness that proceeds from a performance of duty towards God. It was with agonized hearts that her parents traced the rapid progress of disease in their idolized child; she was to them as the light of their eyes. Her presence brought sunshine to their souls, and they looked forward to many happy years in her society. She is gone like a morning cloud and the early dew. Her bosom is cold, which once with love was warm. She has passed away while her thoughts were as pure as the upper sky, and as sweet as an opening blossom. She is laid to rest in the voiceless tomb, and the cold damp dow of the grave is glistening on her youthful brow. The clod of the valley has thrown back its last harsh echo as it fell upon the lid of her cell. She is in deep dreamless sleep.
