BEDFORD INQUIRER.

DIED.

On Sunday, the 22d ult., JOHN M., eldest son of Mr. John J. Luther, of this Borough, aged 18 years, 3 months and 14 days.

It seems sad to see the young and strong out down by "the reaper Death," in the midst of the buoyancy and heyday of life,--to bid farewell to this beautiful green earth, in the spring time of nature, and of human existence; and it is a mouraful duty to chronicle the early departure of such, for whom we have had bright hopes of a long and useful career on earth. Yet, when death has come to them, pot as an inexorable enemy, but as a friend, to transplant them to a brighter world, where the spring flowers never fade, and the inhabitant never weakens, nor grows old, the duty of recording the event is divested of its sadness, and the melancholy task becomes a grateful pleasure.

It is not overrating the character of the subject of this memoir, to say that of all our subject of this memoir, to say that of all our youth he was one of the most worthy and best beloved — one of those best calculated for use-fulness, had be lived; one best prepared for the change he has met. The descendant of a line of pious ancestry, (from his illustrious forefather, Martin Luther, of whom he was a lineal descendant in the ninth generation) the promises of God to the children of the forefather, Martin Luther, of whom he was a lineal descendant in the ninth generation) the promises of God to the children of the righteous seemed verified in him. He had carly sought his fathers' God, and bad connected himself with the church of his ancestors, and although he was suddenly cut down, and but a week intervened between the time of robust health and death, he was enabled to rely on his covenant GOD and SAVIOUR with unfaltering trust, and met his fate in fearless confidence.

Life was pleasant to him, for he had the qualities of heart necessary for its enjoyment; his was a cheerful, happy, genial and loving disposition; but, doubtless for him "to be with CHRIST is far better."

Well may his sorrowing friends take com fort in the thought, that while theirs is a great loss, his is a greater gain-that while they are mourning here, he is rejoicing in that

"Where saints of all ages in harmony meet; Their Saviour and brethren transported to greet, While the anthems of pleasure unceasingly roll, And the smile of the Lord is the feast of the soul." AMICUS.

On the 16th ult., DANIEL, infant son of Matthias and Barbara Otto, aged 8 months and 13 days.

The above is a portrait of David McCreary, of Napier township, who, on the 31st day of August, 1858, made affidavit before Justice Gorley that he 1858, made affidavit before Justice Gorley that he was treated for the cure of Cancer by three physi-cians of Bedford County, and by Dr. Newton of the Eelectic College in Cincinnati, for a period of nearly eight months, notwithstanding which, his lup, nose, and a portion of his left check were entirely caten away! He had given up all hope, when he heard of the "Blood Searcher," and was induced to try it. Four bottles cured him, and although sadly disfigured, there is no question but what this invaluable medicine saved his life. The full partic-ulars of this remarkable case may be seen in a cir-
