THE ONLY PREPARATION WORTHY OF
UNIVERSAL CONFIDENCE & PATRONAGE.

FOR STATESMEN, JUDGES, CLERKS, AND GYMNES.

Ladies and Gentlemen, in all parts of the world testify to the efficacy of Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and gentlemen of the Press are unanimous in its praise. A few testimonials only can be here given; see circular for more, and it will be impossible for you to count.

74 Wall Street, New York, Dec. 20th, 1858.
GENTLEMEN: Your note of 15th inst., has been received, saying that I had been benefited by the use of Wood's Hair Restorative, and requesting my certificate of the fact if I had no objection to give it.

I regard it to you cheerfully, because I think it due. My age is about 50 years; the color of my hair turns, and inclined to curl. Some five or six years since I began to turn gray, and the scalp on the crown of my head to lose its sensibility and dandruff to form upon it. Each of these disagreeable ailments increased with time, and about four months since a fourth was added to them, by hair falling off the top of my head and threatening to make me bald.

In this unpleasant predicament, I was induced to try Wood's Hair Restorative, mainly to arrest the falling off of my hair, for I had really no expectation that my gray hair could ever be restored to its original except by dyes. I was, however, greatly surprised to find after the use of two bottles only, that not only was the falling off arrested, but the color was restored to the gray hairs and sensibility to the scalp, and dandruff ceased to form on my head, very much to the gratification of my wife, at whose solicitation I was induced to try it.

For this among the many obligations I owe to the hair restorative, I strongly recommend all husbands to give the admiration of their wives to profit by my example, and use it if growing gray or going bald.
Very respectfully, BEN. A. LAYBEN, To O. J. Wood & Co., 414 Broadway, New York.
My family are absent from the city, and I am no longer at No. 11 Carroll Place.

Siamastown, Ala., July 10th, 1859.
To Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done my hair so much good since I commenced the use of it, that I wish to make known to the public or its agents on the fair, which are great. A man or woman may be nearly deprived of life, and by a resort to your Hair Restorative, the hair will return more beautiful than ever; at least this is my experience. Believe it all! Yours truly, WM. H. KENEDY.

P. S.—You can publish the above if you like.— By publishing in your southern papers you will get more patronage south. I can assure of your correspondents in the Mobile Mercury, a strong southern paper. W. H. Kennedy.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.
Professor O. J. Wood: Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to answer as the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

HENRY JOHNSON.
The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small bottle is a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion than the medium, retails for $3.

HOPSTETTER'S
STOMACH BITTERS.

It is a fact that, at some period, every member of the human race is subject to disease or disturbance of the bodily functions; but, with the aid of a good tonic and the exercise of plain common sense, they may be able so to regulate the system as to secure permanent health. In order to accomplish this, it is certainly the true course to pursue a natural state of things at the least hazard of vital strength and life. For this purpose, Dr. Hopstetter has introduced to this country a preparation bearing his name, which is not a new medicine, but one that has been tried for years, giving satisfaction to all who have used it. The Bitters operate powerfully upon the stomach, bowels, and liver, restoring them to a healthy and vigorous action, and thus, by the simple process of strengthening nature, enable the system to triumph over disease.

For the cure of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Nausea, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, or any Bilious Complaints, arising from a morbid condition of the Stomach or Bowels, producing Cramps, Fever, Colic, Cholera Morbus, &c., these Bitters have no equal.

Diarrhoea, dysentery or flux, so generally contracted by new settlers, and caused principally by the change of water and diet, will be speedily regulated by a brief use of this preparation.

RENOWNED BITTERS, which are probably more valuable, in all its various forms, than any other, and the cause of which may always be attributed to derangements of the digestive organs, can be cured without aid by using HOPSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, as directed on the bottle. For this disease every physician will recommend Bitters of some kind, then why not use an article known to be infallible? All nations have their Bitters, as a preventive of disease and strengthener of the system in general; and among them all that is not to be found in a more healthy people than the Germans, from whom this preparation emanated, based upon scientific experiments which have tended to prove the value of this great preparation in the scale of medical science.

FERMAN AND AGUE.—This trying and provoking disorder, which fixes its residence upon the body of man, reducing him to a mere shadow in a short time, and rendering him physically and mentally useless, can be driven from the body by the use of HOPSTETTER'S RENOWNED BITTERS. Further, none of the above-stated diseases can be contracted, even in exposed situations, if the Bitters are used as per directions. And as they neither create nausea nor offend the palate, and render unnecessary any change of diet or interruption of ordinary pursuits, but promote sound sleep and healthy digestion, the complaint is removed as speedily as is consistent with the production of a thorough and permanent cure.

For Persons in Advanced Years, who are suffering from an enfeebled constitution and infirmer body, these Bitters are invaluable as a restorative of strength and vigor, and need only be tried to be appreciated. And to a mother while nursing her child, if she is indispensable, especially where the mother's nourishment is inadequate to the demands of the child, these Bitters are strength must yield, and here it is where a good tonic, such as Hopstetter's Stomach Bitters, is needed to impart temporary strength and vigor to the system.
Ladies should by all means try this remedy for all cases of debility, and, before so doing, should ask their physician, who, if he is acquainted with the virtue of the Bitters, will recommend their use in all cases of weakness.

CAUTION—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOPSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J.
Hopstetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.

Prepared and sold by HOPSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa., and sold by all the principal and respectable dealers generally throughout the United States, Canada, South America, and Germany.
