

WHERE IS GREENER?—A Wisconsin democratic paper admits that "Lincoln is a strong candidate. There is no use talking. He is the hummilist man in America, and would take the jack-knife if the last owner will only deliver it. This will give him popularity. He splits rails in early times, and that will be hawked from one end of the land to other; it will give him some such prestige as hard cider gave Harrison. His uncouth way, his name—'Abe'—his ugly visage, the hardships of his early life, will go far to create some enthusiasm. But several improbabilities are in the way of a Fremont or a 'Tippacaw' excitement. Lincoln will rhyme with nothing—There is not a word in the language that will jingle with it." We submit this difficulty to GREENER, of Columbus, Ohio, who found so many good rhymes to Freelinghaysen, in 1844, when it was said that none could be found.—Let us see. There is thinkin', no drinkin', and winkin', and blinkin', and clinkin', to say nothing of stinkin', as applied to the democracy. We rather guess that rhymes enough can be found.

The Republicans of Dayton, Ohio, had a rousing meeting on Monday evening, to listen to the Hon. Thomas Corwin, who delivered a speech two hours in length. The Journal says he referred to the action of the Chicago Convention, to his own course there, and to his preferences in regard to a Presidential candidate. Of Mr. Lincoln he spoke in the highest terms, as an honest, able man, who, if elected, would administer the Government with a strict regard to his constitutional obligations, and with a determination to meet out equal and exact justice to all sections of the Union.—He said he believed the administration of a Republican President would serve to convince the South that the charge of hostility to it, which was attributed to the Republican party, was without any foundation in truth. In Mr. Lincoln, the candidate of that party, he expressed the utmost confidence, as a man who would do right in every emergency, and one in whom the people might repose entire confidence.

WHICH GIVES THE MOST?—The House and the Senate seem to be playing this game with the Public Lands. The Washington correspondent of the Post thus decides: Some of the Democratic papers assert that the only difference between the Senate and House Homestead bills is, that the Senate bill taxes the settler twenty-five cents an acre for his land. This is an entire mistake. The Senate bill does not give an acre of land short of $1.25 an acre, to any settler now on the land, whereas the House bill gives it to all, whether now upon the soil, or hereafter to come upon it, married or unmarried. The Senate bill, under the most stringent conditions, allows men with families to settle on the public lands, and pay at the rate of twenty-five cents per acre. But it cuts off that class of deserving men now upon the lands who have not paid for them—the squatters in our distant territories.

The nomination of John Bell does not seem to give perfect satisfaction in all quarters. An exchange says: "Ex-Gov. Hunt, of New York, who presided over the Baltimore Union Convention, caused it to be understood that he would not consider himself bound to support the nominations of that body. He would wait for more light before deciding."

The New York Express, we see, which led off for and advocated the claims of Sam Houston, publishes an address to the people of that State in favor of the hero of San Jacinto, and inclines to the idea of taking him in preference to the nominee of any Convention. All this looks like bolting the Constitutional nominations.

PROF. J. C. SMITH, A. M. Dear Sir—After a thorough practical test in the counting room of the knowledge acquired at your hands I am perfectly convinced that there is no similar Institution in the U. States, that combines so many and such superior advantages as the Iron City College; and I do most heartily commend it as an Institution justly entitled to all the credit it has so universally secured. Respectfully yours, S. M. HEBBON, of the firm of James Hebron & Son, Millersburg, May 12, 1860.

"SIMPLE LINCOLN GREEN."—The modest dignity and plain attire of "honest old Abe," who amid all the glitter of fashionable life has never forgotten the labor, privations, and struggles through which he has attained his present elevation, and the certainty that he will be elected President, combine to remind us of Scott's description of Fitz James in the Lady of the Lake: "Mid furs and silks and jewels' sheen, He stood in simple Lincoln green, The centre of the glittering ring, And Snowden's night is Scotland's King."

The following, which occurred in Washington a few days after the nominations at Baltimore, will serve to show how that nomination is looked upon by the "live men" of the South American party. A prominent Southern Opposition member of Congress met one of the returning delegates from that Baltimore Convention. "Well," said he, "who did you nominate?" "We nominated Bell and Everett." "What!"—Bell and Everett? "Yes." "Why didn't you nominate Choate?" "Choate!—why he is dead!" "Oh, I know it; but he has not been dead a very long time."

WHAT DEMOCRATS THINK OF IT.—Mr. Green, Democratic Senator from Missouri, said in a recent debate on the Homestead bill, that the men who would receive the benefit of it were "worthless scoundrels who never earned a dollar in their lives, nor never will." If the bill passed, he said, it "would make the government an encourager of laziness and want of thrift." Such is a "Democratic" view of the laboring man who would honestly till the soil if he could only procure it.

OLD THAD.—A good story is told of Thaddeus Stevens, of Pennsylvania, in connection with the tenth ballot for Douglas at Charleston. The news came over the wires that Mr. Douglas had received one hundred and fifty and one-half votes. "One hundred and fifty—and one-half," repeated Mr. Stevens, very slowly and mock seriously, "the one-half means Bigler!"

The Leavenworth (Kansas) Daily Times asserts with confidence that Kansas will cast the largest Republican vote it ever cast for Abraham Lincoln.

The Pittsburg Journal says: "The 'Democrat' Convention, which is to hold its adjourned meeting at Baltimore, on the 18th of June, will open its sessions by singing the following stanza from one of Watts' hymns: "So when a raging fever burns, We shift from side to side by turns; But 'tis a poor relief we gain, To change the place but keep the pain."

RAILS.—The Democrats are finding fault with the Republicans of the North West, because they say "OLD ABE LINCOLN" can split rails and maul Democrats." We hope they will keep their temper; it is true, none of their candidates can split rails but there are some of them now on the fence.

Theodore Parker died at Florence, Italy, on the 10th of May. Every Opposition paper in Indiana supports Lincoln, including eight or ten which support Fillmore in 1860.

The tallest man in the Chicago Convention was Mr. Buskirk, a fine specimen of the genus boosier, measuring six feet eleven inches in his hose.

The Republicans of Peru (Indiana) held a ratification meeting on Monday night, which, though the notice was brief, was very largely attended, and manifested the enthusiasm so universal all over the State. The Washburn office is going to give a glorious account of itself this fall. Other places in Indiana are moving in the same direction.

DYSPEPSIA! DYSPEPSIA! DYSPEPSIA! What is it? How Cured? Dyspepsia is our National Disease—weak stomach, feeble digestion, distress after eating, costive habit, bilious condition. How many suffer with it and its attendant symptoms of low spirits, bad taste, coated tongue, obstipated bowels, and attacks of headache. Do you know how to cure it? Generally, because the bowels are constipated, resort is had to cathartics or laxatives. But such a condition was never cured by cathartics, whose only office is to weaken the digestion, and impair the integrity of the entire assimilative system.

But HUMPHREY'S HOMEOPATHIC DYSPEPSIA PILLS—a simple medicinal sugar pill—have cured hundreds of the worst and most obstinate cases. This is done simply by improving the tone, and restoring the integrity of the digestive organs, from which result, good appetite, regular habits, a clear head, and buoyant spirits. Such a medicine is a gem, and only requires to be known to be appreciated.

Price, 25 cents per box, with directions. Six boxes, $1. N. B.—A full set of HUMPHREY'S HOMEOPATHIC SPECIFICS, with Book of Directions, and twenty different Remedies, in large vials, morocco case, $5; ditto, in plain case, $4; case of fifteen boxes, and Book, $2.

WONDERFUL, BUT TRUE. A few days since, Mr. Jas. H. Beadle, of Huntsville, Alabama, called on us and gave us permission to publish for the benefit of suffering humanity, the astonishing cure which had been effected in the case of his wife by the use of Dr. Hance's Vegetable Epileptic Pills. He informed us, that at the time his wife commenced using the medicine, her system was so entirely prostrated, by the number of spasms she had undergone, as to reduce her weight to 100 lbs. Since she has been taking the pills, she has entirely got over the spasms and has gained in weight and bodily health. She now weighs at least 200 lbs., and declares she is in better enjoyment of health than ever before in her life. Mr. Beadle also related the case of Mr. Harrison Lightfoot of the same town, who has been entirely cured of the worst form of Epilepsy by these same pills. Mr. Lightfoot's case was so bad that he never passed a week without having an attack, often falling down in the street. He has not had an attack for more than a year. Mr. Beadle thinks that if the pills ever fail in curing a case, it will be for the want of a proper perseverance on the part of the person in taking them, as he feels assured from observation in the case of his wife, that if they are taken for a sufficient length of time, they will cure any case of Epilepsy that is cured by any part of the country by mail, on the receipt of a remittance.—Address SERJ. S. HANCE, 108 Baltimore street, Baltimore, Md. Price, one box, $3; two, $5; twelve, $24.

COMMON SENSE rules the mass of the people, whatever the misnamed and misanthropic philosophers may say to the contrary. Show them a good thing; let its merits be clearly demonstrated, and they will not hesitate to give it their most cordial patronage. The masses have already ratified the judgment of a physician, concerning the virtues of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, as may be seen in the immense quantities of this medicine that are annually sold in every section of the land. It is now recognized as greatly superior to all other remedies yet devised for diseases of the digestive organs, such as diarrhoea, dysentery, dyspepsia, and for the various fevers that arise from derangement of those portions of the system. Hostetter's name is rapidly becoming a household word, from Maine to Texas, from the shores of the Atlantic to the Pacific. Try the article and be satisfied.
