Under the head of "A Douglas Noon at a Yancey midnight," the Baltimore correspondent of Forney's Press tells the following good one on our cotemporary of the Ebensourg Mountaineer. We commend Noon for his pluck in not letting the Yancevites cry him down .--Who knows but Noon may yet be able to fill Toombs, place in other places as well as he did at the "Yancey Midnight." Here is the

"A good mistake occurred at the Yancey balcony. There being loud calls of 'TOOMBS,' 'TOOMBS,' Mr. Noons, editor of the Cambria (Pa.) Mountaineer, who was near by, mistook the sound, and, wondering at his sudden and extensive popularity, thought he was called for. "Toomes," "Toomes," amid the clamor, was "Noons," "Noons," to his ear. With feelings which can be imagined better than they can be described, he made his way to the front of the balcony, and thanking his fellow citizens for their wise impartiality, proceeded to make a strong Douglas speech. In vaiu did the Yancey men strive to interrupt him. In vain was he pulled by the coat tail, nudged in the ribs, caught by the elbow. The people, equally in the dark as himself cheered him, and more than overbalanced the attempts of the Yancey men to cry him down. He continued in an emphatic Dougias veiu, and the whispered im-pertunities of friends and foes around him to desist, telling him that he was in the wrong place, could not convince him. So he made his speech, feeling that the people knew best.

THE OHIO DEMOCRACY .- The die has been cast in Ohio. The two divisions of the Defield cordially detesting each other. The Regular State Convention was held at Columbus on Wednesday, at which a resolution, permitting Democrats to choose between Douglas and Breckinridge without injury to their politi- for penetration of thought, for power of irre-One feature of the platform is especially diverting. The Douglas Democracy, who cannot hope to carry more than one or two Southern States, undertakes to scorge the Republicans for their sectionalism! Solemn, iudeed, as this question is, and as much all good national men may deplore the rapid strides of sectionalism, this pot-call-kettle-black must excite a smile from even the most apprehensive lover of the Union. But let it pass.

"A little nonesense now and then Is relished by the best of men."

The two factions go into the contest waging "war to the knife" against each other, so that Lincoln and Hamlin will carry the State by an immense majority .- Har. Tel.

INCONSISTENCY OF THE SQUATTER SOV-EREIGNS .- The nomination of Fitzpatrick as States, and consequently there can be no electhe candidate of the Squatter Sovereigns— tion. It will devolve upon the Senate to Fitzpatrick, who voted for Jeff. Davis' Senate choose between the two candidates for Vice resolutions and for the Lecompton bill, who President, who will be unquestionably Hamlin stands on the same platform with the Administration, and with Breckinridge and Lane, and who is directly opposed to the Squatter Sovereignty doctrines of Mr. Douglas—was a surender of all that the Douglas men have ever the squatter of the question for Bell, all the same of honors of the squatter of the question for Bell. claimed in the way of houesty of purpose. It was a base betrayal of the masses of the party, unless they are also false to all their Northern professions. When he withdrew from the ticket, Lane will be next President. It is between an opportunity for correcting the mistake, if it Lincoln and Lane that the people really have was a mistake, was afforded; but the selection to choose. of Herschel V. Johnson as his successor, is worse than the original blunder. Johnson is a rampant fire-eater, an avowed secessionist, with Vice Presidency, was refused admission into as little sympathy for the peculiarities of the Douglas Convention for not being accredand more bonest avowals of Lincoln. In voting Governor of Georgia, and one of the most for him the Douglasites will have the consolation of knowing that they are aiding in the lists in the State, besides being in favor of reelection of a man who has only thorough contempt for them and their Squatter Sovereignty notions. The Pouglasites by nominating Firzpatrick and Johnson, proved that they did not care a straw for the Squatter Sovereignty image which they pretended to worship, but were devoted merely to the personal ambition of Doug-

NONE SO LOW AS TO DO HIM REVERENCE! -Did any of Locofoco friends note the fact that in neither of the three National Conventions of their party-the Charleston Convention or the Douglas and Breckmridge Conventions of Baltimore-was the name of Mr. Buchanan so much as named, much less his Administration endorsed? Was there ever before a Democratic Administration, however imbecile or corrupt it may have been, that was treated so contemptuously by a Democratic Convention, or, that failed to receive an endorsement ?-Was James Buchapan's Administration so deeply corrupt that even Democratic leaders. in their National Conventions, were ashamed to name it? If this is so, what must the real character of this Administration be when exposed to the full glare of day. The world will probably never find out. But when Democratic leaders fail even to name, much less endorse it, it must be bad indeed.

THE IRREPRESSIBLE CONFLICT IN CAMBRIA County! - Two Democratic Tickets en the field! -We learn by a gentleman direct from Ebensburg, that the Democratic Convention met there yesterday. Geo. Nelson Smith received the votes of thirty-three delegates as a candidate for the Legislature, whereupon twentyseven delegates bolted, left the convention assembled at another place and nominated another ticket. The Smith delegates also remained in convention and nominated a full county ticket. The Democrats, therefore, have two tickets in the field; and as the Opposition candidate for Assembly was last year elected by over ave hundred majority in that county, with but one opponent, his success next Octo ber, by a much larger majority, is now rendered certain. The result of this "rrepressible confliet" in little Cambria will be, we hope, the election of the whole Opposition county ticket.

The reason why the number of students attending the Iron City College is so much larger than in other schools, their work is so complete in style and finish, and their success in business so uniform and complete, is because each student receives the direct personal attention of the Principals throughout the entire course of study.

HONEST CONFESSION .- The editor of the Albany Atlas and Argus was a delegate to the Baltimore Convention. On returning home be hoisted the Douglas ticket at the head of his columns and makes the following extraordinary confession, which corroborates the suspicion we have long entertained:

"The admission of the southern delegations precisely as carried in the Convention—had it not been followed by a secession—would not have nominated Mr. Douglas. He could not have secured two-thirds, even of those present, and we speak confidently when we say that there was no purpose—certainly not on the part of the New York delegation—to declare him reminated without nominated without a two-thirds vote of the delegates present. Further than this we are entirely satisfied that, had there been no secession, after it had been demonstrated by a few ballots that Mr. Douglas could not receive two-thirds, he would have been withdrawn by his friends, and a harmonious nomination of some other person would have taken place.—
If not withdrawn, we are certain he would have been abandoned by a sufficient number to have given another candidate a two-thirds nomination. The secession nominated Douglas. Had there been no secession at Charles ton, another candidate would have been there nominated. And had there been no secession at Baltimore, Mr. Douglas would not have been the nominee. He is, therefore, clerly indebted to the blunders of his opponents for his nomi-

I say here to-day, that I have heard the great men of this nation-North and South, East and West-for four consecutive years in the Hall of the House of Representatives, and in the Senate of the United States; I have heard the mooracy have failed to unite, and enter the Stephens and Toombs of the South; the Sewards, Chases, and Corwins of the North: I have heard the most renowed orators on the floor of the Senate and House daily for years; and I say here to-day, that for clearness of statement, and Breckinridge without 10 jury to their political standing, was summarily disposed of, and the Breckinridge Democrats given to understand that if they persisted in their opposition to Douglas and Johnson, they must consider themselves beyond the pale of the party.—
The latter accepted the issue, organized, and

[Prolonged cheers.] Hon. R. Yates,

> THE REAL ISSUE .- So far as there will be any contest in the approaching Presidential election, it has between Mr. Lincoln and Joe Lane of Oregon. If the President shall be elected by the people, as now seems almost certain, Lincoln inevitably must be chosen.— It is utterly impossible for any other man to obtain a majority of the electoral vote. Owing to the peculiar pelitical character of the House of Representatives, it will be impracticable for any party to obtain a clear majority of the chosen by the people; if he is not, then Joe

Mr. Johnson, the Douglas candidate for the oughas theory of Slavery as with the bolder lited as a delegate properly. He was formerly thorough-paced ultra fire-eaters and secessionopening the slave-trade. When Mr. Cobb was put forward as the Union candidate in 1850. Mr. Johnson was among his violent opponents for surrendering the rights of the South. The denunciations of "disunionists," so frequently indulged in by the Douglas presses and orators, apply with as much force to Mr. Johnson as to the nominees of the secessionists.

A good and useful man has gone over the dark valley. We trust be has arrived at the courts of the upper sanctuary. No obituary, filled with exaggerated virtues is our purpose but so prominent a citizen should not pass away without a notice of the event. When the subject of this notice, was born fifty five years ago, near the foot of the Allegheny, schools were scarce, and oppertunities for edveation limited. He acquired enough, however, to enable him in after years, with an extraordinary fund of common sense, and great industry, to cope successfully in his business with professional men, and indeed, with all others. His integrity was above suspicion; hence the unbounded confidence reposed in him by his neighbors, and all who know him. His business in a legal way, was so extensive for a member of years, that he became a safe connsellor. He was also a faithful trustee .-Once Sheriff of the County, and being Administrator, Executor, Trustee, Guardian, &c., for a great number of people, the writer of this, who know him well, and was cognizant of a great many of his fiduciary affairs, can say with truth that very few ever complained, and none could justly complain, of the management of his trusts. After a life of great industry, he accumulated a good estate. He has well provided for his family. May they deserve it. Be came to settle his last account; the Register was the Angel of Death, and took the account to the upper court. To say that that account contained no irregularities, would be a libel upon the dead. Where is the account to which exceptions could not be taken? The Auditor, with the tear of mercy and forgiveness, has expunged the errors; the account has passed on to the great Judge; the decree is made. "To err, is human; to forgive, divine; -the Saviour has passed it, and the account is accepted. A FRIEND.

BLOOD SEARCHER, A STANDARD MEDICINE
For the speedy, radical, and effectual cure of ALL DISEASES arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This medicine has wrought the most miraculous cures in desperate cases of Scrofula, | Cancerous formations Cutaneous Diseases, | Erssipelas, Böils, Erysipelas, Boils, Sore Eyes, Scald Head. Pimples on the face, Old, Stubborn Ulcers,

Rheumatic Disorders, Costiveness, Salt Rheum, General Debility,

Mercurial Diseases, Liver Complaint, Loss of Appetite,
Low Spirits, Foul Stomach,
Female Complaints, and all Diseases having their origin in an impure state of the Blood.

The above is a portrait of David McCreary, of Napier township, who, on the 31st day of August, 1858, made affidavit before Justice Gorley that he was treated for the cure of Cancer by three physicians of Bedford County, and by Pr. Newton of the Eclectic College in Cincinnati, for a period of nearly eight months, notwithstanding which, his lip, nose, and a portion of his left cheek were entirely eaten away! He had given up all hope, when he heard of the "Blood Scarcher," and was induced to try it. Four bottles cured him, and although sadly disfigured, there is no question but what this invaluable medicine saved his life. The full particulars of this remarkable case may be seen in a circular, which can be had of any of the Agents.

We also refer to the case of Nancy Blakney, of E derton, Armstrong county, Pa., cored of Scrofula after being unable to get out of bed for three years.
