THE FOSTER PLAG. Proudly the flag of Foster floats, As favoring winds are given; While far above our little town It floats, almost in Heaven.

Blazing on all its ample folds' Are na ught but stripes and stars, The emblem of our victories In all our country's wars.

O, highly favored little town Where floats our country's flag Upon a hickory hoop-pole raised A striped muslin rag.

'Twas raised by men and little boys
'Bout nine o'c lock at night,
Because they feared that day would bring
Their dirty deeds to light.

O, who would be a Democrat, And be ashamed to own
Their simple, dirty, sneaking tricks
Or face the glorious sun?

Let daylight see your every act
And shun the deeds of night,
Assured the searching mind of time
Will bring your deeds to light.

No. 562 Broadway, New York Sold by H. C. Reamer. August 31, 1860

DURING the summer that has just passed away, thousands of sufferers from dysentery and diarrhoea have been relieved by the use of Hostetter's Bitters, a medicine which is evidently destined to maintain a permanent place in the public estimation. Billious diarrhea is one of those diseases which baffles the skill of the physician. The medicine they administer to act upon the bowles never seems to reach the source of the evil. The difficulty is to reach the source of the evil. The difficulty is to get a remedy that will reach all the digestive organs, and give them simultaneously a rush of vigor, to rid themselves of this disease. This problem is solved by the Bitters, which never fails to conquer the most stubborn eases. It is only fair to say; that during the season ust closed, this medicine has achieved more cross than any other ever presented achieved more curse than any other ever presented to the public, and during the fall, which that terri-ble scourge, the fewer and ague, is so prevalent, the Bitters will gain tresh fame.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

A compound remedy, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:

SCROPULA AND SCROPTLOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISTASSES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILES AND STRILLES AND STR

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul cruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pinnles, cruptions, vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, cruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation, of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been mis-During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bittr and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judicieusly taken according to directions on be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, has won for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of Throat and Lung Complaint, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence of its virtues, wherever it has been employed. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.

Prog. O. J. Wood, Dear Sir — Year Hair Re.

Oak Grove, S. C. June 24, 1859.
PROF. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—
During the year 1854. I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was finally destroyed over the entire surface of the head. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disdropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and, as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally deteated in every prescription advanced.

These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy Hair Restorative, which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy mosult: two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my most sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.

You can publish this if you think proper. Yours, very respectfully.
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.

Office of the Jeffersonian, A Philippi, Va., Dec. 12, 1858. Dear Sir:—I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance. ure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been hald ever since his early youth, so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. Tho gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persona can testify to the truth of this statement; I give it to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,

THOMPSON SURGHNOR.

Dr. Wood: Dear Sir: Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your *Hair Restorative" it soom recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of threasizes, viz; large, medium and small holds \(\frac{1}{2}\) a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in perportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent more in proportion, and retails for three dollars per bottle.
