BEDFORD INQUIRER.

BEDFORD, Pa. Friday Morning, Oct. 26, 1860. "FEARLESS AND FREE."

D. OVER—Editor and Proprietor. FOR PRESIDENT, ABRAHAM LINCOLN, OF ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, HANNIBAL HAMLIN, OF MAINE. ELECTORS. HON. JAMES POLLOCK. HON. THOMAS M. HOWE.

LINCOLN MEN!

On Tuesday, week, is the election for President. Are you ready for the contest? If not, buckle on your armor, and enter the glorious fight immediately.

Mr. S. also said that there had been fraud used at the election in Middle Woodbury Tp. What do you think of this, voters of Middle Woodbury? Because you have taken a stand for freedom, you are accused of using fraud.

Sam'l H. Tate said: I don't like the tone and temper of the speakers who have proceeded me; it sounds like that good old hymn— "Bark on the tombs a doleful sound, Mine ears attend the cry."

I for one shall always stand a faithful sentinel on the watchtower of Democracy and proclaim, "Blow ye the trumpet, blow." Fellow citizens, if we are beaten, we are not dismayed. But we are not beaten. Haven't we elected Wm. P. Schell in the county by 272? Haven't we elected extra fees S. H. Tate by 170 votes, and the balance of the Democratic ticket, except the Commissioner? Yes, gentlemen, in spite of all that Jordan, King, Washabaugh and Over could do, the people would not listen to them, but the people came up to the help of Extra S. H. Tate against the mighty!

Everywhere the Locofooco party is dispirited and broken down, they have no hopes of carrying the election, but they intend to make a desperate stand in Bedford county—they wish to keep the county Locofooco. Don't let them do it. You can carry the county for Lincoln, if you try, Lincoln men. We have the prestige of success which is worth a hundred votes in this county. Friends, see that every voter is out on Tuesday week, old and young. Let our watchword be—Bedford county must give a majority for Honest Abe Lincoln.

CAMP TAYLOR. There were six Companies attending the military Encampment, at this place, last week, viz: Bedford Riflemen—Capt. Thos. H. Lyons. Schellsburg Black Plumed Riflemen—Capt. Geo. S. Mullin.

Bloody Run Blues—Capt. Philip Morgret. Clearville Infantry—Capt. Sam'l Mixell. Hopewell Riflemen—Capt. J. C. Howman. Cumberland Valley Blues—Capt. James Hauey.

Field Officers present—Brig. General Lemuel Evans, Col. Thos. W. Horton, Lieut. Col. S. B. Tate, Major Wm. Dierdt, Adjutant John A. Gump. Brigade Inspector A. J. Sanson, was also in attendance.

Col. Alex. Compher, 1st aid to the Brigadier General took command of the Regiment, the General being unable on account of having broken a rib a short time before.

The soldiers looked well, and went through with their manœuvres in a soldier-like manner. The turnout was not large, and the encampment continued from Monday until Friday. During its progress, the town was quite lively, a great many people from the country being present.

LOCOFOCO MEETING.

The Locofooco Club of this place met on Saturday night, last, and we have been favored with the following report of the proceedings, by a couple of gentlemen who were there:

Mr. Cessna said: We have been defeated, but if we had done as we should have done, we would not have been defeated; we now see, when it is too late, what we should have seen before. This will teach us a lesson. [Query: What should they have seen before? Why, that the Republicans are stronger than they.]

Wm. P. Schell said: The Democratic party is founded on truth, [Curious, indeed!] and must stand; it will stand. Although it now be trodden under foot, yet it will rise again. [He did not say when, though.] The Republican party is founded on nothing at all. It is founded—I can compare it to nothing else but founded on Abolitionism. It is a mere nondescript thing. The Republicans are greedy for the spoils, and are fighting for the different offices; they will eat out the very substance of the party; they will break up the party themselves.

[Mr. S. here proceeded to name the different applicants for office, from Attorney General down to Clerk in the Post Office.] Mr. Schell next charged the Hon. Francis Jordan with saying, in a recent speech, that if blood was to be shed, let it be shed now, and that he (Jordan) was ready to do his share in shedding blood. This is false, and Mr. Schell very well knows it. Mr. Jordan did say something to this effect: "It must be a curious Union if it will not bear the workings of its own machinery; if it is that easily dissolved, the sooner we know it the better. I want to have it tested, and if it will not stand I would rather see the dissolution take place in my day, than to have it occur with my children after me." [Mr. Schell, you must not try to heap calumny on Mr. Jordan, or you will find to your cost that "Jordan is a hard road to travel."]

Mr. S. also said that there had been fraud used at the election in Middle Woodbury Tp. What do you think of this, voters of Middle Woodbury? Because you have taken a stand for freedom, you are accused of using fraud.

Sam'l H. Tate said: I don't like the tone and temper of the speakers who have proceeded me; it sounds like that good old hymn— "Bark on the tombs a doleful sound, Mine ears attend the cry."

I for one shall always stand a faithful sentinel on the watchtower of Democracy and proclaim, "Blow ye the trumpet, blow." Fellow citizens, if we are beaten, we are not dismayed. AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—On our first page will be found the list of premiums of the Bedford County Agricultural Society. There is one thing, however, that strikes us as unjust. Persons who keep agricultural implements, &c., for sale, manufactured in the East, brought them to the Fair, and have received a considerable amount in premiums upon them. It was all right to exhibit them there, and wrong for the committees to allow a premium upon them, and worse for these persons to accept the premiums.

There were more votes polled in this Congressional District than in any other Congressional District in the State, with the exception of the 10th. The 17th District polls 22,817, and the 16th polls 23,780.

"DIVIDED WE STAND, UNITED WE FALL."

THE DOUGLAS MAN TO BE CHEATED, AND THE BRECKINRIDGE MAN TO BE CHEATED!

The Locofooco State Committee have withdrawn the straight Douglas electoral ticket, and have fallen back upon the Reading electoral ticket, and there is now no other in the field upon the part of either wing of the party. Upon the Reading electoral ticket, which all Douglas men and all Breckinridge men are called upon to support, are sixteen avowed Breckinridge men, and only eleven Douglas men! The Douglas man is invited to support this ticket, a majority of whom are in favor of the disunion and volunteer candidate!

"Won't you walk into my parlor?" said the splendor to the fly. "This prettiest little parlor that ever you did spy."

And the Breckinridge man, he is to be cheated too; instead of being able to give a whole vote for his candidate, he has to vote for eleven twenty-sevenths of a ticket which is in favor of Douglas, whom he blames with being the cause of the present shattered condition of his party! The ticket is "neither fish, flesh nor fowl," nor even "good red herring." If you vote for it, you don't know for whom you vote. You don't vote for Douglas, nor you don't vote for Breckinridge, and you vote for both. The only way to remedy this, is to vote for the Lincoln electoral ticket, and then you know for whom you are voting.

The Philadelphia Sunday Dispatch says: "This is, we take it, a very bitter pill, and although the leaders have settled that the 'crank and fil' of the Douglas men shall support the same ticket that the Breckinridge men support, it will require a vast expenditure of sugar to coax them to swallow the dose."

"We cannot imagine any contrivance better calculated to give Pennsylvania to Lincoln. The Breckinridge men will doubtless support the ticket freely; they are fully cognizant of their own weakness, and they also have won the game. But on the part of the Douglas men apathy and dissatisfaction must be the result. They do not compromise with the foe; they have surrendered. Instead of going down with their flag flying, they are about to submit to the disgrace of supporting a Presidential candidate whom they cordially hate, and who has been the cause of the disintegration and probable defeat of the Democratic party. Far better would it have been to keep the straight Douglas ticket in the field, than to submit to a minority. A peace so patched up cannot last, but will be torn asunder at the first strain, and a hatred most savage will ensue. There are principles dividing the Breckinridges and Douglas men that are irreconcilable, and which ought not to have been sacrificed for the sake of expediency. After this ill settled, weak and most unwise arrangement who shall endeavor, in view of its dishonouring effect, to compute the majority of Lincoln in Pennsylvania? Assuming to every probability, it will so greatly exceed that of Curtin as to be 'immense.'"

The last Gazette makes a great fuss at what it calls a "stupendous and villainous attempt at fraud," in which an attempt is made to cheat Wm. E. Lehman out of his election in the 1st Congressional district in Philadelphia. Now, John M. Butler, the Republican candidate, contends that he is fairly elected, and insists that his majority on a fair count of the votes will exceed the present apparent majority. But the officers of election in that district are Locofoocos. Wm. Byerly, the Return Judge, who is charged with altering the returns, is a Locofooco Breckinridge man, and the whole difficulty is between the Douglas (Lehman) a Douglas man) and Breckinridge men. The Gazette knows this, and yet for political effect it thought to blame the Republicans, who had nothing to do with it. Tell the true story, Gazette. The matter ought to be completely sifted, and if Lehman is elected, he ought to have his seat. We don't want to profit by Locofooco chicanery and quarrels.

DIDN'T PROVE TRUE.—The report that John Cessna, Esq., circulated all over Bedford County, that Foster would carry Philadelphia by from 15,000 to 25,000 majority, and that he would be elected by 15,000 majority. The people will hereafter know what reliance is to be placed on John's stories about politics.—Bad prognosticators, these Locofoocos, especially about election times!

DID PROVE TRUE.—The advices received here by our friends, that Philadelphia would not give Foster 3,000 majority—and that Curtin would be elected, by from 15,000 to 20,000 majority. The only thing wrong about it was, that it was 32,000! Whose predictions are to be relied upon, hereafter.

HON. JOHN COVODE. The election of "Honest John Covode," in the Westmoreland, Armstrong and Indiana District, by over 2000 majority, over Darwin Phelps, a Republican volunteer candidate, is one of the greatest victories and most pleasing incidents of the campaign. "Honest John" is in his proper element in Congress, and ought to be kept there.

We will issue only one more number of our paper between this and the Presidential election. This paper will consequently be the last some of our readers will see before that event. Let us urge upon our voters to all turn-out.—Let no voter stay at home. Let our friends in every township try to do better than for Governor. Then, to the polls, on Tuesday, week, and all will be right.

The Electoral Ticket at the head of our column is the correct Lincoln ticket.

THE ELEPHANT STILL TRAVELING.

GLORIOUS NEWS!—George W. Nesmith, (anti-Jane Democrat,) and Col. E. D. Baker, Republican, have been elected to the U. S. Senate from Oregon. The former for the long term and the latter for the short term of five years. Farewell, poor old Joe Lane!

ARE YOU ASSESSED?

After to-morrow (Saturday) it will be too late to be assessed in time to vote for President. A citizen of this State who has resided in the district ten days and paid a State or County tax within two years, can vote, whether he be assessed or not. Attend to having yourself and neighbors assessed, however.

The Temperance Organization held their regular meeting on Monday evening last. Addresses were delivered by Mr. A. J. Middleton and others. The meeting was large and enthusiastic. Wm. E. King, Esq., was elected President for the next half year, and Mr. Warner Hoerkins Vice President.

A GALLANT RUN.—By referring to the official vote of this Congressional district, it will be seen that Curtin has 410 majority, and Hon. Edward McPherson has 529 majority. McPherson runs ahead of his ticket in the district 119 votes, and Schell "the most popular man in the district" runs behind his ticket 119 votes! Hurra for gallant "Little Nuddy!"

The Locofoocos of Adams and Franklin lost a good deal of money on the strength of Mr. Schell's statements to them that "he would come to Franklin county with 1000 majority." The same thing occurred in Bedford county. Who ought to make up these losses, William?

Hon. Fr. Jordan is abused and vilified in the last Gazette at a round rate. The people, however, pay no attention to the ravings of Beef-Heels. The last paper lets off its bile at a terrific rate. We pity it, since the election.
