ATTEMPTED BRIBERY.

We have been informed by SAMUEL KETTERMAN, Esq., County Surveyor for this county, that a prominent Republican offered him FIFTY DOLLARS if he would oppose and elector against Hon. W. P. SCHELL. Mr. Ketterman, like a man and a Democrat, spurned the proffered bribe, saying that he did not keep his principles for sale. The name of the person who made this offer is withheld for the present. This is another instance of the fraud and corruption by which the Black Republicans carried the late election. Shall they go unrebuked.—Bedford Gazette.

How a plain tale will put down a liar. We had a conversation with Mr. Ketterman in our office, a few days ago, in relation to the article in the last Gazette, copied above. He stated to us, in presence of the hands in our office, "that he never authorized Mr. Meyers to publish this article, that he did not thank him for publishing it, that the person that made him the offer does not live in Bedford County, that he does not live in the Congressional district, that he does not know whether the man is a Republican or a Bell man or what his politics are, and that he believes him to be a personal enemy of Schell." We urged Mr. Ketterman to prosecute the man, but he stated that he "would rather have his neck cut off than do so or tell his name!" The whole thing looks rather suspicious, and persons can believe it or not, as they choose, but to our mind it may have been intended to cover some of the dark transactions of a similar character of the friends of Mr. Schell.

BLAIR COUNTY NORMAL SCHOOL AND SEMINARY.—We call attention to the advertisement of this Institution, in this week's paper. It is located in Martinsburg, Blair Co., Pa., a healthy and beautiful locality. The Principals are Professors E. J. Osborne and J. W. Dickerson, who are both well known in Bedford County.—Mr. Osborne as Principal of the Allegheny Male and Female Seminary, at Rainburg, which was brought into a flourishing condition by him. Mr. Dickerson has been the teacher of the High School in this place, and well liked by all. As a scholar, he stands high.

Ambrotypes! Ambrotypes!!
FRANK STEWART is still taking splendid Ambrotype Likenesses, at his Car, in the Square, nearly opposite the Court House.—His pictures are unrivalled for beauty and truthfulness, and are taken on the cheapest terms. Call on him and get your picture—and one for your sweet-heart or friend.

LINCOLN MEN!
The Locomotives are holding meetings all over the County for the purpose of carrying their fusion Reading electoral Douglas and Breckinridge ticket. Don't let yourselves be caught napping but get out every Lincoln voter in every district, and you will carry the County high and dry for "Honest Old Abe."

Have the Wagons Ready.
Let all our friends in the different districts have their wagons, buggies and horses on the ground to bring out the old, the careless, and the sick. Have every vote out, and Lincoln will be elected. There is nothing to prevent our carrying Bedford County, if our friends all turn-out next Tuesday.

LIME! LIME!
Messrs. Smith & Fisher have leased of Mr. Fr. Naugle, the lime kiln, just adjoining Bedford, where they keep constantly on hand the best quality of lime. Farmers should pay attention to this matter.

The official majority of Col. A. G. Curtin, in Pennsylvania, is 32,164. The table as published by us last week was not quite complete.

The Great Swindle.

The Douglas blowers and strikers are circulating the story all over the county, that the Breckinridge ticket had been withdrawn and that there was no other ticket in the field now, than the straight Douglas ticket.

The fact is just the other way. It is the Douglas ticket that has been withdrawn; the Breckinridge ticket remains in the field, just as it was nominated at Reading. The Democrats, however, are not a reading people, and the most of them can be deceived with this new lie.

At the meeting of the Douglas State Committee, when the proposition was made to adopt the Reading ticket, Mr. Dougherty moved to strike from that ticket the names of Geo. M. Keim, Frederick A. Server, John G. Brenner, Joel Lightner, John A. Abl, H. N. Lee, Chas. Kelly, Oliver P. James and Wm. C. Patterson, who have either refused to pledge themselves for, or have openly avowed their hostility to, Stephen A. Douglas and Herschel V. Johnston, the only regular nominees of the Democratic party for President and Vice President.

This motion was rejected, and the committee thus resolved to adopt a ticket one-half of which is composed of Breckinridge men, known to be such. The head of the ticket, Geo. M. Keim, is an open and avowed Breckinridge man, and the Pittsburg Gazette says that N. P. Fetterman, the elector for that district, is also a Breckinridge man. And yet these men are to be palmed off upon credulous Democrats as Douglas men and nothing else!

It makes no difference, however. The Reading ticket cannot poll the vote given to Foster. There are hundreds of men in this State who voted for Foster, who will soon vote for this deliberate cheat. Foster has been beaten 32,000, and the Reading ticket will be beaten 60,000.

The Greensburg Argus, a strong Douglas paper, and the organ of Gen. Henry D. Foster, in Westmoreland county, in its issue of the 25th ult., speaking of the action of the Douglas State Committee, says:

"How far this late action of the Welsh Committee may satisfy the steadfast and true Democrats who stood by the regular nominations, in the hour of peril, we will not undertake to say. For our part we will not soil our hands by voting for any elector whose fidelity to the nominees of the party we have reason to doubt."

The Juniata Register, the Breckinridge organ of that county, in its issue of the 25th ult., says:

"As far as it can be ascertained, the electors are in their personal preference about equally divided between Breckinridge and Douglas, and if elected, it is supposed that their personal choice will be carried out by their votes."
The Register gives the following as the reason why the Bell men were not invited to participate in the swindle:

"Some of the National men are surprised that no offer was made to the Bell and Everett men to join in a common Electoral ticket.—Those who will look at the returns of October need not be surprised for the returns have demonstrated that the Bell and Everett men in this State are either too weak for the encouragement of such a bargain, or their old feelings of animosity to the Democratic party is so strong, that they prefer the certain election of a Black Republican, than to take a course which would render the election of Bell a matter of doubt and uncertainty."

Notwithstanding the straight Douglas ticket has been withdrawn, yet a considerable number of the real and honest friends of Douglas have determined to support it. On our outside we publish two articles from the Philadelphia Press on the subject, which contain the names of the straight Douglas ticket. Read these articles.

A RAINY DAY.

Next Tuesday may be a rainy day. No matter if it rains or shines, turn-out, every man of you and help to swell the majority of "honest old Abe."

We call attention to the advertisement of Mr. Joseph Alsip. He has leased the old Globe Hotel, (now Union Hotel,) lately kept by Mr. Jonathan Horton, de'd. Mr. Alsip is a clever, accommodating gentleman, and an old landlord of popularity, and knows how to keep a hotel.

KIDNAPPING.

An atrocious act of kidnapping was committed in Cumberland Valley, about six miles south of Bedford, on Thursday last. Two little girls, about six years old, children of George Love, a respectable colored man, were playing almost within sight of the house, when a man rushed out of the woods, snatched up one of the children and ran away with it.—The other child hastened home and gave the alarm, but there were, unfortunately, no men about the house at the time, and the kidnapper thus got a fair start with his victim. It is evident that the villain, whoever he is, was well acquainted with the premises, and the habits of its occupants. It is believed that the child was carried to Maryland, and sold into slavery. The parents were liberated about ten years ago by a humane Virginia master, who, besides granting them freedom, gave them means to buy the land upon which they live, which they have been cultivating ever since with care and industry. They are greatly distressed about their stolen child, but we earnestly hope that it will yet be recovered. We also hope the villainous perpetrator of the deed may be discovered and compelled to do the State services in the penitentiary.—Hanging is too good for the mercenary wretch. The kidnapers have heretofore driven a good trade in catching fugitive slaves, but as that article of commerce has become somewhat scarce of late, owing to the vigilance of the masters, they are now trying their hands at stealing free children.

THE PRESIDENTIAL CONTEST.—The following statement of the position of the several States on the Presidential question, we find in the Detroit Advertiser:

| FOR LINCOLN. | | | |
|--|----|----------------|------------|
| Maine | 8 | Pennsylvania | 27 |
| New Hampshire | 5 | Ohio | 23 |
| New York | 35 | Indiana | 13 |
| New Jersey | 7 | Illinois | 11 |
| Massachusetts | 13 | Michigan | 6 |
| Rhode Island | 4 | Wisconsin | 5 |
| Connecticut | 6 | Iowa | 4 |
| Vermont | 5 | Minnesota | 4 |
| Total | | | 176 |
| DOUBTFUL—Probably for Lincoln. | | | |
| Oregon | 3 | California | 4 |
| FOR BRECKINRIDGE. | | | |
| Virginia | 15 | North Carolina | 10 |
| Alabama | 9 | South Carolina | 8 |
| Mississippi | 7 | Georgia | 10 |
| Louisiana | 6 | Florida | 3 |
| Arkansas | 4 | Texas | 4 |
| Total | | | 76 |
| FOR BELL. | | | |
| Tennessee | 12 | Kentucky | 12 |
| DOUBTFUL—Probably for Breckinridge. | | | |
| Delaware | 3 | Maryland | 8 |
| Missouri | 9 | | |
| RECAPITULATION. | | | |
| Certain for Lincoln | | | 176 |
| Certain for Breckinridge | | | 76 |
| Certain for Bell | | | 24 |
| Probably for Lincoln | | | 7 |
| Probably for Breckinridge | | | 20 |
| Giving Lincoln a majority over all—counting the doubtful against him—of 49; counting the two doubtful States for him, he will have a majority over all of 60. Either is enough. | | | |

BOSH.—All the threats of disunion by the Locomotive secession press, in case of the election of Lincoln. Bosh, all bosh!

THE LAST OF WALKER.

We have finally received the particulars of the closing scene in the career of this renowned filibuster. He was forced to surrender on the 10th of September, and was thrown, heavily ironed, into the prison at Truxillo. He immediately sent for the chaplain of the port, protested his faith as a Roman Catholic, and was seen thereafter almost constantly kneeling at the feet of the priest in front of a small altar, on which, by the dim light of the tapers, the image of Jesus was distinguished.—Among other things, he said, "I am resigned to die: my political career is concluded."
On the 11th ult., at 7 o'clock P. M., Walker was notified of his sentence of death, and to this startling message the only reply he made was to ask at what hour it would be executed, and whether he had time to write.

On the morning of the 12th, at 8 P. M., the culprit marched to the place of execution, in the old Plaza de Armas. He walked with a crucifix in his hand, upon which he bent all his regards, looking neither to the right nor to the left, but listening piously to the psalms which the priest recited in his ear. He entered the hollow square formed by the soldiery in the place of execution, and there, full of resignation, he pronounced the following words, "I am a Roman Catholic. The war which I made upon Honduras, in accordance with the suggestions of some Rutenos, was unjust.—Those who accompanied me are not to blame. I alone am guilty. I ask pardon of the people. I receive death with resignation—would that it might be for the good of society."—These were his last words. Ten sharp rifle-shots followed, and William Walker was no more! His dying wish was a prophecy as well—a prophecy that was fulfilled within the next few moments. His death is "for the good of society." There can be no doubt of that.

Walker's plucky conduct and his dying confession may do something, perhaps, to modify the expressions of the joy that is felt at his "taking off," but they will not remove it.—The emotion is almost universal and terribly real.—Buffalo Express.

HIS ENEMIES PRAISE HIM.

The Hon. Wm. L. Goggin on Thursday evening addressed the Bell and Everett party in Petersburg, Va. His views upon the stability of the Union were clearly expressed in the following words: "There could be no danger of a dissolution of the Union, no matter who was elected." His opinion of Mr. Lincoln finds no less clear expression, in the following language.

"During the whole course of my connection with him in the House of Representatives, I must say that I have never known him to be a gentleman. He is not what the Breckinridge party designate him to be. I wish to do justice on both sides. [Cheers.] If you want to know who Mr. Lincoln is, go and ask S. A. Douglas, with whom he stumped every county in the State of Illinois. [Cheers.] Yes, go and ask Mr. Douglas whether Abe Lincoln is a rail splitter, whether he is a Democratic mauler or not. [Continued laughter, and cries of 'Good!'] It was my good fortune, while I was a member of the House of Representatives to be on a Committee with him. I was chairman, and I will say that no man on that Committee worked more industriously than he did. He is a man of a high order of talent, and when he spoke no man was listened to by those who were in that House as visitors with more apparent satisfaction. His private as well as public character was free from stain or blemish.—Buffalo Express."

THE DOUGLAS MEN TO BE CHEATED.—The effect of withdrawing the Douglas electoral ticket and supporting the Reading ticket, is thus set forth by "Occasional," in Forney's Press:

"Under the Cresson plot the Douglas men were to be cheated, under the Reading electoral ticket—as it is left since the withdrawal of the Cresson resolutions—the Douglas men are to have no chance whatever—and all who vote for the fusion ticket will do so with their eyes open to the fact that they are assisting John O. Breckinridge."

The Douglas men, therefore, who vote the Reading ticket will be cheated, if they vote for it under the belief that the men upon it are for Douglas. They have a right, however, to cheat themselves, if they choose.

SPLITFUL FUSION.—The National Democratic State Committees of New York, of which John A. Green is chairman, met at the Astor House on Wednesday. The Breckinridge and Lane electors tendered their resignations, and an "address of the State Committee to the National Democrats" was reported. The address is a queer document. It abuses the Douglas and Bell men roundly, and then adopts their complete electoral ticket thus:—

"We consider it good policy to adopt their complete electoral ticket for our own purposes. We turn their batteries against themselves.—We occupy their own ground. We make them our allies in spite of themselves. We compel them to be our voluntary coadjutors in the election of our Presidential candidates, unless they resort to the treacherous alternative of defeating their own electors."

CALIFORNIA FOR LINCOLN.—The subjoined special dispatch was received yesterday, by telegraph, from St. Joseph, and came through to that point by the Pony Express from San Francisco. It adds immeasurably to the chance now presented, that Lincoln will carry every Northern State.—St. Louis Dem.

Special Dispatch to the Missouri Democrat.

OFFICE REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE, SAN FRANCISCO.
October 4th, 1860.

To Messrs. McKee & Fishback.—Returns from the various county organizations and clubs, to this office, show a Republican strength in this State of thirty-eight thousand five hundred votes. If the news from the October elections in the East should prove to be such as we hope for and expect, this State is certain for Lincoln. On this you may rely.

WM. RABE, Secretary.

We are requested by our friend Jacob Reed to say to his friends and customers that he has just returned from the East, where he has purchased his Winter Stock of Goods, which he is determined to sell at extremely low rates, for cash or produce. Advertisement next week.

TO EARNEST DOUGLAS MEN.

Can any one name a single State in which the Breckinridge men are more numerous than the Douglas men in which the former have "fused," or allowed the latter so much as a single Elector on their ticket? There is not one from Maine to Oregon. In every Slave State the Breckinridgers go for "the whole or none." Who does not see, then, that for Douglas men to vote Fusion Tickets where they are strongest is simply putting the knife to Douglas's throat? Breckinridge has already 12 States in the House to Douglas's 2; and this policy will give Breckinridge at least 100 votes to Douglas's 50, supposing N. York N. Jersey, and Indiana could be carried for Fusion tickets. No man can honestly say that Fusion gives Douglas the ghost of a chance, either with the People or in Congress. Do read Douglas men mean to be used to elect Breckinridge? Pause and consider!—A. Y. Tribune.

A GOOD DISTRICT TO LIVE IN.—There is an election district in St. Lawrence county, N. Y., (Silas Wright's old home,) which is ten miles long and two miles wide. The whole number of votes given for Governor in 1858 was 160. Morgan had 150, Burrows 6, Parker 4. All of the Burrows men are now Lincoln men; two of the Parker men experienced religion last winter, and one of them a short time ago said that he had always been a Democrat, but since his conversion, he now looked at these things very differently. At the present time there is not a man in the district with sufficient assurance to declare himself for either the Northern or Southern Democracy.

THE MURDERED METHODIST MINISTER.—Rev. Mr. Bewly, who was hung in Texas by a pro-slavery mob a short time since, on suspicion of abolitionism, the Albany Journal says will be remembered by many who attended the General Conference at Buffalo last May. He represented the Arkansas Conference, and was recognized as a peaceful, humble, and devoted evangelist. His views of Slavery were of the mildest character, and he would be deemed the last man to thrust his views offensively—mild and conservative tho' they were—upon any community.

On his removal to Texas a few months since, he carried with him testimonials of his humility and devotion to his work. But he was a Methodist. That, in Texas, is deemed the equivalent of Abolitionism; and the devoted minister of Christ, guilty of no crime, and on the merest suspicion that he cherished offensive opinions, was hung up like a murderer!

THE BELL VOTE.—The vote of Philadelphia for Governor last week was cast—

For Curtin, 39,833 For Foster, 41,119.
For Members of Congress the vote stood—
Lincoln 39,459 Dem. 36,301 Bell 6,211.
Showing that of the Bell men 374 voted for Curtin, while 5,818 voted for Foster. It was doubtless so throughout the State. Now that the Democratic State Committee has definitely refused to put any Bell men on their Electoral Ticket, the Bell vote must be cast for its own Electoral Ticket, which of itself would carry Lincoln's majority to 80,000.—A. Y. Tribune.

LINCOLN A NATIONAL MAN.—In the speech of Hon. Thomas Erving, Gen. Harrison's Secretary of the Treasury, made at Chillicothe, Ohio, in speaking of Mr. Lincoln, he said:

"I doubt not, that from the first to the last—in his inaugural address and in his final message—he will show himself the President of the nation, and not of a section or party. Fortunately, he will not be thrown on an extreme party for support. The conservative interest nominated, and that will also elect him."

HOW LINCOLN PREVENTED THE ELECTION NEWS.—The Chicago Press and Tribune says: We hear from Springfield that Mr. Lincoln received the news of Tuesday's work with that equanimity that marks the man in all emergencies. Wednesday morning he received his friends as usual, and no one aware of his position, would have suspected from his deportment or conversation that the contest had more than a transient interest to him. He bears himself gallantly and well.

ANOTHER OF HERSHEL'S SPEECHES.—Herschel V. Johnson said, in his speech at Terre Haute, "Abe Lincoln, the great Rail Splitter—I own twenty boys (negroes); any one can beat him at a day's work splitting rails, and give two hundred. I would prefer one of them for President so help me God to Abe Lincoln."

LINCOLN AND JACKSON.—In 1828, Gen. Jackson's majority over John Quincy Adams, in Pennsylvania, was 50,804 votes.—the largest majority ever given by Pennsylvania to any Presidential candidate. We expect Lincoln to do better than that. His majority over all the opposing candidates will hardly be less than 60,000 votes.

ERUPTIONS, SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS.

It is now generally admitted that all eruptive diseases depend upon some internal or constitutional cause, and that to use washes or ointments for them is a sure way to injure the system, and only to drive in, not to cure the disease. But HERBERT'S SPECIFIC HOMOPATHIC SALT RHEUM PILLS are a true specific for all such diseases. They cure Salt Rheum, Barber's Itch, Erysipelas, Pimples on the Face, Ringworm, and Nettie Rash, by curing the cause upon which they depend, and by restoring the skin to the state of health and purity.—Thus, not only is the disease cured, but the softness and beauty of the complexion restored.

Price, 25 cents per box, with directions. Six boxes, $1.
N. B.—A full set of HERBERT'S HOMOPATHIC SPECIFICS, with Book of Directions, and twenty different Remedies, in large vials, morocco case, $5; ditto, in plain case, $4; case of fifteen boxes, and Book, $2.
These Remedies, by the single box or case, are sent by mail or express, free of charge, to any address, on receipt of the price. Address

The Chicago Press and Tribune says the report is not true that Lincoln has hired Douglas to go round and make speeches; but it is true that the Republican State Committee could expend a little money to no better advantage than to employ him to stump the close and doubtful Legislative districts in Illinois.

EVEN THOSE who are in the enjoyment of perfect health frequently have need to have recourse to tonics a "preventive of disease. We are never too well armed against the assaults of "the ill that flesh is heir to." Such an invigorator they may find in HOSKOTTER'S BITTERS—a medicine that cannot be taken regularly without giving vitality and elasticity to the system. At this season, particularly, the strongest man is not proof against the malaria, in certain sections of the country. In all cases of fever and ague, the BITTERS is more potent than any amount of quinine, while the most dangerous cases of bilious fever yield to its wonderful properties. Those who have tried the medicine will never use another, for any of the ailments which the HOSKOTTER'S BITTERS cures to subdue. To those who have not made the experiment, we cordially recommend an early application to the BITTERS, whenever they are stricken by disease of the digestive organs.
Sold by druggists and dealers, generally, everywhere.
