BEDFORD, Pa. Friday Morning, Nov. 9, 1860.

"FEARLESS AND FREE." D. OVER—Editor and Proprietor.

PAY UP! PAY UP!

The election is now over, and the Republicans have been successful. We have been at considerable expense during the campaign, and would like our debtors to settle up.

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

The election on Tuesday, throughout the country, was one of those sublime affairs which are scarcely understood in Europe, and amaze the whole world—the selection of the Chief Magistrate of a mighty nation of over 30,000,000 of people, without revolution or bloodshed.

KIDNAPPER CAUGHT.

We stated in our last that a little colored girl, about six years old, daughter of George Love, had been kidnapped, about six miles south of this place in Cumberland Valley Township, on yesterday two weeks ago.

Our friend, D. J. CHAPMAN, Esq., of Philadelphia, has the thanks of our people generally, for keeping us posted up on Tuesday night and Wednesday morning, on the election news.

NO FOR SALT RIVER!

Cheapest, quickest and best route up Salt River ever discovered!

We beg leave to inform our Democratic friends and the public generally, that we have fitted up the excellent steamship, "Sham Democracy," for the purpose of carrying passengers up Salt River.

BEDFORD COUNTY REDREME D. REPORTED MAJORITIES FOR PRESIDENT.

The following are the reported majorities in this County for President. It will be seen that Lincoln has a clear majority in the County. There were about 75 Bell votes, and about a dozen straight Douglas votes, which we have placed with the Democrats.

Electoral Vote of the States.

Table showing Electoral Vote of the States for Lincoln and Hamlin, Breckinridge and Lane, Fusion, Bell and Everett, and Douglas and Johnson. Lists states like Connecticut, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Maine, etc., with their respective electoral votes.

PENNSYLVANIA ELECTION.

We subjoin a summary of reported majorities comparing them with the majorities in October last, when Curtin carried the State by over thirty-two thousand.

Table comparing reported majorities in Pennsylvania for Governor and President in October and the current election. Columns include Gov. Curtin, Foster, Lincoln, and Reading Ticket.

In the above counties where Curtin had 17,016 majority, Lincoln has 61,500 over the Reading ticket—a gain of 44,484. Lincoln's majority over the Reading ticket will be from eighty to one hundred thousand. He will probably have forty or fifty thousand over all.

GREAT FRESHET.—The late flood was the most disastrous that has occurred in Bedford County since 1847. It is estimated that the loss of this county in corn, fences, &c., has been about $50,000.

VICTORY!

WE'LL FIDDLE THEM UP SALT RIVER, TO THE TUNE OF 100,000 IN PENNSYLVANIA!!

ABRAHAM LINCOLN is elected President, and HANNIBAL HAMLIN Vice President of the United States! Pennsylvania gives him from 75,000 to 100,000 majority. New York gives him about 50,000. Pennsylvania is undoubtedly the Banner State.

The following States have all gone for Lincoln by large majorities: Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, New Hampshire, New York, Ohio, Rhode Island, Vermont, Wisconsin, and probably Oregon. Bell carries Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee and Maryland. Douglas Missouri. Bedford County has given a majority for "HONEST OLD ABE," over all opposition, of at least 175!

HUZZA! HUZZA!! LOST!

STRAYED away from the Bedford Gazette office, on the evening of the 6th inst., a large black and white "spotted" Rooster, of the Locofoco species. It is supposed that he has either taken refuge at Washington, with his former owner, Gen. G. W. Bowman, or that "that sme old Coon" has made an end of him. Any information concerning his whereabouts will be thankfully received.
