PAY UP! PAY UP PAY UP! PAI UP! The election is now over, and the Republicans have been successful. We have been at considera-ble expense during the campaign, and would like our debtors to antis up. The crops have been good, and they have no excuse for not paying us. For the last six or nine months we have not got in money enough to carry on our printing establishment and have had to run several hundred dollars in debt for doil g.so. Will not our subscribers now pay us A great many owe us for advertising, particularly Estate printing. The spproaching Court will afford many an opportunity to pay us, and we hope nome of our friends will come to town without preparing themselves to settle with us, and those not coming will please send the amount of their indebtedness by a friend or by letter. We are in carnest in this matter. by a frie matter.

A Meeting of the friends of Lincoln and Hamlin, to congratulate each other upon the glorious results of the late elections, will be held at the Court House, in Bedford Borough, on the evening of TUESDAY the 20th inst., being the Tuesday evening of Court Week. Several speakers will be present to address the meeting.

By order of the County Committee. S. L. RUSSELL, Chairman.

BEBFORD COUNTY.

We this week publish the official returns of the election for President in Bedford County. It will be seen that Lincoln carries the County by a majority of 281 votes over the Reading electoral ticket, and by a majority of 181 votes over all opposition ! This is truly gratifying. Our County now stands redeemed, ticket and on the straight Douglas. regenerated and disenthralled, and we mean to keep it so. All that is needed for our friends, about 6,000 or 7,000 majority. votes, and Curtin had 2464. Foster's majority was 97. At the election for President, Beil and Breckinridge, with the chance Lincoln had 2505 votes-a gain of 41-and favor of Bell. all opposition 2324 votes-a loss of 237. Maryland, has gone for Beckinridge, by some Although we have an apparent gain of 41 300 or 400 majority.

A Fraudulent Victory! CURTIN'S MAJORITY IMPORTED.

The most stupendous and audacious frauds were perpetrated by the Black Republican wire-workers at the recent State election. In almost every election district in the State where there was a Republican majority in the Election board, numbers of fraudulent votes were polled. In some such districts in our own county, the TEN DAY LIST was swelled to the number of fifty and sixty ! In Phila-delphia, we are informed by a gentleman who resides in that city, and who at the late election acted as a watcher at one of the precincts, there were at least 10,000 fraudulent votes polled for the Republican candidates. This was done by importing votes from New Jersey and New England, and having their names put upon the Ten Day List. In Bradford, Tiog and Eric counties, thousands of votes were cast for Curtin, by persons shipped over from New York. In Allegheny and Lancaster counties the same gamo was played. The vote of these places shows it. Take up the Cen-sus reports, and in most of them you can't find within a thousand or two as many voters al

Bedford County 97 votes. We have for Pres ident a majority of 281 over the Reading elec toral ticket, and 181 over Foster, and not Lincolu has from 60,000 to 100,000 majority in the State. Pretty good, considering that the voters from New England, New Jerse and New York were "needed" at home "on th 6th of November." Try again, our ex-Know Nothing friend. Maybe you can give as good a excuse for the November thrashing your net love party bas received. Perhaps this time Lin they were imported from the South !

DEMOCRATS !

Remember that we are now a united pa that there is but one Democratic Elec Ticket, that the Breckinridge men and Douglas men will Loth vote it, and that th for, we may redeem Pennsylvania, if we g work. Now is the time to fight for princi The old Democratic flag still waves above It shall never be dishonored. To the res Democrats of Bedford county.-Bedford zette.

Well, they did vote for principle, wi vengeance ! The Donglas men gave Brec ridge half a vote, and the Breckinridge gave Douglas half a vote ! "To the res Democrats of Bedford County !" Well, came, didn't they ?

row that the House once raised, at Southern dictation, about the ears of John Quiney Adams, because be presented a petition for the dissolution of the Union. The petitionor had a right to make the request; it was the member's duty to present it. And now, if the Cotton States consider the value of the Union debatabli, we maintain their perfect right to discuss it. Nay, we hold with Jefferson to the inalienshe right of communities to alter or abolish foins of government that have become oppres-aie or injurious; and if the Cotten States shall become satisfied that they can do better out of the Union than in it, we insist on letting them go in peace. The right to secede may be a volutionary one, but it exists nevertheless; and we do not see how one party can have a right to do what another party has a right to prevent. We must ever resist the asserted right of any State to remain in the Union and nullify or defy the laws thereof; to withdraw from the Union is quite another matter. And whenever a considerable section of our Union shall deliberately resolve to go out, we shall resist all coercive measures designed to keep it in. We hope never to live in a republic whereof one section is pinned to the residue by bay-

But while we thus uphold the practical liberty if not the abstract right of secession, we must insist that the step be taken, if it ever shall be, with the deliberation and gravity befitting so momentous an issue. Let ample time be given for reflection; let the subject be fully canvassed before the peeple; and let a populat vote be taken in every case before secession is decreed. Let the people be told just why they are urged to break up the confederation; let them have both sides of the question fully presented; let them reflect, deliberate, then vote; and let the act of secession be the echo of an unmistakable popular fiat. A judgement thus rendered, a deman i for separation so backed. would either be acquiesced in without the effusion of blood, or thuse who rushed upon carnage to defy and defeat it would place themselves Important from the South. THE SECESSION MOVEMENT.

THE GEORGIA LEGISLATURE-A BILL INTRO-DUCED DECLARING GEORGIA OUT OF THE UNION. Milledgeville, Nov. 12 .- Mr. Hertridge introduced a resolution in the House this morning, declaring Georgia to be out of the Union. A bill making a similar declaration was also introduced, which provides for calling a con-s vention to ratify the secession. Both were referred to a committee to report upon the matter. take place on the 4th of March, unless Georgia secedes before that time.

UNION MEETING AT HENDERSON, KY. HENDERSON, KY., Nov. 12.-A large and nthusiastic Union meeting, irrespective of party, was held to-day. Ex-Governor Dixon presided.

Strong Union speeches were made by Bell, Breekinridge and Douglas men. Union resolutions were unanimously adopted n which secession is strongly deprecated. A meeting of the people of the whole State has been called for Saturday next.

THE SENTIMENT AT WASHINGTON-THE PRESI-DENT TO ISSUE A SPECIAL PROCLAMATION. WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.-As far as can be ascertained, there is no disposition either on the part of the Administration or of gentlemen of political prominence here, to interfere with the present Southera movements, except, perhaps, in a friendly spirit.

It is now probable that the President will soon issue an address or proclamation, as the election of delegates to the South Carolina Convention will take place at an earlier day than was recently anticipated, and as, in consequence there would not be sufficient time for the gene ral circulation of an appeal through the annual message, as was original contemplated. The subject was to-night under consideration.

Such is the alarm that Washington will not be continued as the seat of government, that the value of real estate has been sensibly affected by the secession movement.

Gov. Houston, of Texas, talks in the follow-Texas, September 22d :

"But, fellow-citizens, we have a new party in our midst. They have desurted the old democracy, and under the lead of Mr. Yancey have started what they call a Southern Con stitutional party. They say that they could not get their constitutional rights in the na-tional democracy; and because the platform was adopted which they all endorsed and under which they all fought, in 1856, they sececlearly in the wrong. You hear it from the stump; you read it in their papers and their resolutions, that if Mr. Lincoln is elected the Union is to be dissolved! Here is a constitutional party that intends to violate the Constitution because a man is constitutionally elected President! Here is a constitutional party that proclaims it treasonable for a man to uphold the Constitution. If the people constitutionally elect a President, is the unnority to resist him? Anything for disunion ! They can as readily dissolve the Union upon one issue as another. At the Nashville Con-vention they determined to dissolve it, unless the Missouri Compromise line was extended to the Pacific. In 1854 they deemed the existence of this line a cause of separation, and demanded its repeal. The admission of Kansas was the next ultimatum, and now it is the election of Mr. Lincoln. Should they fail, it will be the adoption of the slave code, and the repeal of the laws making the slave trade piracy.'

ed about him with such excess of zeal that it was with some difficulty he made his way through. Mr. Lincoln advanced as rapidly as possible to the voting table and handed in his ticket, upon which, it is hardly necessary to say, all the names were sound Republicans.

The only alteration he made was the cutting off his own name at the top, where it had been printed. As he emerged after voting, from the temporary enclosure, the manifestations of enthusiasm were doubled, and Mr. Lincoln, moving his bat, bowed in acknowledgement. Many persons pushed forward to take his hand and exchange a cordial welcome with him, but the crush was too great for comfortable conversation, so he was soon released, and escorted out with all the popular honors that could be lavished upon him. He at once re-turned to his room in the State House, after an absence of not more than five minutes alto. gether, and resumed his quiet intercourse with his visitors, as composedly as if he had not just been the object of as overwhelming a testimonial of public affection as ever any man was visited with. $-\mathcal{N}$. AFTER THE BATTLE.

WHAT THE NEWSPAPER PRESS THINKS OF THE RESULT.

The New York Journal of Commerce (Breckinridge) says: -

"We have met the enemy, and we are theirs. Such at least are the unmistakable indications, The splendid Democratic union majority of 29 .-000 in this city, has doubtless been overborne by the avalanche of Black Republicanism from the middle, western, and northern parts of the State; and if so, we have nothing to do but to submit, with the best grace we can. The vote of the Empire State, added to those of other States which may be considered sure for Lin-coln, makes it all but certain that he will be our next President. One consolation remains to us as conservative men, viz: that we have both houses of Congress. This will check any wayward fancies that may seize the Executive, under the pressure of his abolition advisers, or otherwise. Let us hope for the best."

The New York Herald says:

"Now that the smoke and dust of election are cleared away, it behooves all good citizens to settle down to their occupations, and te dis-charge the duty which they owe to their fami-Let the artisans and mechanics, who have lies. suffered themselves to be temporarily diverted from their pursuits by their patriotic impulses, again apply themselves steadily to them."

[From the New York Express, Bell and Everett.]

The consequence of this departure from the chart of Washington, and from the spirit of the Federal Constitution, remains to be seen.--We deplore-leeply deplore it; and yet, as good citizens, it is our daty to make the best of it, and to acquiesce in it, as under the forms, if not in the spirit and intent, of the Constitution. What our Southern countrymen may do remains to be seen; but we hope their appreheusion will be soothed, if not assuaged, by the fact that the House of Representatives, as well as the Senate are to be conservative, and can-uot be wielded for destructive principles against the States of the South.

The fact that Abraham Lincoln runs second best in the Slave State of Delaware is not the least significant among the many significant and suggestive facts of the glorious political campaign through which we have just passed. The Wilmington State Journal and Statesman, which is exceedingly jubilant over the result, contains returns which are nearly complete, and which foot up for Breckinridge 6,147, Lincoln 3,751 Bell 3,272; and Douglas 992 G. P. Fisher, who sympathizes with the Republicans in all their leading ideas-the non-extension of Slavery. Free Homesteads, Protection to American Industry,&c.,- is elected to Congress. Since there is, according to The Express, and other like veracious authority, no Republican party in the Southern States, little Delaware may be said to have done remarkably well. She will do even better next time.

Many of our voters stayed at home, under the belief that evorything was secure, and that their votes were not needed. Our gain, and part of the opposition loss, occurred by men voting for Lincoln, that voted against us for Governor. We know of a dozen such in Bedford Township, ond there were others all by 137 over all. They lost 14 votes in Southover the County.

All hail to Bedford County ! she has placed berself among the list of patriotic Lincoln Connties of the State. She stands forth as one of the Counties that has done her whole duty ! Huzza ! Huzza !

St. Clair Township deserves especial credit for her vote at the November election. In October she gave Curtin 73 majority. She gives Lincoln 111 over the Reading ticket and 95 over all opposition-a gain of 22! This is glorious for St. Clair. Monroe gave Curtin 56-it gives Lincoln 74 over all-a gain of 18. Well done for Monroe. Hopewell gave at the October election 44 majority-it gives Lincoln 59 over all. East Providence gives Lincoln 121 over all, it gave Curtin 101 .--West Providence gives Lincoln over all 125, it gave Curtin 113. Union gives Lincoln 48. over all, it gave Curtin 41. South Woodberry gives Lincoln 28, it gave Curtin 24. In fact our friends did well in nearly every Township in the County, particularly Napier, Juniata, Schellsburg, Snake Spring. But it is no use ult. We think the signers a little fast. That done well.

MIDDLE WOODBERRY .- This is a gallant Township. She made our hearts rejoice at the October election with her 98 majority'---We well recollect that the Locofocos charged our friends with importing votes from Blair County, but our boys told them to look out, and they would find a reserved vote that would swell the majority in November to 120-and it is done, and 2 votes over, 122 being Lincoln's majority. We have the votes there all the time for 125 majority if we get them out .-But what must appear strange to the Locofocos, is the fact that Blair gives Lincoln some three hundred over Curtin !

What do they now think of the imported vote in Woodborry !

Georgia and North Carolina are both close between Bell and Breckinridge with the obances Oregon, Kentucky and Tennessee have gone for Bell.

The loss of the Locofocus in Cumberland Valley, on the October election, is 44 votes. Suppose they had the same majority they had before, we would still have carried the County ampton, and 33 in Juniata; add these together, and we still would have carried the County by 90 over all. We think Bedford County is a pretty safe Lincoln County. The Charleston Mercury says that "if Mr. Lincola were to come out and declare that he held sacred every right of the South, with respect to African slavery, no one should believe him: and if he was believed, his professions should not have the least influence on the course of the South." This may fairly be called obstinacy.

CAMPAIGN SUBSCRIBERS.

This is the last number that our campaign subscribers will receive. We hope they will now become regular subscribers. Wo intend to devote considerable attention to our paper through the winter, and make it worthy the patronage of the people of the County.

We received, some days ago, a Card, signed by thirteen citizens of Rainsburg, in reference to a Card published in the Gazette of the 26th in particularizing, as they all appear to have Card does not "charge the citizens of Rainsburg with a base falsehood, gotten up to injure" any one. The publication of this C ard would do no good, and might do harm.

OLD BERKS HERSELF AGAIN.

Berks County gives Foster nearly 4000 majority. Last year Wright's msjority was 1100. "Alt Berks" will soon be herself again-Bed-ford Gazette, 19th ult.

For President, Berks just gives 2137 !-Coming down, ain't it ? The glory of "Alt Berks" has departed forever, Mr. Gazette.

The majority for Lincoln in this State, will be probably 60,000 over all, and over 100,-000 over the Reading ticket. We will publish the table in our next.

Thursday next is Thanksgiving Day.

Majority for Lincoln and Hamlin. From the New York Tribune.

GOING TO GO.

The people of the United States have indicated, according to the forms prescribed by the Constitution, their desire that Abraham Lincoln of Illinois shall be their nex. President, and Hancibal Hamlin of Maine their Vice President. A very large plurality of the popular vote has been cast for them, and a decided majority of Electors chosen who will undoubtedly vote for and elect ihem on the first Wednesday in December next. The electoral votes will be formally sealed up and forwarded to Washington, there to be opened and counted, on a give day in February next, in the presence of both Houses of Congress; and it will then be the duty of Mr. John C. Breekinridge, as President of the Senate, to declare Lincoln and Hamlin duly elected President and Vice President of these United States.

Some people do not like this, as is very natural. Dogberry discovered, a good while ago, that "When two ride a horse, one must ride behind." That is not generally deemed the preferable seat; but the rule remains unaffected by that circumstance. We know how to sympathize with the defeated; for we remember how we felt when Adams was defeated; and Clay; and Scott; and Fremont. It is decidedly pleas. anter to be on the winning side especially when -as now--it happens also to be the right side.

We sympathize with the afflicted; but we cannot recommend them to do anything desperate. What is the use? They are beaten now, they may triumph next time; in fact, they have generally had their own way: had they been subjected to the discipline of adversity as often as we have, they would probably bear it with more philosophy, and deport themselves more befit-tingly. - We live to learn: and one of the most difficult acquirements is that of meeting reverses with graceful fortitude.

The telegraph informs us that most of the Cotton States are meditating a withdrawal from the Union because of Lincoln's election. Very well: they have a right to meditate, and mediitation is a profitable employment of leisure .---We have a chronic, invincible disbelief in Disunion as a remedy for either Northern or Southern grievances; we cannot perceive any neces-sary relation between the alleged disease and SENTIMENT IN VIRGINIA. RICHMOND, Nov. 12 - The affairs in the South attract much attention here.

The people are calmly awaiting the issue. Meetings will probably be held in the different counties before the Legislature meets, for the expression of public opinion.

The vote of the State has not yet been ascer-tained. Both the Bell and Breckinridge parties figure out majorities. Several counties ave not been heard from.

It is understood that Tom Corwin, of Ohio, can, if he will, occupy a prominent position in Mr. Lincoln's cabinet, and in the event of his declining to do so an invitation will be extended to Mr. Ewing or Mr. Vinton, of the same State.

Mr. Graham or Mr. Badger, of North Carolina, are also confidentially mentioned in this connection.

MR. LINCOLN ON ELECTION DAY .- The election in Springfield, Illinois, on Tuesday week, was quietly conducted, notwithstanding the heavy importations of nominal residents to overcome the expected Republican majority.

Mr. Lincoln had passed most of the day in the Governor's House, receiving numerous visitors, eutertaining them with discussions upon various topics, not exclusively political, but sometimes humorously touching upon matters as foreign to the business of the day as the splitting of rails. The city has been enlivened with the performances of roving bands of music, discharges of cannon, and other manifestations of popular feeling.

The multitude at the Court House, where the polls are fixed, was vory great during the forencon and the early part of the afternoon, but toward three o'closk it diminished sufficiently to allow tolerable free passage. Mr. Lincoln, who had intended to delay voting till five o'clock, was consulted to take advantage of this opportunity. He accordingly, after surveying the Court House, and the crowd surrounding it, from his window, and scopping a moment to read a fragment of good news sent him from New York by Simeon Draper, started out, accompanied by a few of his m immediate associates, and walked leisurely over to deposit his vote. He was not observed by the masses until he rea hed the Court House steps, but at that moment he was suddenly saluted with the wildest outbursts of euthusiasm ever yielded by a popular assem-
