

BEDFORD, Pa.

Friday Morning, Nov. 23, 1860.

"FEARLESS AND FREE."

D. OVER—Editor and Proprietor.

The next Congress.

Elections have been held for Congressmen in nineteen States. In both branches the distinct Republicans will be in a minority.

NOT GUILTY.—Rueloff the conductor, and Armstrong the engineer, of the train which killed two men in Huntingdon during the encampment, were up for trial in that Court last week.

REPUBLICANS NOT UNGRATEFUL.—The year in which Mount Vernon became the property of the Union by the efforts of American women, consummated the purchase of the Grullin by the school children of Switzerland, at a cost of $11,000.

HOWARD ASSOCIATION.—This institution, established by special endowment for the relief of the sick and distressed, is one of the truly benevolent enterprises of the age.

The income of John C. Fremont from his gold mines is set down at $2,000 per day.—His establishment is something immense.

Virginia has gone for Bell by a small plurality. Missouri it is now thought has gone for Douglas by a small plurality.

THE TRIUMPH IN ILLINOIS.—The Republican triumph in this State was thorough and complete. Besides giving a large majority for Lincoln, it has elected a Republican Governor and State Legislature.

REPUBLICANS IN THE SOUTH.—The Republicans had a plurality of over 800 in St. Louis, and 200 in Wilmington Delaware.

Lincoln polled five hundred votes in Allegheny county, Maryland. The probability is that the Republican vote in that State will exceed two thousand.

Meaning, the kidnapper's trial, has been put off to next Court. He is now out under bond of only $1,000.

Next Thursday, instead of last, as we stated last week, is Thanksgiving day.

PEOPLE'S MEETING.

Pursuant to notice a very large meeting assembled in the Court House on Tuesday evening last, for the purpose of congratulating each other upon the result of the late elections.

After the organization of the meeting, Hon. Alex. King offered the Resolutions, to be found below, which were adopted unanimously.

Resolved, That the great results of the recent election in the United States afford abundant cause for sincere and heartfelt congratulation on the part of all who contributed to produce them.

Resolved, That we have advocated the election of Andrew G. Curtin, and of Abraham Lincoln and Hannibal Hamlin, solely with the hope of establishing the principles and promoting the interests we regarded as involved in the success of these candidates.

Resolved, That we deplore and lament the madness and folly that proposes disunion and secession, on the flimsy pretext that a majority of the people of the United States have exercised the right of electing to the Chief Magistracy the candidate of their choice.

Resolved, That in the present state of affairs, it is the duty of the people everywhere to express and maintain their fidelity to the Union of the States, and pledge themselves to the support and maintenance of the rights of the people in every State, slaveholding or free.

Resolved, That we have the fullest confidence in the conservative views of the President elect, and that when he assumes the reins of government, he will prove himself to be the President of the whole country.

Resolved, That we deplore and lament the madness and folly that proposes disunion and secession, on the flimsy pretext that a majority of the people of the United States have exercised the right of electing to the Chief Magistracy the candidate of their choice.

Resolved, That we deplore and lament the madness and folly that proposes disunion and secession, on the flimsy pretext that a majority of the people of the United States have exercised the right of electing to the Chief Magistracy the candidate of their choice.

Resolved, That we deplore and lament the madness and folly that proposes disunion and secession, on the flimsy pretext that a majority of the people of the United States have exercised the right of electing to the Chief Magistracy the candidate of their choice.

Resolved, That we deplore and lament the madness and folly that proposes disunion and secession, on the flimsy pretext that a majority of the people of the United States have exercised the right of electing to the Chief Magistracy the candidate of their choice.

Resolved, That we deplore and lament the madness and folly that proposes disunion and secession, on the flimsy pretext that a majority of the people of the United States have exercised the right of electing to the Chief Magistracy the candidate of their choice.

Resolved, That we deplore and lament the madness and folly that proposes disunion and secession, on the flimsy pretext that a majority of the people of the United States have exercised the right of electing to the Chief Magistracy the candidate of their choice.

Resolved, That we deplore and lament the madness and folly that proposes disunion and secession, on the flimsy pretext that a majority of the people of the United States have exercised the right of electing to the Chief Magistracy the candidate of their choice.

Resolved, That we deplore and lament the madness and folly that proposes disunion and secession, on the flimsy pretext that a majority of the people of the United States have exercised the right of electing to the Chief Magistracy the candidate of their choice.

Resolved, That we deplore and lament the madness and folly that proposes disunion and secession, on the flimsy pretext that a majority of the people of the United States have exercised the right of electing to the Chief Magistracy the candidate of their choice.

Resolved, That we deplore and lament the madness and folly that proposes disunion and secession, on the flimsy pretext that a majority of the people of the United States have exercised the right of electing to the Chief Magistracy the candidate of their choice.

Resolved, That we deplore and lament the madness and folly that proposes disunion and secession, on the flimsy pretext that a majority of the people of the United States have exercised the right of electing to the Chief Magistracy the candidate of their choice.

no regiment of more than ten companies, no brigade of more than three regiments, no division of more than three brigades.

Resolved, That his Excellency the Governor be authorized to call for and to receive the services of volunteers to act as cavalry; and that there shall not be received more than two troops of cavalry from each of the present brigades of the State, which volunteers shall be formed into troops, regiments, and brigades, under the supervision of the Governor.

Resolved, That the bill to call a Convention of the State being under consideration: Mr. Rhett said that he had now arrived at the end of the great Legislative struggle.

Resolved, That we deplore and lament the madness and folly that proposes disunion and secession, on the flimsy pretext that a majority of the people of the United States have exercised the right of electing to the Chief Magistracy the candidate of their choice.

Resolved, That we deplore and lament the madness and folly that proposes disunion and secession, on the flimsy pretext that a majority of the people of the United States have exercised the right of electing to the Chief Magistracy the candidate of their choice.

Resolved, That we deplore and lament the madness and folly that proposes disunion and secession, on the flimsy pretext that a majority of the people of the United States have exercised the right of electing to the Chief Magistracy the candidate of their choice.

Resolved, That we deplore and lament the madness and folly that proposes disunion and secession, on the flimsy pretext that a majority of the people of the United States have exercised the right of electing to the Chief Magistracy the candidate of their choice.

Resolved, That we deplore and lament the madness and folly that proposes disunion and secession, on the flimsy pretext that a majority of the people of the United States have exercised the right of electing to the Chief Magistracy the candidate of their choice.

Resolved, That we deplore and lament the madness and folly that proposes disunion and secession, on the flimsy pretext that a majority of the people of the United States have exercised the right of electing to the Chief Magistracy the candidate of their choice.

Resolved, That we deplore and lament the madness and folly that proposes disunion and secession, on the flimsy pretext that a majority of the people of the United States have exercised the right of electing to the Chief Magistracy the candidate of their choice.

Resolved, That we deplore and lament the madness and folly that proposes disunion and secession, on the flimsy pretext that a majority of the people of the United States have exercised the right of electing to the Chief Magistracy the candidate of their choice.

Resolved, That we deplore and lament the madness and folly that proposes disunion and secession, on the flimsy pretext that a majority of the people of the United States have exercised the right of electing to the Chief Magistracy the candidate of their choice.

Resolved, That we deplore and lament the madness and folly that proposes disunion and secession, on the flimsy pretext that a majority of the people of the United States have exercised the right of electing to the Chief Magistracy the candidate of their choice.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

PRESIDENT ELECT.

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

The Vote of Pennsylvania.

Table showing the vote of Pennsylvania for Lincoln, Fusion, Douglas, and Bell across various counties.

Delaware—Official.

Table showing the vote of Delaware for Lincoln, Fusion, Douglas, and Bell.

THE GRAVE OF LAFAYETTE.

The Paris correspondent of the New York Times furnishes a very interesting account of a recent visit to the tomb of the Lafayette family, in the rear of a chapel at No. 35 Rue de Picpus, in Paris.

We asked the guardian why there was not a monument over the grave of Lafayette, and he replied that Louis Philippe, who almost owed his position to Lafayette, had always opposed any national movement in that way.

Now and then.—The Press of Wednesday morning last, had the annexed short editorial, comparing the result of the election of the preceding day with that of years previous.

Yesterday there was struck up at all the polls of this city, by order of Mr. Buchanan's office-holders, a large placard, at the head of which, in large letters, was "Beware of John W. Forney!"

Significant.—Kentucky and Oregon have repudiated Breckinridge and Lane. Georgia has repudiated Johnson. Massachusetts has repudiated Everett. Illinois has endorsed Lincoln by 15,000 majority, and Maine has endorsed Hamlin by 20,000 maj.

In the district of Virginia known as the "Pauhanids," Lincoln received nearly four hundred votes.

A monument is to be erected in Mobile to the memory of Walker, the filibuster.

A CALIFORNIA ROMANCE.

The St. Louis papers tell a strange story of one John Hardwick, a Pittsburg mechanic. In 1853 he went to California, leaving a wife and two children behind.

The Soothing System.

If the Chivalry require an acknowledgment from us of our obligations to them for breaking up the late Democratic National Convention and party, we are ready to give it.

We have won the election, as we meant and they meant we should; and now if they want a dozen or two good fellows kept in office through Mr. Lincoln's Administration, we think them entitled to ask and receive.

When we were beaten four years since, none of the voters thought of soothing or consoling us. None of them even proposed to hold meetings and implore us to stay in the Union.

When we were beaten four years since, none of the voters thought of soothing or consoling us. None of them even proposed to hold meetings and implore us to stay in the Union.

When we were beaten four years since, none of the voters thought of soothing or consoling us. None of them even proposed to hold meetings and implore us to stay in the Union.

When we were beaten four years since, none of the voters thought of soothing or consoling us. None of them even proposed to hold meetings and implore us to stay in the Union.

When we were beaten four years since, none of the voters thought of soothing or consoling us. None of them even proposed to hold meetings and implore us to stay in the Union.

When we were beaten four years since, none of the voters thought of soothing or consoling us. None of them even proposed to hold meetings and implore us to stay in the Union.

When we were beaten four years since, none of the voters thought of soothing or consoling us. None of them even proposed to hold meetings and implore us to stay in the Union.

When we were beaten four years since, none of the voters thought of soothing or consoling us. None of them even proposed to hold meetings and implore us to stay in the Union.

When we were beaten four years since, none of the voters thought of soothing or consoling us. None of them even proposed to hold meetings and implore us to stay in the Union.

When we were beaten four years since, none of the voters thought of soothing or consoling us. None of them even proposed to hold meetings and implore us to stay in the Union.

When we were beaten four years since, none of the voters thought of soothing or consoling us. None of them even proposed to hold meetings and implore us to stay in the Union.

When we were beaten four years since, none of the voters thought of soothing or consoling us. None of them even proposed to hold meetings and implore us to stay in the Union.

When we were beaten four years since, none of the voters thought of soothing or consoling us. None of them even proposed to hold meetings and implore us to stay in the Union.

When we were beaten four years since, none of the voters thought of soothing or consoling us. None of them even proposed to hold meetings and implore us to stay in the Union.

When we were beaten four years since, none of the voters thought of soothing or consoling us. None of them even proposed to hold meetings and implore us to stay in the Union.

When we were beaten four years since, none of the voters thought of soothing or consoling us. None of them even proposed to hold meetings and implore us to stay in the Union.

When we were beaten four years since, none of the voters thought of soothing or consoling us. None of them even proposed to hold meetings and implore us to stay in the Union.

When we were beaten four years since, none of the voters thought of soothing or consoling us. None of them even proposed to hold meetings and implore us to stay in the Union.

When we were beaten four years since, none of the voters thought of soothing or consoling us. None of them even proposed to hold meetings and implore us to stay in the Union.

When we were beaten four years since, none of the voters thought of soothing or consoling us. None of them even proposed to hold meetings and implore us to stay in the Union.