THE NEW YORK LEDGER. We intend to make the NEW-YORK LEDGER for 1861 superior to that of any other year in the past. Among our contributors will be the Presi-dent of the United States, Edward Everett, Geo. Bancroft, William Cullen Brysit, John G. Saxe, George P. Morris, N. P. Willis, George D. Pren-tice, Thomas Dunn English, Syivanus Cobb, Jr., Emerson Bennett, T. S. Arthur, P. Hamilton My-ers, Col. Waiter B. Dunlap, S. Compton Smith, John Esten Cooke. Mrs. Sigourney, Mrs. South-worth, Fanny Fern, Anna Cora Ritchie, Alice Cary, Mary Forrest, Marion Harland, Miss E. A. Dupy, Mary Stanley Gibson, Phebe Cary, and many Clergymen, Professors in Colleges, States-nen, and other embent writers residing in different arts of the Union. The corps of contributors for the colling year will be so large, and will embrace such a variety of eminent talent, that every department of litera-ture will receive the particular attention of some one competent to do it ample and special justice. Whether it be popular romance scientific essay, Historical sketch, scholastic disquisition, spicy arisgraph, pathetic ballad, humorous poen, old ashioned love story, timely editorial, or any other ingredient of papular and elevated journalism, that is to be furnished, the LEDGER corps will be so fileient for the task. Ingrement of popular and elevated journament, that is to be furnished, the LEDGER corps will be sufficient for the task. In fact, our contributors will send us from weak to weak much more matter than well can use, so that we shall always have a fresh and superabundant supply, from which to select rms vEAN BEST. These facts, taken in con-nection with our largely increased means, facilities, and experience, warrant us, we think, in promising our readers a family paper for the year 1861 which will be more interesting and in structive, and in every respect more valuable, even than the LEDG-ER has been in the past: As an indication of the popularity of the LEDG-EK, we need only state the simple fact that its circulation is larger than that of any other TEN literary papers in the country. Its great success is twing to the fact that we secare the best writers in the country, and spare no expense in getting up the BEST FAMINT PAPER—a paper of high moral tone. The exalted reputation of its contributors, the practical and invariably pure and healthy character of all its articles, the care which is taken that not even one offensive word shall appear in

THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great pro-moter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the moter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the time-ly expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bad. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous screa, through which the system will strive to rid itself of euruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitilated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores ; cleanse it when you find it is ob-structed and sluggish in the veins ; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live blood healthy, and all is well ; but with this pabulan of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Somer or later something mut go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrowt. Sarsapardla has, and deserves much, the roputation, of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been errectionaly deceived by reputation, of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed alone has not all the virtue that is elaimed for it, but more because many preparations, protending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else. During late years the public have been mis-led by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frands upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsapa-rilla, but often no curative properties whater-er. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become Subsequent when a control the market, turn the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Skill we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of chloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the adinary run of the diseases it is intendbeneving it has virtues which are irrestable by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intend-ed to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judicieusly taken according to directions on the bottle.
