She was born in 1785, married in 1609, and was the sister of Charles McDowell. She was the mother of ten children, flity one grand children, and four great grand children, most of whom were present at her tuneral. She joined the Presbyterian church in Bedford, in 1868, and has lived a consistent member ever since. She resided in Schellshurg about 28 years, during which time she gained many warm friends, who can traly sympathize with her bereaved children. Respectfully Inscribed to her Children. Sons and daughters of one mother, We're bereft of that dear friend ; God has claimed the soul forever, Which our childhood did defend. And, we trust, in his rich mercy He has borne her to the skies, Where, attended by his angela, Sounds of sorrow ne'er shall rise.

Yes, our mother, we shall miss thes, When then'rt laid beneath the sod; And our eyes shall ne'r behold thee, When thou'rt in'the land of God. But, the blest assurance whispers, That thy life was such a one, That the angels homeward led thee, Trusting in thy Father's Son.

And, when years have floated by us, To the endless sea of time, And temptations hard have tried us, We shall meet thee in that clime, If we but our Saviour's warning Heed, whilst it is called to-day, And in life's tright sunny morning, Meekly seek his grace alway.

Ch! then draw us closer to hun, Fix our hopes upon his love; Humbly, in his word believing, We shall all meet her above, Where, with hymns and sweetest anthems, We shall sing forever more To the Lord, who brought us hither, And our own great God alore. J. H. M.

On the morning of the 12th inst., in Bloody Run, On the morning of the 12th inst., in Bloody Run, ALICE. eldest daugiter of James B. and Louisa Farquhar, aged 4 years, 11 months and 12 days. The deceased was a child of sweet and lovely manners and was dearly beloved by all who knew her. She bore her affliction with meekness, and now lives in the enjoyment of the smiles of her Heavenly Father. Shortly before her death, she requested her parents to bring her Sabbath School books and tickets, and after looking over them, spoke in feeling terms of the School and her teach-ers, and requested her little skiter to be a good spoke in feeling terms of the School and her teachers, and requested her little sister to be a good girl. Her remains were taken to the M. E. Church, were a very feeling and appropriate sermon was deficered by Rev. Mr. Gleaver, after which they were followed to their has tealing place by her relations, Satbath School scholars and others. Oh, Satiour, come and dry our tears, And help us to resign This precious jewel to thy care, And crown her ever thine. W. N. F.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, has won for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of Thront and Lung Complaint, that it is equirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence of its virtues, wherever it has been em-ployed. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.

Battle Greck, Mich., Dec. 21, 1853. Prof. Woon: Thee wilt please accept a line to inform thee that the hair on my head all fell off over twenty years ago, caused by a complicated chronic disease, attended with an eruption on the head.— A continual course of suffering through life having reduced me to a state of dependance. I have not been able to obtain stuff for caps, neither have I been able to obtain stuff for caps, neither have I been able to do them up, in consequence of which my head has suffered extremely from cold. This induced me to pay Briggs & Hodges almost the last cent I had on earth for a two dollar bottle of thy Haur Restorative about the first of August last.— I have faithfully followed the directions and the bald spot is now covered with hair tanick and black, though short, it is also coming in all over my head. Feeling confident that another large bottle would restore it entirely and permanently. I feel anxious to persevere in its nse, and being destitute of means to purchase any more, I would ask thee if the wouldst not be willing to scan me an order on thine agents for a bottle, and receive to thyself the scripture declaration—the for the first or those that are bird to the willow and the first or they are built the bard spot to thine agents for a bottle, and receive to those that are bird to the willow and the first or those that are bird to the willow and the first or the scripture declaration—the first or the first or the first or the scripture declaration—the retward is to those that are bird to the willow and the first or house that the bird to the willow and the first or the scripture declaration—the scripture declaration—the scripture declaration—the scripture declaration—the scripture declaration and the first or the scripture declaration.—the scripture declaration—the scripture declaration.—the scripture declaration and the scripture declaration. scripture declaration-"the reward is to those that are kind to the widow and the fatherless."

WOOD: Dear Sir :-- In the latter part of the year 1852, while attending the State and National Law School of the State of New York, my hair, from a cause unknown to me, commenced failing off very rapidity, so that in the short space of six months, the whole upper part of my scalp was almost entirely bereful of its covering, and much of the remaining portion upon the side and back part of my head shortly after became gray, so that you will not be surprised when f tell you that upon my return to the State of Indiana, my more casual acquaintances were not so much at a loss to dis-cover the cause of the change in my appearance, as toy more infimate acquaintances were to recog as my more intimate acquaintances were to recog as toy more intimate acquaintances were to recog-nize me at all. I at once made application to the most skillful physicians in the country, but receiving no as-surance from them that my hair could again be re-stored, I was forced to become reconciled to my fate, until, fortunately, in the latter part of the year 1857, your Restorative was recommended to me by a druggist, as being the most reliable Hair Restorative in use. I tried one bottle, and found to my great satisfaction that it was producing the desired effect. Since that time, I have used seven dollars' worth of your Restorative, and as a result, have a tick could of very soft black hair, which no money can buy.
