It is called "Master of Pain." I did not give it this name—I don't like the name. When I first commenced making it it was without name or label. I made it and sold it by the source at my Drug Store. I had no idea then of naking a business of it. Some who bought it called it Master of Pain, and by this name it became known for many miles round. And finally, when I had a label printed I was compelled to adopt the name, for by that name it was known. After all, the usame is not so very inappropriate. It is used to allowate or remove pain. It is put on wherever there is pain. Sometimes it will clause pain, but the result always is freedom from pain.

W. E. Shrainer—Sir: As you are about to introduce your Balsamic Cough Syrup into our Cannty.

I will give you my experience with it, which you are at liberty to use if you think proper, some two years ago a box that was lost on the Pennsylvania Central R. R. found its way to my store. I opened the box and found it to contain your Balsamic Congh Syrup. I had never heard of it at that time but a Mr. Aughinbungh from your state happened to be present and said it was ene of the best pened to be present and said it was one of the best cough remedies in use and happening to need a caugh medicine in my family I determined to give it a trial, and so well pleased was I with its effects that I gave bottles of it to my friends all of whom agree with me in pronouncing it the best cough remedy they have ever met with. We have used it for Coughs, Colds, Croup and Whooping Cough, and in every case it gave the most signal relief.—

Restorative will restore the baid and gray, and preserve the bair of the youth to old age, in all its youthful beauty.

Battle Creek, Mich., Dec. 21, 1858.

Prof. Wood: There wilt please accept a line to inform thee that the hair on my head all filleff over twenty years ago, caused by a complicated chronic disease, attended with an eruption on the head.—A centinual course of suffering through life having reduced me to a state of dependance. I have not been able to obtain stuff for caps, neither have I been able to obtain stuff for caps, neither have I been able to obtain stuff for caps, neither have I been able to do the mup, in consequence of which my head has suffered extremely from cold. This induced me to pay Briggs & Hodges almost the hast caut I had on earth for a two dollar hottle of thy Hair Restorative about the first of August last.—I have fatilifully followed the directions and the bald spot is now covered with hair thick and Hack, though short, it is also coming in all over my head. Feeling confident that another large bottle would restore it entirely and permanently, I feel anxious to persevere in its use, and being destinute of means to burchase any more, I would ask thee if thee wouldst not be willing to send me an order on thine agents for a bottle, and receive to thyself the scripture declaration—"the reward is to those that are kind to the widow and the fatherless."

Ligonier Noble Co., Indiana, Feb. 5, 1859. PROF. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir: - In the latter part of the year 1852, while attending the State and National Law School of the State of New York, of the year 1852, while attending the State and National Law School of the State of New York, my hair, from a cause unknown to me, commenced failing off very rejedity, so that in the short space of six months, the whole upper part of my scalp was almost entirely bereit of its covering, and much of the remaining portion upon the side and back part of my head shortly after became gray, so that you will not be surprised when I tell you that upon my return to the State of Indiana, my more casual acquaintances were not so much at a loss to discover the cause of the change in my appearance, as my more intimate acquaintances were to recognize me at all.

I at once made application to the most skillful physicians in the country, but receiving no assurance from them that my hair could again be restored, I was forced to become reconciled to my fate, until fortunately, in the latter part of the year 1857, your Restorative was recommended to me by a druggist, as being the most reliable Hair Restorative in use. I tried one bottle, and found to my great satisfaction that it was producing the desired eff ct. Since that time, I have used seven dollars' worth of your kestorative, and as a resut, have a rich coat of very soft black hair, which no money can buy.

As a wark of my gratitude for your labor and movey can buy.

As a teach of my gratitude for your labor and skill in the production of so wonderful an article, I have recommended its use to many of my friends and acquaintances, who, I am happy to inform you, are using it with like effect. Very respectfully, yours,

A. M. LATTA,

Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

Vegetable Life Medicines. A mild yet effectual medicine, compose of the best material known to medical science, for the cleausing of the alimentary canal and relieving the springs and avenues of life of all morbid obstructions and impurities, must be a public blessing and a domestic and individual protection and safeguard, in proportion as it becomes known. Such a medicine the families of the United States have long had in Moffat's Celebrated Life Pills and Phonix Butters, and the good they have done is inestimable. They have won their high fame and firmly established character by their virtues alone, without the aid of the usual arts of notority or firmly established character by their virtues alone, without the aid of the usual arts of notority or impudent experiment on the faith of the credulous.
