MR. EDITOR: You will confer a favor on your friends in this neighborhood by giving a place to the following brief account of how we spent the fourth in Woodberry. In the first place let me state that a celebration of our national birth day on a grand scale was contemplated, printed bandbills were circulated and the people called open to turn ont and show their patriotic devotion to their country by a general participation in the exercises of the occasion. The call was nobly responded to—from the hills and valleys they name-citizens and soldiers-all departments and professions of life were fully represented -in a word the town was alive with "fair women and brave men."

About half part ten o'clock Sam'l J. C.stner, Esq., finely mounted on a large Iron Gray Horse, dressed with badges appropriate to auch an occasion, formed the procession in the town in the following order near Dr. C. F. Oelleigs: First Capt. Dun'l M. Bares, Pattonsville Rifles, 2d Posters Creek Guards, commanded by Capt. John B. Fluck, 3d Millerslown Guards, commanded by Capt. J. Nicodemus, Jr., 4th the Woodbury Zouaves, Capt. E. D. Brisban, all in fuit uniform. 5th Orators of the day, 6th the Sunday Schools, 7th Ladies, 8th Gentlemen, four abreast. The military companies by the way deserve particular mention, for their very gentlemanly conduct and soldier like appearance, and the great proficiency they have attained in their drilling, in the short time they have been practicing.— The procession being formed about half a mile in length, countermarched through the town, and then proceeded to the splendid grove of Dr. Saml. H. Smith adjacent to the town where a stand had been erected for the speakers.

The meeting being called to order by Rev. John H. Wilkinson who, according to previous arrangements announced the officers of the day. Isase Burger and George Soulsby, were made vice presidents and Jacob Brenneman, Esq., secretary. The meeting being organized the fife and drums played a besutiful national air.

John E. Satterfield, Esq., was then called upon and read the Declaration of Independence, in a very clear and creditable manner. The Star Spangled Bauner, was then sung by the Ladies in most excellent style. G. H. Spang, Esq., being then called to the stand delivered one of the most heart stirring and patriotic orations that it has ever been your correspondent's pleasure to listen to. Commenceing at the settlement of the colonies, he gave a graffic description of the history of our forefathers down to the framing of the Doclaration of Independence, his picture of the trials and hard. ships, Gen. Washington and his little band of patriots had to endure in achieving the liberties we enjoy, caused the tears to start in the eyes of many of his hearers, following the course of events down to the present crisis, which he dwelt upon at some length he plainly showed that the whole difficulty arose from a few traitorous aspirants who are lusting for anholy power; his speech was interrupted with rounds of applause at different intervals.

The ladies being again called on sung the Red, White and Blue, very beautifully, the dinner was now announced. The speakers then by order of the Marshal headed the procession and marched to the table, the military and citizens following, and partook of a sumptous dinner such as we have never seen before. Two tables, one between two and three hundred feet long were put up in the grove-and literally cranmed with loads of finest substantials and choisest delicasies; everything that could satisfy the hungriest appetite or tempt the most fastidious epicure was there in abundance. Not less than eighteen bundred persons partook of dinner at the one table, whilst about two hundred connected with the Sunday Schools, teachers and scholars occupied the other which was almost seventy-five feet in length. Cold turkeys, hams, chickens, beef, bread, butter, eese, pies, cakes, pickles, preserves, fruit, &c., were there in profusion and plenty of good hot coffee for all. After all had eaten and were satisfied there were still many, many full baskets of provisions left. This was distributed among persons in the neighborhood who received it in the same kind spirit in which it was given. This elegant, free dinner, reflects great credit upon the hearts and hands of the good people of Woodbury and the sur-rounding country by whom it was furnished and prepared.

After dinner the marshal again formed the military in line and marched to the stand.— Maj. A. J. Sansom was called upon and sung the "Star Spangled Banner" and "Gay and Happy" in good style, which was highly applauded by the audience. Hon. John Cessna sing then loudly called, took the stand and delivered one of the most patriotic speeches we have heard since the country's present crises, indeed he did credit to himself and to all who heard him dwelling entirely on the present war, coursing the cheeks of stout hearts during the delivery of his speech, he showed clearly that there was but two sides to this question, that all good and loyal citizens must support the Constitution and the Government, proving to a demonstration that the secessionists are in the wrong, and that the Government is in the right, that there is no middle course, that every man must be either a l'atriot or a Rebel At the conclusion, three hearty cheers were given for the speakers. A number of toasts were then read by J. B. Durborrow, Esq., which were heartily responded to by John B. Fluck, Esq., J. E. Satterfield, Prof. J. W. Dickerson, and John Wilkinson, at the conclusion of which the band played enother national air. The military was then again formed into line-headed by the marshal, the orators; ladies and citizens, falling into ranks and again marched into town, counter-merched through the streets, and were dismissed in regular order by the warshal, S J. Castner, Esq.

In conclusion, we must say that the whole affair did credit to Woodberry and the surrounding country. There was no disturbance of any kind, not a drunken man to be seen during the whole of the celebration. Indeed we must say that we had a happy Fourth-a day that will long be remembered by all who were present. Maj. A. J. Sansum organized the Woodberry Zouaves into a military com-Pany. TO THE CITIZENS OF BEDFORD.

My duties here having terminated, I am ordered to join my Regiment. I find it not only a duty, but a very great pleasure, to express in this man-ner my heartfelt thanks on behalf of the sick soldiers confined to my charge, for the tender core, and very great kindness manifested by all the citizens of this beautiful town. Every want has been anticipated, and a more friendly sympathy could not have been exhibited had the poor fellows been brothers, instead of strangers accidentally thrown among you.

In my constant intercourse among the men, I have heard but one feeling of gratitude expressed, and many a whispered prayer for blessings upon their kind friends.

For myself, personally, I have to add the testimony of a grateful heart, for the kindest attentions have been shown me, and every thing has been done to make my sojourn here a pleasant one. It has been most agreeable, and I shall always in after life look heart mean my stay in Redford with feedings. look back upon my stay in Bedford with feelings of pleasure and thankfulness, always praying that the richest of Heaven's blessings may be liberally bestowed upon you all. N. F. MARSH, M. D. Asst. Surg. 5th Reg. P. R. Gorps.

The War in Western Virginia. Another Fight-General Morris Attacks u

Division of Wise's Army-Twenty three Killed, Two Hundred Prisoners, and Seventy one Horses-Wise at Laurel Hill on the Fourth of July, &c

GRAFTON, Va., July 3.—Shortly after I closed my letter to you of yesterday, we received information of a considerable fight, at least in its results, between General Morris's column of this (McClellan's) army, and the encmy, commanded by either Henry A. Wise or Bob Garnett (late of the United States Army) in serson. It took place to the right of Buckhanon. Our troops engaged were almost entirely Ohicans, the Third and Fourth Regiments that had gove out by the way of Clarksburg. The citizen bringing the news here says he could not learn (at Clarksburg) whether Wise or Garnett commanded the disunionists, who retreated as hastily as possible. with the loss of twenty-three killed, two bundred prisoners, and seventy-one horses, that Morris captured. On our side not a man was'killed.

The action took place on Sunday night. That is, very early Monday morning, I presume. Such is the account of the affinir received here, as explained above. Our troops immediately after the fight continued the pursuit of the retreating enemy. We have news from across the country that General McClellan expects to come up with the enemy at Laurel Hill to-morrow - the 4th. A consicrable portion of Wise's force is posted there, and as that force will probably by that time be joined by the force the Joionists whipped on Sunday night near Buckbanon, if Wise will venture to fight anywhere, it will be there. He (Wise) will do his best to make his men fight, if but because, after his usual fashion, on his way out to this quarter he abused the Virginians who rau at Phillipi recently, most shamefully, for poltroons and cowards, not once, but in a dozen inpromptu speeches. If his command therefore continues to run after he has selected his own ground for a battle, his denunciations of his friends engaged at Phillips will come back upon him, se that be will be the laughing stock of the whole

His total force is about 10,000, of whom but 3.000 may fairly be called willing enemies of the Stars and Stripes; as they are the volunteers he brought with him up from Staunton. The rest are nearly all men drafted in the Valley, and thus seemingly forced into the Hesul James Henderson W. W. mervice at the point of the bayonet. More than half of them are doubless Union men rather than Secessionists at heart. The force with which Gen. McCleilan operates consists Jackson W H (I learn to-day on what I regard as good au- Kimmell S thority) of 19,000 men, in three divisions, under himself, Brigadier General Morris, of Ind., and Brigadier General Rozenerantz, of Ohio. The latter is a West pointer, who grade uated at the head of his class, and is therefore Miller Elizabeth Miss Mansfield John Miller George a thoroughly educated and competent soldier.

All here are exceedingly anxious to hear of to-morrow's expected work somewhere about Laurel Hill. General McClellan, on leaving Clarksburg with his column, took the precaution to prohibit any private despatches whatever from being sent by telegraph from that point, to prevent the enemy from by any chance obtaining intelligence of his movements. Everywhere here there are parties doubtless in secret communication with Wise and Garnett by express any of whom would carry to them, under whip and spur, whatever news of advantage to them they might be able to pick up. This prohibition, of course, operates to prevent us here from promptly learning full particulars of Moflellan's movements.

REVISION OF THE REVENUE LAWS.

HARRISBURG, July 7.—Governor Curtin has appointed Gideon J. Ball, Esq., of Erie, Frank Jordan, Esq., of Bedford, and Charles Gilpin, Esq., of Philadelphia, Commissioners, under the act of the last session, to revise and codify all the revenue laws. As the commission and difficulties now at issue between the Gov- is an important one, the gentlemen composing ernment and the Rebels. Tears were seen it have been carefully chosen, all being lawyers of high standing.

We congratulate our readers upon the discovery of a sure cure for Rhenmatism, Gout and Neurolgia and all Mercurial Diseases, which destroy the con-stitution and give temporary relief only. In fact it is the only known remedy effecting a perfect cure, and we feel warranted, from its recommendations, in calling the attention of the afflicted and those having friends suffering from Kheumatism, Gout, Newselie or the permissions effects of Marcay, to Neuralgia or the pernicious effects of Mercury, to the advertisement in another column of our paper, of Dr. Leland's Anti-Rheumatic Band.

SEMLER, aged 43 years, 4 months and 12 days.

The deceased was a consistent member of the Eve. Luther of Church of Bedford, for many years, and always felt an interest in its welfare—always ready to do what she could not only for its temporal, but for its spiritual advancement. For many years she had been a patient sufferer—the pains of a distressing disease, rheumatism, was endured without murmuring—during a period of about six weeks prior to her own sickness; she sat as a ministering angel at the bed-side of her husband, who for a time, appeared to be upon the confines of the eternal world—she left his side, to lay upon a bed of death. After a brief sickness, she fell asleep, we trust, in Jesus. The loss to her husbend, children and relatives, is her eternal gain.

Her funeral sermon will be preached on the 14th inst., in the Lutheran Church at half past ten o'clock.

PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL

Is precisely what its name indicates, for while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilerating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemias to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully comi ined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted to as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence sooih the weakest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and all y all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhibit a composed entirely of vegetables and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desirent um in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science, and also by all who have suffered from debility; for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that detaility skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and lays the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly listed. of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Irritability, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Mclanchely, Hypocondria, Night Sweats, Languor, Giddiness, and all that class of cases, so fearfuly fittal if unattended to in time, called Female Weakness and Irregularities. is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The setofulous taint is variously caused by mercarial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, flith and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is terned tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, cruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitations not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently, vast numbers periah by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla. the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every where prevailing and fatal malady. It is com-bined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SKIN DISEASES, St. ANTRONY'S FIRE, and Skin Diseases, St. Anthony's Fire. Rose, or Eristpelas, Pindles, Pubtules, Blotthes, Blains and Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Rheumatism, Syphilitic and Mercurial Diseases, Dropsy, Dyspersia, Deblity, and, indeed, all Complains arising from Vittated or Impurity of the blood. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsana. particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in

Ayer's Cathartic Pills, FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSID, are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headachs arising from disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pann in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its useruiness and so namerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming, and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the for the distressing and dangerous affections of the for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and pro-duced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.
