THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER.

BY F. S. KEY.

Oh! say can you see by the dawn's early light, What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming— Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight, O'er the ramp rts we watched, were so gallantly streaming ! And the rocket's red glare, the bombs butsting in air, Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there; O! say does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave!

On that shore dimly seen through the mists of the deep. Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes. What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep, As it fifully blows, now conceals, now discloses ? Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam, In full glory reflected now shines on the stream;

Tis the Star-Spangled Banner, O long may it wave O'er the land of the free, and the home of the

And where is that band who so vauntingly swore That the havoc of war and the battle's confusion A home and a country should leave us no more ? Their blood has washed out their foul footsteps' pollution. No refuge could save the hireling and slave From the terror of flight or the gloom of the grave; And the star-spangled banner in triumph doth wave O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave.

Oh! thus be it ever, when freemen shall stand Between their loved homes and the war's desolation, Blest with victory and peace, may the heaven-rescued land

Red, White and Blue.

Oh Columbia, the gem of the ocean, The home of the brave and the free, The shrine of each patriot's devotion, A world offers homage to thee.

Thy mandates make heroes assemble,

When liberty's form stands in view, Thy banners make tyranny tremble,

When borne by the red, white, and blue. When borne by the red, white, and blue, When borne by the red, white, and blue, Thy banners make tyranny tremble, When borne by the red, white, and blue.

When war waged its wide desolation, And threaten'd our land to deform, The ark then of freedom's foundation, Columbia rode safe through the storm. With her garland of victory o'er her, When so proudly she bore het bold crew, With her flag proudly floating before her, The boast of the red, white, and blue. The boast of, &c.

This is a most perfect preparation, and seldom fails to dogood. It is harmless in its effects but powerful to relieve Pains. If you use it once you will not likely be without it again. You will find it a constant household friend, giving ease and relief just when needed. Keep it constantly on hand and it will save you many hours of pain and suf-fering. There is hardly a pain it will not ease.— There is hardly an accident that will occur where it will not be useful:

it will not be useful. Should one of your family get burned or scald-ed cover the burned part with a cloth of several thicknesses wet with the "Master of Pain," and thicknesses wet with the "Master of Pain," and keep the cloth saturated with it. In a short time it will draw all the fire out. It will cause a prick-ling sensation—this is the fire coming out. Keep it wet with the "Master of Pain" until the pain and prickling ceases. Let the wet cloth stay on for six or eight hours, after which apply some healing ointment or sweet oil. In nearly all cases of Pain or Soreness of the Chest, Throat, Side, Back, Spine, Limbs or Joints, it will give relief.— Rub it on freely with the hand or with a flannel Rub it on freely with the hand or with a flannel cloth until the skin becomes heated and burning.
