BY F. S KEY.

th! say can you see by the dawn's early light.

Vhat so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming—

Vhose broad stripes and bright stars through the

periious fight, )'er the ramp ris we watchel, were so gallantly streaming!
And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in

Gave proof through the night that our flig was still there;
O! say does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave

On that shore dimly seen through the mists of the deep. Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence re-What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,

As it fitfully blows, now conceals, now discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first

In full glory reflected now shines on the stream: Tis the Star-Spangled Banner, O long may it wave O'er the land or the free, and the home of the brave!

And where is that band who so vauntingly swore That the havon of war and the battle's confusion A home and a country should leave us no more? Their blood has washed out their foul footsteps.

No refuge could save the hireling and slave From the terror of flight or the gloom of the grave;
And the star-spangled banner in triumph doth wave
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave.

Oh! thus he it ever, when freemen shall stand Between their loved homes and the war's desolation,

Blest with victory and peace, may the heavenrescued land
Praise the power that hath made and preserved us

Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto— "In God is our trust"—
And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall O'er the land of the free, and the home of the Red, White and Blue.

Oh Columbia, the gem of the ocean,

The home of the brave and the free, The shrine of each patriot's devotion, A world offers homage to thee. Thy mandates make heroes assemble, When liberty's form stands in view, Thy banners make tyranny tremble, When borne by the red, white, and blue. When borne by the red, white, and blue, When borne by the red, white, and blue, Thy banners make tyranny tremble, When borne by the red, white, and blue.

When war waged its wide desolation, And threaten'd our land to deform, The ark then of freedom's foundation, Columbia rode safe through the storm. With her garland of victory o'er her, When so proudly she bore her bold crew, With her flag proudly floating before her, The boast of the red, white, and blue.

The boast of, &c. The wine cup, the wine cup bring bither. And fill you it up to the brim, May the wreath they have won never wither, Nor the star of their glory grow dim,

May the service united ne'er sever, And hold to their colors so true, The army and navy forever, Three cheers for the red, white, and blue.
Three cheers for, &c.

duces a little soreness.

For Croup use it in connection with the Cough Syrup, by rubbing it on the chest.

For Rheumatism and all deep seated pains, if the pain is not speedily removed by rubbing with the hand, lay a cloth wet with the liquid over the part affected, and pass a warm smoothing iron over

For Pains in the Breast, Side or Back, the same may be done.

For Tooth-ache, drop it on cotton, and apply it to the nerve of the tooth, also rub the guras and cheeks with it.

For Frosted Feet, apply the "Master of Pain" reely, and dry it in before the fire.

For Head ache rub it on the forehead.

It is called "Master of Pain." I did not give it this name—I don't like the name. When I first commenced making it it was without name or label. I made it and sold it by the counce at my Drug. I made it and sold it by the ounce at my Drug Store. I had no idea then of making a business of it. Some who bought it called it Master of Pain, and by this name it became known for many miles round. And finally, when I had a label printed I was compelled to adopt the name, for by that name it was known. After all, the name is not so very inappropriate. It is used to alleviate or remove pain. It is put on wherever there is pain. Sometimes it will cause pain, but the result always is freedom from pain.

Mr. W. E. SHRINER-Dear Sir: Upon several occasions I have used your Balsamic Cough Syrup, in my family and also on one occasion myself— when worn by frequent preaching, and with the SAMUEL YINGLING.

W.E. Shriner-Sir: As you are about to intro luce your Balsamic Cough Syrup into our County. I will give you my experience with it, which you are at liberty to use if you think proper, some two years ago a box that was lost on the Pennsyltwo years ago a box that was lost on the Pennsylvania Central R. R. found its way to my store, opened the box and found it to contain your Balsamic Cough Syanp. I had never heard of it at that time but a Mr. Aughinbaugh from your state happened to be present and said it was one of the best cough remedies in use and happening to need a caugh medicine in my family I determined to give it a trial, and so well pleased was I with its effects that I gave bottles of it to my friends all of whom agree with me in pronouncing it the best cough remedy they have ever met with. We have used it for Coughs, Colds, Croup and Whooping Cough, and in every case it gave the most signal reliet.—Yours truly,
