BY F. S. KEY.

Oh! say can you see by the dawn's early light, What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming --Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight, O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming!

And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in

Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there;
O! say does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave!

On that shore dimly seen through the mists of the Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence rewhat is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, now conceals, now discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first

Red, White and Blue.

Oh Columbia, the gem of the ocean, The home of the brave and the free. The shrine of each patriot's devotion, A world offers homage to thee. Thy mandates make heroes assemble,

When liberty's form stands in view, Thy banners make tyranny tremble, When borne by the red, white, and blue When borne by the red, white, and blue, When borne by the red, white, and blue, Thy banners make tyranny tremble.

When borne by the red, white, and blue. When war waged its wide desolation, And threaten'd our land to deform, The ark then of freedom's foundation, Columbia rode safe through the storm. With her garland of victory o'er her, When so proudly she bore her bold crew, With her flag proudly floating before her, The boast of the red, white, and blue. The boast of, &c.

The wine cup, the wine cup bring hither. And fill you it up to the brim, May the wreath they have won never wither. Nor the star of their glory grow dim, May the service united ne'er sever, And hold to their colors so true,

SHRINER'S

MASTER OF PAIN. THE GREAT EXTERNAL REMEDY.

For Sprains and Bruises, Burns and Scalds, Rheumatic and Neuralgic Pains, Swel-lings, Stiff Joints, Paralysis, or Numbress of the Limbs, Pains in the Breast, Side or Back;

Sore Throat, Tooth-Ache, Frosted Feet, &c., &c.,
And for the Relief of Pain Anywhere and Everywhere.

and Everywhere.

This is a most perfect preparation, and seidem fails to dogood. It is harmless in its effects but powerful'to relieve Pain. If you use it once you will not likely be without it again. You will find it a constant household friend, giving ease and relief just when needed. Keep it constantly on hand and it will save you many hours of pain and suffering. There is hardly a pain it will not ease.—There is hardly an accident that will occur where it will not be useful.

Should one of your family get burned or scalded, cover the burned part with a cloth of several thicknesses wet with the "Master of Pain," and keep the cloth saturated with it. In a short time it will draw all the fire out. It will cause a prickling sensation—this is the fire coming out. Keep it wet with the "Master of Pain" until the pain and prickling ceases. Let the wet cloth stay on for six or eight hours, after which apply some healing ointment or sweet oil. In nearly all cases of Pain or Soreness of the Chest, Throat, Side, Back, Spine, Limbs or Joints, it will give relief.— Back Spine, Limbs or Joints, it will give relief.— Rub it on freely with the hand or with a flanne-cloth until the skin becomes heated and burning. For soreness of the throat rub it on until it pro-

For soreness of the throat rub it on until it produces a little soreness.

For Croup use it in connection with the Cough Syrup, by rubbing it on the chest.

For Rheumatism and all deep seated pains, if the pain is not speedily removed by rubbing with the hand, lay a cloth wet with the liquid over the part affected, and pass a warm smoothing iron over it.

For Pains in the Breast, Side or Back, the same may be done.

For Tooth-ache, drop it on cotton, and apply it to the nerve of the tooth, also rub the gums and to the nerve of the tooth, also run the gains and cheeks with it.

For Frosted Feet, apply the "Master of Pain" reely, and dry it in before the fire.

For Head-ache rub it on the forehead.

It is called "Master of Pain." I did not give it this name—I don't like the name. When I first commenced making it it was without name or label. I made it and sold it by the ounce at my Drug Store. I had no idea then of making a business of it. Some who bought it called it Master of of it. Some who bought it called it Master of Pain, and by this name it became known for many miles round. And finally, when I had a label printed I was compelled to adopt the name, for by that name it was known. After all, the name is not so very inappropriate. It is used to alleviate or remove pain. It is put on wherever there is pain. Sometimes it will cause pain, but the result always is freedom from pain.

BEDFORD NOV. 3, 1860.

W. E. Shriner—Sir: As you are about to introduce your Balsamic Cough Syrup into our County.

I will give you my experience with it, which you are at liberty to use if you think proper, some two years ago a box that was lost on the Pennsylvania Central R. R. found its way to my store, opened the box and found it to contain your Balsamic Gough Syrup. I had never heard of it at that time but a Mr. Aughinbaugh from your state happened to be present and said it was one of the best cough remedies in use and happening to need a caugh medicine in my family I determined to give it a trial, and so well pleased was I with its effects that I gave bottles of it to my friends all of whom agree with me in pronouncing it the best cough remedy they have ever met with. We have used it for Coughs, Celds, Croup and Whooping Cough, and in every case it gave the most signal reliet.—Yours truly,

ADAM FERGUSON. BEDFORD Nov. 3, 1860

Yours truly,
