

THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER.

BY F. S KEY.

Oh! say can you see by the dawn's early light, What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming-Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perflors fight,

O'er the ramp its we watched, were so gallantly streaming!

And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there;

O! say does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the

On that shore dimly seen through the mists of the

Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence rewhat is that which the breeze, o'er the towering

As it fitfully blows, now conceals, now discloses? Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,

In full glory reflected now shines on the stream;
Tis the Star-Spangled Banner, O long may it wave O'er the land or the free, and the home of the brave!

And where is that band who so vanntingly swore That the havoc of war and the battle's confusion A home and a country should leave us no more? Their blood has washed cut their foul footsteps:

pollution.

No refuge could save the hireling and slave
From the terror of flight, or the gloom of the grave; And the star-spangled banner in triumph doth wave O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave,

Oh! thus be it ever, when freemen shall stand Between their loved homes and the war's desola-

Blest with victory and peace, may the heaven-rescued land

rescued land
Praise the power that hath made and preserved us a nation.
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto— "In God is our-trust"—
And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave O'er the land of the free, and the home of the Red, White and Blue.

Oh Columbia, the gem of the ocean, The home of the brave and the free, The shrine of each patriot's devotion, A world offers homage to thee.

Thy mandates make heroes assemble, When liberty's form stands in view, Thy banners make tyranny tremble,

When borne by the red, white, and blue. When borne by the red, white, and blue, When borne by the red, white, and blue, Thy banners make tyranny tremble, When borne by the red, white, and blue

When war waged its wide desolation, And threaten'd our land to deform, The ark then of freedom's foundation, Columbia rode safe through the storm. With her garland of victory o'er her, When so proudly she bore her bold crew, With her flag proudly floating before her, The boast of the rcd, white, and blue.

The boast of, &c. The wine cup, the wine cup bring hither, And all you it up to the brim,

May the wreath they have won never wither. Nor the star of their glory grow dim, May the service united ne'er sever, And hold to their colors so true,

The army and navy forever, Three cheers for the red, white, and blue. Three cheers for, &c.

SHRINER'S

MASTER OF PAIN.

THE GREAT EXTERNAL REMEDY, For Sprains and Bruises, Burns and Scalds, Rheumatic and Neuralgic Pains, Swellings, Sliff Joints, Paralysis, or Numbness of the Limbs, Pains in the Breast, Side or Back; Sore Throat, Tooth Ache, Frosted Feet, &c., &c., And for the Relief of Pain Anywhere and Everywhere.

and Everywhere.

This is a most perfect preparation, and seldom fails to dogood. It is harmless in its effects but powerful'to relieve Pain. If you use it once you will not likely be without it again. You will find it a constant household friend, giving case and relief just when needed. Keep it constantly on hand and it will save you many hours of pain and suffering. There is hardly a pain it will not ease.—There is hardly an accident that will occur where it will not be useful.

Should one of your family get burned or scalded, cover the burned part with a cloth of several thicknesses wet with the "Master of Pain," and keep the cloth saturated with it. In a short time it will draw all the fire out. It will cause a prickling sensation—this is the fire coming out. Keep it wet with the "Master of Pain" until the pain and prickling ceases. Let the wet cloth stay on for six or cight hours, after which apply some healing ointment or sweet oil. In nearly all cases of Pain or Soreness of the Chest, Throat, Side, Back, Spine, Limbs or Joints, it will give relief.—Rub it on freely with the hand or with a flannel cloth until the skin becomes heated and burning.

For soreness of the throat rub it on until it produces a little soreness.

For Croup use it in connection with the Cough

For soreness of the throat rub it on until it produces a little soreness.

For Croup use it in connection with the Cough Syrup, by rubbing it on the chest.

For Rheumatism and all deep seated pains, if the pain is not speedily removed by rubbing with the hand, lay a cloth wet with the liquid over the part affected, and pass a warm smoothing iron over it.

For Pains in the Breast, Side or Back, the same may be done.

For Tooth-ache, drop it on cotton, and apply it to the nerve of the tooth, also rub the gums and cheeks with it.

For Frosted Feet, apply the "Master of Pain" reely, and dry it in before the fire.

For Head ache rub it on the forehead.

It is called "Master of Pain." I did not give it this name—I don't like the name. When I first commenced making it it was without name or label. commenced making it it was without name or label. I made it and sold it by the ounce at my Drug Store. I had no idea then of making a business of it. Some who bought it called it Master of Pain, and by this name it became known for many miles round. And finally, when I had a label printed I was compelled to adopt the name, for by that name it was known. After all, the name is not so very inappropriate. It is used to alleviate or remove pain. It is put on wherever there is pain. Sometimes it will cause pain, but the result alwars is freedom from pain.
