

BEDFORD INQUIRER.

THE LEGISLATIVE TICKET.

With the name of GEORGE W. HOUSEHOLDER on it, which we hold that all claiming to be Republicans are in honor bound to vote, because he is the regular nominee, commended to us, and endorsed by our brethren of Bedford County, who in supporting our own popular candidate E. M. Schrock, have a right to expect and demand that we in good faith shall support theirs. That Mr. Schrock will be fully supported we do not doubt, and therefore we feel no necessity for urging his claims beyond that of the balance of the ticket, as we do those of Mr. Householder, because we know that there is a quiet and determined effort being made to defeat him and elect Mr. Cessna, one of the conceited rascals. Of Mr. Cessna we have nothing to say, by his speeches he has proved himself a good Union man, but he is in very bad company, and is the distinctive party nominee of two County Conventions that both passed resolutions grossly insulting and unjust to the Republican party, and one of which carefully hedged off every chance of a union with us, although many members of that party now desire to urge their nominee upon us as a Union man. The ability, integrity and sound loyalty of Mr. Householder have never been doubted, and he is commended to us for these very traits by our friends in Bedford, and being our regular nominee, irreproachable and unimpeachable in every respect, we as Republicans are bound by every tie of party and sentiment of honor to support him as fully as we support Mr. Schrock, and in as good faith as we expect Mr. Schrock to be supported in Bedford County. Reports are being industriously circulated of the immense majority Mr. Cessna will have in Bedford and the determination of the Republicans there to support him. From personal observation and inquiry made in that county within the last week we are satisfied these stories are not true. While Republicans there admire the noble stand taken by Mr. Cessna for the Union, yet as the nominee of a party which by their resolutions occupy a position adverse to his, they cannot support him, and even if the Republicans of that county were mean and treacherous enough—which we do not believe them to be—to desert their own candidate with whom they find no fault, so much the more reason that we by supporting him, should wash our hands of the dishonor which must attach to his defeat if that occurs through treachery or trickery.

Independent of these considerations which appeal to our party pride and personal honor, there are others which we must mention in this connection. Hon. David Wilcox, our lately elected U. S. Senator, is in a serious health, his report says—“owner of the stomach disease.” The next Legislature may have his successor to elect. We most sincerely hope not, but it is wise to run the risk of having a democratic majority in the Legislature when so momentous a question to the country may arise. Again a State Treasurer is to be elected by the Legislature, a most important office in these times of heavy taxation and large expenditures. Beside this read an article entitled “The effect of Union tickets upon the Legislature” in another column, and then decide if there ever was a time when a more imperative necessity existed not only for voting for our ticket, but in view of the decrease of our vote, caused by the absence of so many of our citizens in the war, for rallying out every voter to the polls.

Friends you have been napping in security. “It is time for work” will you have Jeff Davis & Co., rejoicing that the Administration is not only not sustained but is defeated in Pennsylvania.—Somerset Herald.

About one half of the mansion tract is also cleared and balance well timbered.

“Every person qualified as aforesaid, and who shall, make due proof if required, of his residence and payment of taxes aforesaid, shall be admitted to vote in the township, ward or district in which he shall reside.
“If any person shall prevent or attempt to prevent any officer of an election under this act from holding such election, or use or threaten any violence to any such officer, and shall interrupt or improperly interfere with him in the execution of his duty, shall block or attempt to block up the window where the same may be held, or shall riotously disturb the peace of such election, or shall use or practice intimidation, threats, force or violence with the design to influence unjustly or overawe any elector, or prevent him from voting, or to restrain the freedom of choice, such person on conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars and to be imprisoned for any time not less than one or more than twelve months, and if it shall be shown to the Court where the trial of such offence shall be had, that the person so offending was not a resident of the city, ward, district or township where the said offence was committed, and not entitled to vote therein, then on conviction, he shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years.
“If any person or persons shall make any bet or wager upon the result of any election within the Commonwealth, or shall offer to make any such bet or wager, either by verbal proclamation thereof, or by any written or printed advertisement, or invite any person or persons to make such bet or wager upon conviction thereof he or they shall forfeit and pay three times the amount so bet or offered to be bet.
And the Judges of the respective districts aforesaid, are required to meet at Bedford, on the Friday next following the holding of said Election, then and there to perform those things required of them by law.
