

BEDFORD, Pa. Friday Morning, Oct. 11, 1861. "FEARLESS AND FREE."

D. OVER—Editor and Proprietor.

CASH TERMS. On account of the hardness of the times and the pressing demands for cash upon us, we have determined to come as near to cash terms as possible.

THE ELECTION.

The election in this County has resulted in the success of the Democratic County ticket as we anticipated it would. The vote is, probably, over 1000 less than it was last fall.

AN INCIDENT.

Notwithstanding last Tuesday was one of the most quiet and orderly election days that we ever saw in Bedford, yet a little incident occurred, that, on account of the man, we think proper to notice.

BEDFORD RIFLEMEN.

The Bedford Riflemen, under the command of Capt. Thomas H. Lyons, and Lieut. Sol. S. Metzger, left our place, yesterday for Harrisburg. They numbered about 60 men.

SCHELLSBURG RIFLEMEN.

On Monday last the Schellsburg Riflemen, under the command of Capt. Geo. S. Mullis, passed through our place on their way to the seat of war.

NEW GOODS.—Mr. Job M. SHOEMAKER has received his usual supply of new fall and winter goods, which he is selling at prices to suit the present hard times.

A CARD.

BEDFORD, Sept. 23, 1861. Mr. Editor:—Permit us through your columns, to say to the distinguished editor of the Bedford Gazette that we are under great obligations to him for the kind favors bestowed upon us, before leaving for the seat of war.

JOHN W. MITTONG, DAVID S. ELLIOTT, Formerly printers in the Gazette Office.

AFFAIRS IN KENTUCKY.

BREEKINGRIDGE AND POWELL REQUESTED TO RESIGN.

We published, several days ago, an account of the adoption of a resolution of the Senate of Kentucky, requesting Breckinridge and Powell to resign, in consequence of their Secession proclivities.

The Confederate Congress and the Conquest of Kentucky.

The Nashville Banner says that the Confederate Congress, in secret session, has passed a bill for the conquest of Kentucky precisely similar in its general provisions to that which was passed for the conquest of Missouri.

Gen. Rousseau's Brigade.

A correspondent of the Louisville Journal writing from Elizabethtown, Oct. 2, the headquarters of Rousseau's Union Brigade, says:

The Invasion of Kentucky.

Parson Brownlow's Knoxville (Tenn.) Whig, of the 21st, says: We repeat that serious and extensive movements will be inaugurated in Kentucky at once.
