

A Day of Thanksgiving and Praise.

PENNSYLVANIA, SS: In the name and by the authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, ANDREW G. CURTIN, Governor of said Commonwealth, PROCLAIMATION.

WHEREAS, every good gift is from above and comes down to us from the Almighty, to whom it is meet, right and the bounden duty of every people to render thanks for His mercies; Therefore, I, ANDREW G. CURTIN, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do recommend to the people of this Commonwealth, that they set apart

THURSDAY, 28TH OF NOVEMBER NEXT, as a day of solemn Thanksgiving to God, for having prepared our corn and watered our furrows, and blessed the labors of the husbandman, and crowned the year with His goodness, in the increase of the ground and the gathering in of the fruits thereof, so that our barns are filled with plenty: AND for having looked favorably on this Commonwealth and strengthened the bars of her gates and blessed the children within her, and made men, to be of one mind, and preserved peace in her borders; Beseeching Him also on behalf of these United States, that our beloved country may have deliverance from these great and apparent dangers wherewith she is compassed, and that He will mercifully still the outrage of perverse, violent, unruly rebellious people, and make them clean hearts, and renew a right spirit within them, and give them grace that they may see the error of their ways and bring forth fruits meet for repentance, and hereafter, in all goodness and honesty, obediently walk in His holy commandments, and in submission to the just and manifest authority of the republic, so that, leading a quiet and peaceable life, may continually offer unto Him our sacrifices of praise and thanksgiving.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State at Harrisburg, this sixteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty one, and of the Commonwealth, the eighty-sixth.

A. G. CURTIN, BY THE GOVERNOR: ELI SLIPER, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

THE LADY'S FRIEND.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK FOR 1862.

The World's Favorite. For 32 Years the Standard Magazine. Pronounced by the Press of the United States, THE BEST LADY'S MAGAZINE IN THE WORLD, and the cheapest.

THE LITERATURE is of that kind that can be read aloud in the family circle, and the clergy in immense numbers are subscribers for the Book.

THE BEST LADY WRITERS in America contribute to its pages, and we have some that write for no other magazine.

THE MUSIC is all original, and would cost 25 cents (the price of the Book) in the music store; but most of it is copyrighted, and cannot be obtained except in "Godey."

OUR STEEL ENGRAVINGS. All efforts to rival us in this have ceased, and we now stand alone in this department, giving, as we do, many more and infinitely better engravings than are published in any other work.

IMMENSE DOUBLE SHEET FASHION-PLATES, containing from five to seven full length Colored Fashions on each plate. Other Magazines give only two.

FOR AHEAD OF ANY FASHIONS IN EUROPE OR AMERICA.

Godey's is the only one in the world that gives these immense plates, and they are such as to have excited the wonder of publishers and public. The publication of these plates cost $10,000 more than Fashion-plates of the old style, and nothing but our wonderfully large circulation enables us to give them. Other Magazines cannot afford it. We never spare money when the public can be benefited.

THESE FASHIONS may be relied on. Dresses may be made after them, and the wearer will not subject herself to ridicule, as would be the case if she visited the large cities dressed after the style of the plates given in some of our so-called fashion magazines.

OUR WOOD ENGRAVINGS, of which we give twice or three times as many as any other magazine, are often mistaken for steel. They are so far superior to any others.

IMITATIONS. Beware of them. Remember that the Lady's Book is the original publication and the cheapest. If you take Godey, you want no other magazine.

Everything that is useful or ornamental in a house can be found in Godey.

DRAWING LESSONS. No other magazine gives them, and we have given enough to fill several large volumes.

OUR RECEIPTS are such as can be found nowhere else. Cooking in all its variety—Confectionery—the Nursery—the Toilet—the Laundry—the Kitchen. Receipts upon all subjects are to be found in the pages of the Lady's Book. We originally started this department, and have peculiar facilities for making it most perfect. This department alone is worth the price of the Book.

LADIES' WORK TABLE. This department comprises engravings and descriptions of every article that a lady wears.

MODEL COTTAGES. No other magazine has this department.

CASH TERMS.

On account of the hardness of the times and the pressing demands for cash upon us, we have determined to come as near to cash terms as possible. Hereafter we must have the cash for all Orphans' Court printing; Auditor's Notices, Estrays, &c. also all Probationary's printing, occasional advertisements and handbills.

All new subscribers are also expected to pay their subscriptions in advance.

We do not think Executors, Administrators, and Auditors have need to complain at this change of terms. They can almost at any time raise a few dollars that will require to pay the Printer's bills. It will save bother to them, and be of immense benefit to us.

Old Quarters taken at par on all kinds of accounts.

Public Sale

OF REAL ESTATE.

THE subscribers will offer at public sale, on the premises, in Mill Hill, Woodbury Township, Bedford County, on Saturday the 21st day of December, next, all that lot or parcel of ground, late the property of Joseph Kaegy and Barbara, his wife, viz:

17 Acres.

More or less, of limestone land; adjoining lands of G. R. Barndollar, Joseph Basser and others. Said land being all cleared, and having thereon erected a store and a half Log Dwelling House, green stable and saw mill.

There is also a fine bearing young orchard on the place.

Terms.—One third in hand, at the confirmation of the sale, balance in two equal annual payments thereafter without interest, to be secured by judgments on Bonds and Mortgage.

JOSEPH M. SHOEFELT, Guardian of the minor children, BARBARA KEAGY.

SHRINER'S MASTER OF PAIN.

THE GREAT EXTERNAL REMEDY.

For Sprains and Bruises, Burns and Scalds, Rheumatic and Neuralgic Pains, Swellings, Stiff Joints, Paralysis, or Numbness of the Limbs, Pains in the Breast, Side or Back; Sore Throat, Tooth-Ache; Frosted Feet, &c., &c., and for the Relief of Pain Anywhere and Everywhere.

This is a most perfect preparation, and seldom fails to do good. It is heralded in its effects by powerful relief. Pain. If you use it once you will not likely be without it again. You will find it a constant household friend, giving ease and relief just when needed. Keep it constantly on hand and it will save you many hours of pain and suffering. There is hardly a pain it will not ease. There is hardly an accident that will occur where it will not be useful.

Should one of your family get burned or scalded, rub the burned part with a cloth of several thicknesses wet with the "Master of Pain," and keep the cloth saturated with it. In a short time it will draw all the fire out. It will cause a pricking sensation—this is the fire coming out. Keep it wet with the "Master of Pain" until the pain is relieved. Rub the wet cloth dry on the face for six or eight hours, after which apply some healing ointment or sweet oil. In nearly all cases of Pain or Soreness of the Chest, Throat, Side Back, Spine, Limbs or Joints, it will give relief. Rub it on freely with the hand or with a handkerchief until the skin becomes heated and burning.

For soreness of the throat rub it on until it produces a little soreness.

For Group use it in connection with the Cough Syrup, by rubbing it on the chest.

For Rheumatism and all deep seated pains, if the pain is not speedily removed by rubbing with the hand, lay a cloth wet with the liquid over the part affected, and pass a warm smoothing iron over it.

For Pains in the Breast, Side or Back, the same may be used.

For Tooth-ache, drop it on cotton, and apply it to the nerve of the tooth, also rub the gums and cheeks with it.

For Frosted Feet, apply the "Master of Pain" freely, and dry it in before the fire.

For Head-ache, rub it on the forehead.

It is called "Master of Pain." I did not give it this name—I don't like the name. When I first commenced making it it was without name or label. I made it and sold it by the ounce at my Drug Store, and had no idea then of making a business of it. Some who bought it called it "Master of Pain," and by this name it became known for many miles round. And finally, when I had a label printed I was compelled to adopt the name, for by that name it was known. After all, the name is not so very ridiculous, as would be the case if we had called it "Pain Expeller" or "Pain Remover."

Readers—try it—take a bottle with you—use it whenever occasion requires—give it a fair trial.

Prepared by W. E. SHRINER, Westminister Md. and for sale by H. C. Reamer and Adam Ferguson, Bedford Pa.; E. B. Ramsey, and Wm. Stutz & Co., Bloody Run; John Nyeum & Son, Fairview; D. A. T. Black, Rays Hill; N. N. Koons, Willow Grove; J. S. Shell, Shellsburg; F. D. Hoegle, St. Charlesville.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

NEW VOLUME. On the seventh of September, 1861, THE NEW-YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE commenced the twenty-first year of its existence. The DAILY TRIBUNE being some months older and the SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE somewhat younger. For more than twenty years, this journal has labored in what its conductors have felt to be the cause of Humanity, Justice and Freedom, endeavoring to meliorate the condition of the oppressed and unfortunate, to honor and encourage useful exertion in whatever sphere, and to promote by all means the moral, intellectual and material advancement of our country. It has aimed to be right rather than popular, and to espouse all causes to-day the truth that others pursue all tomorrow, in may not be willing to accept till to-morrow. In pursuing this course, mistakes have doubtless been made and faults committed; but, having in all things incited our readers to think and judge for themselves rather than adopt blindly our own or others' conclusions, we believe we may fairly claim for this journal the credit of having qualified its readers to detect and expose even its own errors. To develop the minds of the young by the most general, thorough and practical Education, and to encourage and stimulate Productive Industry, through free grants of Public Lands to actual settlers and cultivators, as also through the promotion of immature or peculiarly exposed branches from too powerful foreign competition, and among the aims to which this journal has adhered through good and evil report, and which it steadfastly continues to advocate, are the following:—

As to the Civil War now devastating our country, we hold it to be incited in a Rebellion more wanton, wicked, unexcusable, than was ever before known—a Rebellion in the interests of the few against the many, of the ignorant against the educated, of the selfish against the unselfish, of the chains of oppression. Having done all we could without a surrender of vital principles to avoid this War, and witnessed the forbearance, meekness, and long suffering with which the Federal Government sought to avert its horrors, we hold it our clear duty, with that of every other citizen, to stand by the nation and its fairly chosen rulers, and to second with all our energies their efforts to uphold the Union, the Constitution, and the supremacy of the Laws. And, though the Rebellion has become, through insurrection, deception, terrorism, and spoliation, fearfully strong, we believe the American Republic far stronger, and that the unanimous, earnest efforts of loyal hearts and hands will insure its overthrow. But on all questions affecting the objects, the scope, and the duration of the war, the TRIBUNE an honorable position, and our facilities contemporary. Our main object is and shall be to produce a comprehensive newspaper, from which a careful reader may gain a vivid and faithful history of the times, not merely in the domain of Action but in that of Opinion also. Our facilities for acquiring information increase with years, we trust that an improvement in the contents of our journal is perceptible, and that, in the variety and fulness of intelligence afforded, we may still hope to surpass each day a critic on the last. In this hope, we solicit a continuance of the generous measure of patronage hitherto accorded to our journal.

TERMS. DAILY TRIBUNE (311 issues per annum) $6 SEMI-WEEKLY (104 issues per annum) $3 WEEKLY (52 issues per annum) $2 To Clubs—Semi-Weekly: Two copies for $5; Weekly: Three copies for $5; and any larger number at the latter rate. For a club of twenty, an extra copy will be sent. For a club of forty we send THE DAILY TRIBUNE gratis one year.

Weekly: three copies for $5; eight copies for $10; and any larger number at the rate of $1.25 each per annum, the paper to be addressed to each subscriber. To clubs of Twenty we send an extra copy.

Twenty copies to an address for $20, with one extra to him who sends the order. For each club of one Hundred, THE DAILY TRIBUNE will be sent gratis for one year.

When drafts can be procured it is much safer than to remit Bank Bills. The name of the Post-Office and State should in all cases be plainly written.

Payment always in advance. Address: THE TRIBUNE, No. 154 Nassau St., New-York. Nov. 1, 1861.

NOTICE.

HAVING debts of our own to pay, we respect fully call upon all persons knowing themselves to be in our debt, to pay up—

This notice is not intended for those of our friends who pay us promptly, but especially for a certain large class, who having purchased our goods, never trouble themselves about paying for the same.

Many of the latter having had the use of our capital so long, must really imagine they have a right to it, and thus ourselves.

To this class we now say, in language which we hope they will not misunderstand—we used at least a portion of means in their hands—to meet our own liabilities—and if kind invitations to "pay up" avail not—we will try a harsher though unpleasant remedy—and that very shortly. READ! READ! READ!

WE the undersigned have used Roraback's Compound Chemical Soap, for washing clothes, and cheerfully recommend it to the families of Bedford as an article of indispensable utility, cleansing the clothes with one third the labor and time usually employed for the use of the common soap.

Mrs. ANNIE D. SHUCK, Mrs. LUCINDA MENDEL, " M. S. HARTLEY, " ELMIRA OYER, Mrs. MARY ELDERODE.

J. B. FARQUHAR is Agent for the sale of Family Wrights for the Borough of Bedford, and any family who wish to purchase a weight, will furnish with enough soap to give it a fair trial, and will give them a Family Wright gratis if he does not demonstrate the fact that the soap can be made at a cost of one cent per pound. Five pounds will put out a large washing, and by putting the clothes in the evening, they can be put out by 8 o'clock in the morning, thus saving three fourths of the day and a great deal of labor and sickness. Many families give from 50 to 75 cents per week, for washing, who, by this method can save from $20 to $30 per year. Don't fail to call soon. Bedford, Nov. 15, 1861.
