THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

NEW VOLUME. On the seventh of Septem-ber, 1861, THE NEW-RORK WEEKLY TRIB-UNE commenced the twenty-first year of its exis-tence: THE DAILY TRIBUNE being some months older and the SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE some-what younger. For more than twenty years, this journal has labored in what its conductors have felt to be the cause of Humanity, Justice and Free-den, and avarying the majorate the condition of the to be the cause of Humanity, Justice and Freedom, endeavering to meliorate the condition of the oppresses and unfortunate, to honor and encourage useful exertion in whatever sphere, and, to promote by all means the moral, intellectual and material advancement of our county. It has aimed to be right rather than popular, and to espuise and commend to-day the truth that others may not be willing to accept till to-morrow. In pursuing this course, mistakes have doubtless been made and faults committed; but, having in all things incited our readers to think and judge for themselves rather than adopt blindly our own or things incited our readers to think and judge for themselves rather than adopt blindly our own or others' conclusions, we believe we may fairly claim for this journal the credit of having qualified its readers to detect and expose even its own errors. To develop the minds of the young by the most general, thorough and practical Education, and to encourage and stimulate Productive industry, through free grants of Public Lands to actual settlers and cultivators, as also through the protection of immature or peculiarly exposed branches iron too powerful foreign competion, and among the aims to which this journal has adnered through good and evil report, and which it steadfastly commends to American patriotism and philantiropy. mends to American patriotism and philanthropy.

As to the Civil War new devastating our courtry, we hold it to have originated in a Rebellic more wanton, wicked, inexcusable, than was ever before known—a Rebellion in the interests of the few against the many—a Rebellion designed to raise higher the walls of caste and tighten the chains of oppression. Having done all we could without a surrender of vital principles to avoid this War, and winnessed the forbearance, meckness, and War, and withesed the forbearance, meekness, and long suffering with which the Federal Government sought to avert its horrors, we hold it our clear duty, with that of every other citizen, to stand by the nation and its fairly chosen rulers, and to second with all our energies their efforts to uphold the Union, the Constitution, and the supremacy of the Laws. And, though the Rebellion has become, the Laws. And, though the Rebellion has become, through usurpation, deception, terrorism, and spollation, fearfully strong, we believe the American Republic lar stronger, and that the unanimous, earnest efforts of loyal hearts and hands will insure its overthrow. But on all questions affecting the objects, the scope, and duration of this most extraordinary contest, we defer to those whom the American People have clothed with authority, helding unity of purpose and of action indispen-

American reope have clothed with authority, holding unity of purpose and of action indispensable in so grave an emergency.

In a crisis like the present, our columns must be largely engrossed with the current history of the War for the Union, and with elucidations of its more striking incidents. We shall not, however, and that attantion to Literature to more striking incidents. We shall not, however, remit that attention to Literature, to Foreign Affairs, to Agricultural Progress, to Crops, Markets, &c., &c., which has already, we trust, wen for THE TRIBUNE an honorable position among its cotemporaries. Our main object is and shall be to produce a comprehensive newspaper, from which a careful reader may gain a vivid and faithful history of the times, not merely it the domaine of Action but in that of Opinion also. As our facilities for acquiring information increase with years, we trust that an improvement in the contents of our journal is perceptible, and that, in the variety and fulness of intelligence afforded, we may still hope to amage each day a critic on the last." In this hope, we solicit a continuance of the generous measure of patronage hitherto accorded to our journal.

I will give you my experience with it, which you are at liberty to use if you think proper, some two years ago a box that was lost on the Pennsylvania Cough R. R. found its way to my store. opened the box and found it to contain your Balsamic Cough Syrup. I had never heard of it at that time but a Mr. Aughinbaugh from your state hap pened to be present and said it was one of the best cough remedies in use and happening to need a caugh medicine in my family I determined to give it a trial, and so well pleased was I with its effects that I gave bottles of it to my friends all of whom agree with me in pronouncing it the best cough remedy they have ever met with. We have used a for Coughs, Colds, Croup and Whooping Cough, and in every case it gave the most signal relief.—Yours truly, W. E. SHRINER-SIR: As you are about to intre

Yours truly, ADAM FERGUSON. I used in my family some of the Cough Syrup refered to by Mr. Ferguson, and fully concur in the opinion expressed by him.
