THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

NEW VOLUME. On the seventh of September, 1861, THE NEW-RORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE commenced the twenty-first year of its existence; THE DAILY TRIBUNE being some months older and the SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE someolder and the SEMI-WREKLY TRIBUNE some-what younger. For more than twenty years, this journal has labored in what its conductors have felt to be the cause of Humanity, Justice and Free-dom, endeuvering to meliorate the condition of the oppressed and unfortunate, to honor and en-courage useful exertion in whatever sphere, and, to promote by all means the moral, intellectual and material advancement of our country. It has aimed to be right rather than popular, and to es-pouse and commend to-day the truth that others have not be withing to accept till to-morrow. In nouse and commend to-day the truth that others may not be withing to accept till to-morrow. In pursuing this course, mistakes have doubtless been made and faults committed; but, having in all things incited our readers to think and judge for the state of the state themselves rather than adopt blindly our own or others' conclusions, we believe we may fairly claim for this journal the credit of having qualified its readers to detect and expose even its own errors. To develop the minds of the young by the most general, therough and practical Education, and to Administrators' Notice.

before known—a Rebellion in the Interests of the few against the many—a Rebellion designed to raise higher the walls of caste and tighten the chains of oppression. Having done all we could without a surrender of vital principles to avoid this War, and witnessed the forbearance, meekness, and long suffering with which the Federal Government sought to avert its horrors, we hold it our clear duty, with that of every other citizen, to stand by the parton and its fairly chosen rulers, and to see. the nation and its fairly chosen rulers, and to second with all our energies their efforts to uphold the Umon, the Constitution, and the supremacy of the Laws. And, though the Rebellion has become, through usurpation, deception, terrorism, and spoilation, fearfully strong, we believe the American Republic tar stronger, and that the recovery can Repu'lic far stronger, and that the ananimous, earnest efforts of loyal hearts and hands wi'l insure its overthrow. NOTICE.

HAVING debts of our own to pay, we respect fully call upon all persons knowing themselves to be in our debt, to pay up—

This notice is not intended for those of our friends who pay us promptly, but especially for a certain large class, who having purchased our goods, never trouble themselves about paying for Many of the latter having had the use of our capital so long, must really imagine they have a better right to it than ourselves.

To this class we now say, in language which we hope they will not mism erstand—we want at least a portion of means in their hands—to meet our own liabilities—and if kind invitations to "pay up" avail not—we will try a harsber though unpleasant remedy—and that very shortly.

BEDFORD Nov. 3, 1860 W. E. SHRINER-SIR: As you are about to intro duce your Balsamic Cough Syrup into our County-l will give you my experience with it, which you are at liberty to use if you think proper, some two years ago a box that was lost on the Pennsyl-vania Central R. R. found its way to my store. the box and found it to contain your Rales mic Cough Syrup. I had never heard of it at tha time but a Mr. Aughinbaugh from your state hap pened to be present and said it was one of the best cough remedies in use and happening to need a caugh medicine in my family I determined to give it a trial, and so well pleased was I with its effects that I gave bottles of it to my friends all of whom agree with me in pronouncing it the best cough remedy they have ever met with. We have used it for Coughs, Celds, Croup and Whooping Cough, and in every case it gave the most signal relief.—
