READ! READ! READ!

WE the undersigned have used Rorabach's Compound Chemical Soap, for washing clothes, and cheerfully recommend it to the families of Bedford as an article of indispensable utility, cleansing the clothes with one third the labor and time usually occupied by use of the common soap.

Mrs. ANNIE D. SHOCK, Mrs. LUCINDA MCKELLEN, Mrs. M. S. HANLEY, Mrs. EMILIA OVER, Mrs. MARY ELLIOTT.

J. B. FARQUHAR is Agent for the sale of Family Weights for the Borough of Bedford, and any who may wish to purchase a weight, he will furnish with enough soap to give it a fair trial, and will give them a Family Weight gratis if he does not demonstrate the use of the soap, can be made at a cost of one cent per pound. Five pounds will put out a large washing, and by putting the clothes to soak in the evening, they can be put out by 8 o'clock in the morning, thus saving three fourths of the day and a great deal of labor and sickness. Many families give from 50 to 75 cents per week, for washing, who, by this method can save from $20 to $30 per year. Don't fail to call soon. Bedford, Nov. 15, 1861.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

NEW YORK. On the seventh of September, 1861, THE NEW-YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE celebrated the twenty-first year of its existence. THE DAILY TRIBUNE being some months older and the SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE somewhat younger. For more than twenty years, this Journal has labored in what its conductors have felt to be the cause of Humanity, Justice and Freedom, endeavoring to meliorate the condition of the oppressed and unfortunate, to honor and encourage useful exertion in whatever sphere, and to promote by all means the moral, intellectual and material advancement of our country. It has aimed to be right rather than popular, and to expose and comment to-day the truth that others may not be willing to accept till to-morrow. In pursuing this course, mistakes have doubtless been made and faults committed; but, having in all things incited our readers to think and judge for themselves rather than adopt blindly our own or others' conclusions, we believe we may fairly claim for this Journal the credit of having qualified its readers to detect and expose even its own errors. To develop the mind of the young, by the most general, thorough and practical education, to encourage and stimulate Productive Industry, through free grants of Public Lands to actual settlers and cultivators, as also through the protection of immature or peculiarly exposed branches of our growing commerce, constitute the objects which we have had in view from the first to the last of our existence. As to the Civil War now devastating our country, we hold it to have originated in a Rebellion more vast, wicked, inaccessible, than was ever before known—a Rebellion in the interests of the few against the many—a Rebellion designed to raise higher the walls of caste and tighten the chains of oppression. Having done all we could without transgression of vital principles to avoid this War, and witnessed the barbarous, reckless, and long suffering with which the Federal Government sought to avert its horrors, we hold it our clear duty, with that of every other citizen, to stand by the nation and its fairly chosen rulers, and to second their every effort to suppress the Rebellion, and to uphold the Union, the Constitution, and the supremacy of the Laws. And, though the Rebellion has become, through usurpation, deception, terrorism, and spoliation, fearfully strong, we believe the American Republic far stronger, and that, in the variety and earnestness of loyal hearts and minds which its overthrow. But on all questions affecting the objects, the scope, and duration of this most extraordinary contest, we defer to those whom the American People have clothed with authority, holding unity of purpose and of action indispensable in no active emergency.

In a crisis like the present, our columns must be largely engrossed with the current history of the War for the Union, and with elucidations of its more striking incidents. We shall not, however, neglect efforts of loyal hearts and minds which its overthrow. But on all questions affecting the objects, the scope, and duration of this most extraordinary contest, we defer to those whom the American People have clothed with authority, holding unity of purpose and of action indispensable in no active emergency.

Dec. 9, 1859

NOTICE.

HAVING debts of our own to pay, we respectfully request all persons knowing themselves to be in our debt, to pay up. This notice is not intended for those of our friends who pay us promptly, but especially for a certain large class, who having purchased our goods, never trouble themselves about paying for the same.

Many of the latter having had the use of our capital so long, must really imagine they have a better right to it than ourselves. To this class we now say, in language which we hope they will not misunderstand, we need not repeat a portion of our former notices to meet our own liabilities—and if kind invitations to "pay up" avail not—we will try a harsher though unpleasant remedy—and that very shortly.
