KANSAS CITY, March 18.

Geo. T. Beale, bearer of despatches to Washington, brings advices from Santa Fe to the 31st inst. He confirms the previous accounts of the battle near Fort Craig on the 21st ult.

A large amount of Government stores at Albuquerque had been destroyed to prevent them from falling into the hands of the rebels. Four hundred and fifty Texans, with two pieces of artillery, entered Albuquerque on the 2d Major Donelson, commanding the district of Santa Fe...

On Monday, the 3d, Mr. Beale met three companies of Colorado Volunteers, under Lieutenant Colonel Tappan, at the Hole in the Rock, fifty miles north of Bentfort, on their way to Fort Union.

St. Louis, March 20. - A correspondent of the Republican, writing from the camp near Bent's Old Fort, New Mexico, March 6th, says: It is supposed that the rebels, after their victory near Fort Craig, will march directly on Santa Fe and Fort Union.

Col. Hugh's First Regiment of Colorado Volunteers left this camp yesterday, and will reach Fort Union by the 12th of March, in advance of the rebels.

Also that Capt. Lord's dragoons refused to obey the command to charge the enemy. The charge of the Texans on the battery is described as being brilliant and terrible.

SKIRMISH IN MISSOURI.

St. Louis, March 20. - Lieut. J. D. Jack, of the 1st Iowa Cavalry, with thirty men, on the 10th inst. encountered a band of marauders posted in a log house and barn in Lafayette county, Mo.

LATER FROM SHIP ISLAND - ARRIVAL OF GEN. BUTLER.

NEW YORK, March 20. - The steamship Fulton has arrived with Ship Island dates to the 13th inst.

LOYALTY IN TENNESSEE.

WASHINGTON, March 20. - The citizens of Gallatin, Tennessee, a town which had been decidedly disloyal, met in town meeting recently, and were addressed by Billis Peyton, Esq., a loyal man, and voted to petition for a post office there, expressing a willingness to return to their allegiance.

John Lillyet has been appointed postmaster at Nashville. He wrote some of the best articles against Secession during the agitation of that subject in Tennessee.

A special agent of the Post Office Department, acting on the Tennessee and Kentucky borders, reports as follows: "It is gratifying, wherever I have been to find there is a strong desire for the re-establishment of the mails, and a willingness among the people to return to their allegiance."

REBEL FLIGHT FROM THE POTOMAC.

WASHINGTON, March 20. - Three deserters from the rebel army lately at Aquia Creek arrived here this morning. They fully confirm the reports previously received of the evacuation of the place, the destruction of large quantities of commissary stores, together with the buildings of the railroad company and a large portion of the track.

The rebel force has fallen back on Frederickburg, on the Rappahannock, fifteen miles from Aquia Creek station, where they may make a stand. Our gunboats shelled their retreating forces, doing much damage to their baggage train.

St. Louis, March 20. - A correspondent of the Republican, writing from the camp near Bent's Old Fort, New Mexico, March 6th, says: It is supposed that the rebels, after their victory near Fort Craig, will march directly on Santa Fe and Fort Union.

More Good News From Burnside.

FORTRESS MONROE, March 23. - The steamer and Chancery Livingston arrived from Hatteras last night.

On the day that Gen. Burnside occupied Newbern, 16,000 rebel troops were on the road between Goldsborough and Newbern. A FEDERAL VICTORY NEAR WINCHESTER VIRGINIA.

A SKIRMISH ON SATURDAY.

WASHINGTON, March 23. - Telegraphic reports received from Winchester, dated last night at half past ten o'clock, says: "A slight skirmish occurred this afternoon, about a mile and a half from Winchester, on the Strasburg road, between a portion of Gen. Shields's troops and the rebel cavalry, with four pieces of artillery."

A prisoner, brought in to-night says the enemy were under the impression that our troops had left Winchester, and that Jackson's rebel forces were on the road from Strasburg, under the same impression.

A BATTLE AND VICTORY ON SUNDAY.

WINCHESTER, March 28. - 8 o'clock, P. M. - I have just come in from the very point of the battle, three miles out. A complete victory has been achieved over Jackson. We have taken two guns and caissons, and killed at least 100, and wounded twice as many.

LATER.

WINCHESTER, March 28. - 10 o'clock P. M. - We have, this day, achieved a glorious victory over the combined forces of the rebel Gens. Jackson, Smith and Longstreet.

RECOVERY OF THE REMAINS OF COL. CAMERON.

An expedition, says the Washington Chronicle, of the 15th inst., for the recovering of the body of Col. Cameron, 79th, Highlanders, who fell at the head of his regiment, at Bull Run, returned yesterday afternoon, having completely succeeded in the accomplishment of its purpose.

The explorers on this occasion were led to the spot by a negro of the neighborhood, who gave particulars of the burial, and when the party set about exhuming the body they found abundant evidence that they were not deceived.

THE MANNER OF McCULLOCH'S DEATH.

Concerning the death of McCulloch and McIntosh there seems to be but one opinion. - Both of them were mortally wounded on Friday, during the heavy fighting by Gen. Jeff. C. Davis against the center column of the enemy.

HOW M'INTOSH DIED.

It is reported that McIntosh was struck near the right hip with a grape shot, while giving an order to one of his aides, and hurled from his horse. The wound was a ghastly one, and though it must have been very painful, McIntosh uttered no groan, but calmly gave directions for his treatment.
