pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhiler-ating, and strengthening to the vital powers.

It also revivilies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnetable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted to as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence sooth the weakest stomach, of valure, and hence sooth the weakest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhibitating in its effects, and yet it is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never in jure. Such a remeay has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical science, and also by all who have suffered cal world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science, and also by all who have suffered from debility, for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and lays the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Inguarden system open to the attress of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of appetite, Faintness, Nervous irritability, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Melancholly, Bypocondria, Night Sweats, Laugner, Giddiness, and all that class of cases, so fearfully fatal it unattended to it time, called French Weokness and Bregularities. might enumerate many more still, but we have might enumerate many more still, but we have space only to say, it will not only cure the debility following Chills and Fever, but prevent all attacks anising from Miasmatic Influences, and cure the diseases at once, if all ready attacked. And as it acts directly and persistently upon the hillary aystem any single persistently upon the biliary system, arousing the Laver to action, promoting, in fact all the excretions and secretions of the system, it will intallibly prevent any deliterious consequences following upon change of climate and water; hence all travelers should have a bottle with them, and all should take a table spootful at least before eating. As it prevents costiveness, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the bands of all persons of sedentary babits, students, ministers, literary men. And all ladies not accustomed to much out door exercise should always use it. If they will they will find an agreeable, pleasant, and efficient remedy against those ills which rob them of their beauty; for beauty cannet exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue.

which rob them of their beauty; for beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist wile the above irregularities continue. Then again, the Cordial is a perfect Mother's Relief.
