THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC TO BE REORGANTHE Changes of Generals in the Army of the Potomac are not ended. It is said to be decided that General Sedgwick can profitably serve elsewhere, and that General Meade, likewise, rapidly approaches the termination of his command.

BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGA.

GENERAL SMITH'S OPINION OF GENERAL MC-CLEMAN.—The prevailing impression that General "Baldy" Smith is filled with what Count Gurewski calls "McClellanism" is entirely an error. He was among the first of the Generals on the Pennsula, after the collapse before Yorktown, to denue mee McClellan, officially and unofficially, as in-

THE TAX ON TOBACCO.-It is now quite sure that Secretary Chase's recommendation of a heavy tax on tobacco will be adopted. The opinion prevais in Treasury circles that a dollar or upward on apprits, and a correspondingly high tax on tobacco, will yield full one half of all the revenue we shall need, and to that extent the necessaries and comforts of high will be relived from burdens. forts of life will be relived from burdens.

The estimation put apon Jeff. Davis in North Carolina is shown by this observation in the late speech of Governor Vance. He said: "If the speech of Governor Wilkes) who had used every man in this country (Wilkes) who had u

MES. DOUGLAS.—It was denied some time sace that Mrs. Douglas was officiating as a clerk in the Treasury Pepartment. The Washington correspondent of the Wascosin says, howeve, "passing through the Treasury Department the other day, I met Mrs. Stephens A. Douglas, who is filling the duties of a twelve hundred dollar elerkship, in that department."

RUMORS CONCERNING McCLELLAN.—The town persists in crediting rumors that McClellan is to be placed in command of the defenses of Washington. The more enthusiastic of his friends are disposed to bet that General Grant came from the control of the defense of the control of the c front Friday the 21st ult., for the express purpose of insisting that McClellan be put at the head of the Army of the Potomae. Each set of these e: edulous friends is in error.

-HON. J. C. FAULKNER, ex Minister to France, —HON. J. C. FAULKNER, ex Junister to France, came as far as Winchester, with a view to coming within our lines and taking the oath. At Winchester he was met by his brother-in-law, who persuaded him from his purpose. The brother-in-law is strongly opposed to the Union Government authorities, because he was arrested a short time since and held as hostage for the safe and speedy return of a loyal citizen carried off by the rebels, named Dooley.

THE NEW LOAN.-There is the best authority for saying that no National Banking Association has yet received authority to receive subscriptions on account of the national ten-forty loan of two hundred milions. Letters are in preparation, however, and will be immediately forwarded to all the National Banking Associations which have been qualified and designated as depositories and financial agents, authorizing them to act as agents, in resolving subscriptions for the ten forty level.

and it is considered here a legitimate insons, and it is considered here a regimmate in-quiry why he permitted this woman to pass the enemy with her great quantity of contraband pro-perty, when he arrests all others.—Washington Correspondence of the New York Tribune.

THE TAX ON DISTILLED SPIRITS .- A Washington correspondent is authorized to state that the discordance of views in the Ways and Means Committee respecting the tax on distilled spirits have been harmonized, and that the policy of high taxation is rapidly making converts outside and inside been harmonized, and that the policy of high taxation is rapidly making converts outside and inside of their room. It is understood that a tax of not less than, a dollar will be laid on spirits, and that the Committee will recommend that this be laid to take effect in May instead of July. This will be done to cut off the two months rope given by the law, as it stands, to distillers to get a heavy stock on hand. It will obviate also the necessity of another wasteful debate over the question of taxing retroactively. The revenue has lost two millions and a half of dollars through the last wrangle.

The Catholac Press and Slavery.—At the outbreak of the Rebellion, Brownson's Quarterly Review was almost the only advocate of an Anti-Blavery policy among all the Catholic journals.—The great majority of them were voilently opposing every Anti-Slavery measure of the Governacht, and ateing in concert with the sultra Peace action of the Northern Democracy. But the progress of the war has wrought among them several conversions. The Cincinnati Telegraph, the ergan of Archbisop Purcell, was the first to come over to the Anti-Slavery party, and to admit and even to urge the necessity of abolishing Slavery throughout the United States. Its example has recently been followed by The Universe, the Catholic paper of Philadelphia, hitherto a violent Democrate and Anti-Administration sheet. In a late issue, this paper admits that the peace of the Republic demands the abolition of Slavery; that the lational current in favor of abolition grows steadily stronger and has become irresistible, and that it would be absurd to attempt to oppose it. It therefore gives Irish Democrats the sensible advocace of the control of the Wenger the confully what they are unable to so we have the conversioner of the control of the Wenger the conversioner. THE CATHOLIC PRESS AND SLAVERY. -At the to accept cheerfully what they are unable to addo. We note the conversions as signs of the times.—New York Tribune.

Quite a stampede has taken place among the officers who have frequented Washington during the winter, nearly all having been imperatively ordered to the front. Very few are now coming in, no furicaghs being granted except in cases of great importance.

The Speculation in Gold.—It is understood in Washington that if there is delay in breaking down the gold speculators in Wall street, by letting fall upon them the surpluscoin inthe Treasury, it is only because the enemies of the Gold bill succeeded by their amendments in disabling Mr. Chase from present action. Let them wait swhile.

AID AND COMPORT POR THE ENEMY.—It is stated in best-informed circles that Mrs. J. Todd White, the sister of Mrs. Lincoln, did pass through our lines for Richmond via Fortress Monroe, with three large trunks containing medicines and merchandise, so that the chuckling of the Rebel press over her safe transit with Rebel uniforms and buttons of gold was founded in truth. General Butler is not wont to be a "respector of persons," and it is considered, here a leading to the provisions of an Act of Assembly, directing the mode of selling unsented lands for taxes and for other purposes, passed the 13th of March, 1815, and the supplements thereto passed the 12th day of March, 1817, and the 25th o
