Washington, January I, 1864. Gentlemen.—Having stated it verbally to you, J bave no hesitation, in writing the fact, that I experienced marks-ed benefit from your Hoofand's German Bitters. During a long and tedicous session of Congress, pressing and oner-ons duties nearly prostrated me. A kind friend saggest-ed the use of the preparation I have rained. I took his advice, and the result was improvement of health, renew-ed energy, and that particular relief P ap much needed and obtained. Others may be similarly advantaged if they desire to be. THE GREAT SANITARY FAIR .- Preparations are going forward vigorously for the great sanitary Fair to be held in Phila., in a few weeks. The temporary buildings are rapidly going up on Logan Square. the broad and extensive avenues of which will all be ocupied for this purpose. We notice one of the principal bridge-builders in the country on the ground, showing that every effort is to be made to provide safe, substantial and commodious accomodations.

In order to give some idea of the extent of the undertaeing, we would say that this groat Fair embraces eighty-one committees, each of which aplargest of these committee is the one on labor, inone day's "income " or one day's "revenue" from each person, not only in this State, but also in the States of New Jersey and Delaware. The names ring, as well as agricultural. All who wish to faeilitate the work of this committee, and help to not the oase. make this Fair a grand success, are refered to the advertisement. - American Presbyterian.

THE QUOTAS OF BEDFORD COUNTY .--- We publish this week a list of the quotas, credits and number of men yet to be furnished by Bedford county. The total number is six hundred and ninety-four. It is claimed however that our credit has not been given to several of the townships. The apparent deficiency, may, therefore be considerably reduced. We see it stated in the papers that a draft has been ordered for the State of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and we think Maryland. The official publica tion of this list at this time, in our columns looks like getting ready for it.

THE GREAT CENTRAL FAIR. Our readers should not overlook the advertisements of "the Great Central Fair," given on another page. The fair it will be seen is to be held in Philadelphia on the first week in June in aid of the United States Saaitary Commission. We have not heard that any considerable contributions have yet been made in the county, for the fair." If any thing, fitting and creditable to the county is to be accomplished in the matter, immediate and united effort will have to be made.
