-The chief secret of comfert lies in not suffering to vex one, and in prudently cultivating an under growth of small ple asares, since very few great ones are let on long leases...

PRICE OF BUTTER. -The best butter is down to 35 cents a pound in Providence, R. I., where it has been selling for fifty cents. Butter sells at Montreal at 18 cents a pound, and lard at 8 and 9. At Syracuse and Oswego, butter sells at 29 cents per pound.

WESTERN WHEAT CROPS.—The injury to the crops by "winter lingering in the lap of spring" has not praved as serious as anticipated, and the Western ernals speak encouragingly of a crop averaging from half to three-fourths the usual average.

-One of the hardest sort of people was asked to subscribe to some worthy object. "I can't," he replied ; "I must be just before I am generous."-'Well," said the one who made the request, "let me know just before you are generous, and I'll try you again."

-WISDOM .- Every other quality is subordinate and inferior to wisdom, in the same'sense as the mason who lays the brick and stones in a building is inferior to the architect who drew the plan, and superintends the work. The former executes only what the latter contrives and directs.

Bugs. - As the season of bugs approaches, it will be well to bear in mind the advice of the Country Gene tleman. Housekeepers not desirous of being carried. out of the world by bugs, will be glad to learn that they cannot stand hot alum water. Take two pounds of alum, bruise it, and reduce it to powder; dissolve it in three quarts of water; let it remain in a warm place till the alum is dissolved. The alum water is to be applied hot, by means of a brush, to every joint and crevice. Brush the crevices in the floor, whitewash the ceiling, putting in plenty of alum, and there will be an end to their dropping thence.

Power of Imagination.-A Vienna jour nal records a new instance of the extraordinary power of the imagination. A medical man, with the perm ission of the authorities, proposed to a notorious criminal undergoing punishment in one of the city gaols, that he should be pardoned, provided he consented to sleep in the bed of a patient who had just died of cholera. The man, thinking cholera a contagiou disease, hesitated some time, but at last consented on the promise being made that if he were attacked every possible means of saving him should be em-ployed. In a few hours after being placed in bed, the prisoner had a regular attack of cholera.-The usual treatment was applied, and he recovered, owing, however, in no small degree, to the extraordinary strength of his constitution. The man's astonishment was unbounded on being told that his attack of cholera was entirely owing to imagination, the bed in which he had been placed not having been occupied by a cholera patient.

CATHARINE II. OF RUSSIA .- I was enthusiastically fond of music, but she was far from being so; and Prince Daschkaw, though with some taste for it, was as little of a performer as the Empress. She was nevertheless fond of hearing me sing; and sometimes, when I had done, secretly passing a sign across to Prince Daschkaw, she would gravely propose a duet, weich she would call the music of the spheres, and which (without either of them knowing how to sing a note,) they both performed in concert. A sudden burst of the most exalted and ridiculously discordant tones was the consequence; and seconding the other, with scientific shrugs, and all the solemn, self-complacent airs and grimaces of musicians .-From this, perhaps, she passed to the cat-concert, and imitated the purring of poor puss in the most droll and ludicrous manner-always taking care to add appropriate half comic, half sentimental words. which she invented for the occasion : or else, spitting like a cat in a passion, with her back up, she sudden ly boxed the first person in her way, making up her hand into a paw, and mewing so outrageously, that instead of the great Catharine, nothing but the wrongs of a grimalkin remained upon one's mind .-Memories of the Princess Daschkaw.

EMPTY BOTTLES NAVIGATING THE OCEAN. - Captain Beecher, editor of the English Nautical Magazine, has complied within the last ten years the following carious voyages of bottles thrown into the sea by unfortunate navigutors. A good many bottles thrown into the sea next to the African coast found their way to Europe. One bottle seems to have anticipated the Panama route, having traveled from the Panama Isthmus to the Irish coast. Anand the Atlantic from the Cana va Scotia. Three or four bottles thrown into the sea by Greenland mariners of Davis' Straits, landed on the northwest coast of Ireland. Another one made a very curious trip, it swam from the South Atlantic Ocean to the west coast of Africa, passed Giberalter went along the Portuguese coast of France, and was finally picked up on Jersey Island. One bottle was found after sixteen years' swimming, one after fourteen, and two after ten. A few only traveled more than one year, and one only five days. This was sent off by the Captain of the Race Horse, on the 17th of April in the Carribean Sea, and was found on the 22d, after having gone through three degrees longitude (210 miles), western direction. Captain McClure, of the investigator, threw a bottle into the sea i 1850, on his way to Berring's Strait. It swam 3.600 miles in two hundred days, and was picked up on the Honduras const

SEPARATION OR SUBMISSION .- General Siekles made a lengthy and able speech at Chicago, while passing through that city, a few days since, from which we make the following eloquent and striking quotation :

Separation! my countrymen, separation is warendless war, and the decline and fall of the Republic. Peace! union is peace; union is the perpetuation of our free institutions; union makes us one as a Repub lie, one as Americans. This peace, this union, we all hoped in the earlier days of the war would be possible through the return of reason to the South, through a perception of the imposibility and recklessness of resisting the United States, that would compel submission to the lawful authority of the United States Government.

These hopes, however, proved illusive. This peace! What is it? It is said we are exacting submis. sion. Submission to what? To the Constitution of the United States - submission to the constitutionally expressed will of the majority of the people of the NAILS, GLASS, &c. TUBS, BUCKETS, WASHING United States-submission to the Government that up to the moment when this Rebellion drew its sword and fired its first gun, had never inflicted a greivance apon any man south of Mason and Dixon's line. (Cheering.) Submission? Yea. To what? To a Government that the statesmen south of Mason and Dixon's line were conspicuous in influencing and in forming, and conducting, and ruling down to the hour of the Rebellion.

When do we hear from the South a word about peace except it's accompanied by the condition of peace except it is accompanied by the condition of separation? To the honor of the North be it said, that few, very few, are so lost to what is due to their country as to tolerate the idea of separation and peace (Applause) The armies of the Union that are in the front to-day were not summoned to the field for any such degradation as that. (Loudcheering.) I would, not envy the fate of that statesman, the leader of that party, who would, if they had the power, make a peace which involved the separation of these United States, when that gallant army came home to confront such traitors.

States, when that gallant army came home to confront such traiters.

Now. and for the future, the only peace that is possible is the peace that is to be conquerd, (Cheering.) It is a peace to be won and preserved by battalions, by skilful Generals, by wise statesmen, by the constant, steadfast, loyal people; that peace will be honorable; it will be permanent; that peace will sive to us a republic which our fathers intended we should have, a republic altogether wholly and forever free.

HE WORLD:

An Independent Democratic Daily, Semi-Weekly, and Weekly Newspaper. UNION OF THE WORLD AND ARGUS.

THE WORLD, to which the New York Weekly Argus has been united, has to-day five times the aggregate circulation of any Democratic or conservative newspaper. It addresses weekly alone more than 100,000 subscribers and constant purchasers, and reaches at least half a million readers. With the steady increase in circulation which it now enjoys, these numbers will soon be doubted. Nothing, less than this should satisfy those who believe that the only hope of restoring the Union and the authority of the Constitution ever a new distracted and divided country, lies in wreeting power from the hands of those whose families in wreeting power from the hands of those whose families in wreeting power from the hands of those whose families in streeting power from the hands of those whose families in wreeting power from the hands of those whose families in wreeting power from the hands of those whose families in wreeting power from the hands of those whose fatigates and the strength of the working men, and they or so the diffusion, through able and enterprising newspapers, of sound political knowledge among the working men, the thinking men, and they oring men of the North.

Enterprise, industry, and mency will be liberally expended the make THE WORLD the BEST NEWSPAPER in AMERICA. Its news from every part of the world will be early and authentic. Wherever the telegraph extends, or railroads run, or steamboats ply, it will gather the latest intelligence. It has a large staff of accomplished correspondents with all the federal armies, who will telegraph and write tous the latest news from the various scats of war. It has correspondents and reporters in every political and commercial centre in America and Europe, whose letters and dispatches will leave nothing worthy of note unknown to its readers.

The market reports of the WORLD are more complete UNION OF THE WORLD AND ARGUS.

rious scats of war. It has correspondents and reporters in every political and commescial centre in America and Europa, whose letters and dispatches will leave nothing worthy of note unknown to its readers.

The market reports of the WOLLD are more complete than those of any other newspaper. The Editors invite comparison in this respect and point to the reports of the Cattle Markets, the general and country produce markets, and the money market in its columns, as proof of its excellence in this respect. The WORLD has also a special department devoted to Agriculture, filled with editorial articles, communications from practical farmers, and selected matter, making a valuable and useful paper, for the Farmers and Mechanies of the country.

The war in which the nation is engaged against armed and infatuated Rebels, and the radical policy of the administration which prolongs it, have conspired to bring together upon one platform all conservative, Union-loving, and Constitution, fought the battles of the balled box finder the leadership of those patriotic statesmen of other and better days. Henry Clay and Daniel Webster, together with the masses whose principles were those of such patriots as Andrew Jackson and William L. Marcy, Silas Wright and Stephen A. Douglas, now stand shoulder to shoulder upon the same platform and under the same banner. The platform is a plain one. It is to restore the Union, maintain the Constitution, and enforce the Laue. Whatever makes for this end, the exercise of force or the policy of conciliation. THE WORLD will oppose.

It will oppose every violation of the Constitution, which is the only hope and bond of Union, and our only authority for exhorting or compelling the allegiance of the South. It will oppose every infraction of the Law, in high places or in low, by reckless and misguided partisans, or by the administration which has been their example.

It will oppose every infraction of the Law, in high places or in low, by reckless and misguided partisans, or by the administration of ernment, by the resistless decision of the ballot.

Profoundly impressed with the desire to contribute al that it may to the great work of this generation—namely to restore our national unity, and to place the United State again foremost among the nations of the earth, and first the processors are successful to the processors. in the peace, prosperity and happiness of its people.— THE WORLD seeks from those who desire such thing their sympathy and support, and above all, the favor of Him who crowns every good work.

STOMACH BITTERS.

A pure and powerful Tonic, corrective and alternative of wonderful efficacy in disease of the STOMACHH LIVER AND BOWELS.

Curos Dyspopsia, Liver complaint, Headacha, General debilily, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Gramps and Spaams, and all Complaints of either Sex, arising from Bodily Weakness whether inherent in the system or produced by special Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Cramps and Spaints, and all Complaints of either Sex, arising from Bodily Weakness whether inherent in the system or produced by special causes.

Nothing that is not wholesome, genial and restorative in its nature enters into the composition of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but it is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herba and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

It is well to be forearmed against disease, and so far as human system can be protected by human means against maladies engendered by an unwholesome atmosphere, impure water and other external causes, Hostetter's Bitters may be relied on as a staguard.

In districts infested with Feer and Ague, it has been down infallible as a preventive and irresistable as a remedicine. Fever and Ague patients, after being piled with Automach shore courges and thousands who neglect to avail themselves of its protective qualities in advance, are cured by a very brief course of this marvelous medicine. Fever and Ague patients, after being piled with that dangerous alkaloid, and not unfrequently restored to health within a few days by the use of Hostetter's Bitters.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated and the appetitic restored by this agreeable Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dispepsia and in less confirmed forms indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperients, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constitutional Meakness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and perimental relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is most conclusive, and from both sexes.

The agony of Billious Colic is immediately assuaged by a single dose of the stimulant, and by occasionally resorting to it, the return of the complaint may be prevented. As a general Tonic, Hostetter's Bitters produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be
