The females of some of the Indians tribes, in order to keep silence, fill their mouths with water. Our women fill theirs with tea, and gossip more than ever.

THE vicissitudes attending the lives and families of actors are very great. A halfsister of Edmund Kean is a member of a strolling company in the midland counties of England. John Kemble had his days of starvation, when he was unable to get his shirts from his laundress for want of a shilling.

DURING the thunder storm which passed over Western New York on the 25th ultimo Mr. Chas. Barrick and two other men at work with him, at Lyons, Wayne county, were prostrated by the lightning, and little hope is entertained of their recovery. Several horses and cows were killed in that vicinity.

SHOT FROM BEHIND.—The rebel papers state that Stonewall Jackson and other of their generals were shot by their own men. This is ominous. No such accidents—if they were accidents—ever happened in our army. Robespierre was guillotined by the very men he had deluded into revolution. Let Jeff. Davis take care.—New York Herald.

GOING TO SEA IN A COCKLE-SHELL.—Mr. John C. Donovan of New York has built a craft fifteen feet long, six feet six inches wide, and two feet ten inches deep, which he calls "the brig Vision," It is now lying at the foot of Grand street, East river, and in a few days he intends to start for London in this tiny craft. The probabilities are that he will get wet.

A colonel of one of the regiments attached to the army of the Potomac, was recently complaining at an evening party, that, from the ignorance and inattention of the officers he was obliged to do the whole duty of the regiment. Said he: "I am my own major, my own captain, my own lieutenant, my own sergeant, and"—"Your own trumpeter," said a lady present.

Two gentlemen were riding in a stage coach, when one of them, misplacing his hankerchief, rashly accused the other of having stolen it; but soon finding it, had the good manners to beg pardon for the affront, saying it was a mistake; to which the other replied, with great readiness, "Don't be uneasy, it was a mutual mistake: you took me for a thief, and I took you for a gentleman."

THE HOWARD Tribune tells the following story of the marriage of an eloping couple from Russiaville, at New London, the other day:

The bride's father arrived on horseback with several other cavalry, and after some skirmishing, secured his daughter, and started off with her. The groom pursued and retook the prisoner, winning a double victory.

LIEUT. MANUS, of the 10th U. S. Infantry, recently met with a sad rebuff at Fort Kearney. The Lieutenant was promenading in full uniform one day, and approached a volunteer on sentry, who challenged him with "Halt! who comes there?" The Lieutenant, with contempt in every lineament of his face, exclaimed indignantly, "Ass!" The sentry's reply, apt and quick, came, "Advance, Ass, and give the countersign."

The following dialogue is said to have taken place recently between a married couple on their travels; —"My dear, are you comfortable in that corner?"—"Quite, thank you, my dear." "Sure there's plenty of room for your feet?" "Quite sure, love." "And no cold air from the window by your ear?" "Quite certain, darling." "Then, my dear, I'll change places with you."

QUEEN VICTORIA.—It has been a matter of common observation, the world over, that mothers were biassed to their married daughters, and against their daughters-in-law. This has been exemplified in the case of the present sovereign of Great Britian, if we may believe her subjects. In the present embroilments of Europe, it is said she sympathizes with her daughter, who is identified with Prussia. This is not pleasent to the Prince of Wales, who married into the family of the king of Denmark; nor to the people of England, who are mainly in sympathy with the Danes, and who would fight for them, were they not in vassalage to France.

THE GOOD AND HAPPY WIFE.—The deep happiness in her heart shines out in her face. She is a ray of sunlight in the house. She gleams all over it. It is airy, and graceful, and warm and welcoming with her presence. She is full of devices, and plots, and sweet surprises for her husband and family. She has never done with the poetry and romance of life. She is herself a lyric poem setting herself to all pure and gracious melodies. Humble household ways and duties have for her a golden significence. The prize makes the calling high, and the end dignifies the means. Her home is a paradise, not sinless, not painless, but still a paradise: for 'Love is Heaven and Heaven is love.'

AMONG the many articles of interest to be exhibited at the Pittsburg Sanitary Fair is a piano once the property of General Washington, now belonging to a gentleman of Barnesville, Ohio, who has lent it for exhibition. The piano was ordered from London by Washington for Mrs. Curtis, a member of his family, and remained at Mount Vermin until the estate passed into the hands of John A. Washington, according to the General's will. John A. Washington presented it to his wife's sister, Miss Blackburn, who offered it for sale, devoting the proceeds to the benefit of the Liberia Mission. It was purchased at the sale by Major William Hickman, of Jefferson county, Virginia, and was brought from Virginia by his daughter, Mrs. Coulson Davenport, of Barnesville, Ohio.

A SOLDIER of the 11th Massachusetts regiment writes home from the Finly Hospital, in Washington that, during the battle of the Wilderness, one bullet hit the lock of his gun, a second went through his pantaloons, a third penetrated his hat, killing the man in the rank behind him, and a fourth hit him about two inches above the nose, and gave him, as he says, his hospital furlough. This is the third time the same man has been wounded during the war—twice very severely; and his son, who has fought by his side always, and never had even a scratch, has always assisted his wounded father to the rear. The old man says:—"All the good luck in the family has fallen to the share of my boy, a fact that I am too grateful to Providence to complain of."

SCENE MATRIMONIAL—WIFE TRIUMPHANT—"Can you let me have money this morning to purchase a new bonnet, my dear?"

"By and by love."

"That's what you always say, my dear, but how can I Buy and Buy without money?"

And that brought the money just as one good turn deserves another. Her wit was so successful that she tried again next week.

"I want money, my dear, to buy a new dress."

"Well you can't have it, you called me a bear last night, said her husband.

"Oh, well" dear, you know that was only because you are fond of hugging."

"It hit him just right again, and she got the money and something extra, as he left his pretty wife and hurried off to business saying, "It takes a fortune to keep such a wife as you are—but it is worth it!"

DEATH OF WILLIAM BEGG A NEPHEW OF ROBERT BURNS.—We are sorry to hear that our old friend, William Begg, departed this life at the residence of Dr. Cole, Clinton, on Saturday last. Mr. Begg, who was sixty-eight or sixty-nine years of age at the time of his disease, was the son of Burns' sister Isabella, well known to every reader of the poet's biographies. He received a liberal education, being intended for the medical profession, but owing to a domestic affliction, he never took out his diploma. Coming out to Canada, he taught school many years, in Goderich township, until he was compelled, through physical infirmity, to the retreat offered him by the noble-hearted Dr. Cole. Mr. Begg inherited much of the peculiar genius of his family, was a great lover of belles lettres, and by the uniform affability of his deportment won for himself a great number of friends in the district. He lived and died unmarried. Peace to the ashes of the kind-hearted old man!—Goderich Signal.

THE BRAVE EAST TENNESSEANS.—My Countrymen! my heart yearns toward you; I love you; I am one of you. I have climbed yonder mountains that you have climbed—yonder mountains rock-ribbed and glowing in the sunshine—in whose gorges, in whose caverns, your sons, hunted like wild beasts, have fallen to rise no more. I do not speak of these things to draw your tears. It is not the time for tears, but for blows. I speak of them that I may fire your heart with holy indigation, and nerve your arms for unconquerable fight. And I speak of them because the mountains seem to talk to me. My home is among the mountains, and though it is not far away, I cannot go to it. It is the place where I met her, and loved her, and married her who is the mother of my children. Do I not love the mountains then? And if liberty is to expire, if freedom is to be destroyed, if my country, in all its length and breadth, is to tramble beneath the oppressors' tread, let the flag, the dear old flag, the last flag, be planted on yon rocky heights; and upon it let there be this inscription: "Here is the end of all that is dear to the heart and sacred to the memory of man."—Andy Johnson's speech at Knoxville, last week.

To the Union Men of Bedford County.

Since David Over has undertaken to establish a new paper in this Borough, a considerable interest has been manifested to know the terms of the agreement in regard to the sale of the INQUIRER. Over, we are informed, is endeavoring to excite a sympathy towards himself, by representing that he was compelled to sell out his newspaper establishment—that we "held the lash over him," and threatened to start an opposition paper if he did not sell out to us. Neither of these statements are true. We heard from different parties in Harrisburg and in Washington City, about the middle of last winter, that the Bedford INQUIRER could probably be purchased. We came to Bedford soon after hearing this. We immediately sought out Mr. Over, and on our first interview with him he offered to sell the INQUIRER to us for three thousand dollars. Not a word was said by either of us about starting another paper. This was a large sum larger than we expected to pay. A good deal of dissatisfaction at Mr. Over's course as an editor was expressed to us, and every leading Union man in the County, with one or two exceptions, who could be consulted in regard to the matter, advised us to establish a new paper; peomising us the united support of the Tnion party in this County. We did not favor the ideo of starting another paper, but strongly opposed it. It was represented to us on every hand that Over, by his conduct, had forfeited the confidence of the party he professed to act with. He had no claims, they all said, either upon the party or the community for further support. They regarded his price as an attempt at extortion, which ought not to be submitted to. Over had offered the INQUIRER a few months before for two thousand dollars. While the matter was still pending, some forty of the most active Union men of the County signed a paper, representing to Mr. Over that the good of the Union party required the transfer of his paper to some other person than himself. This had no effect in reducing the price asked, and an agreement was finally made between us, by which Over received the full amount he asked at first; namely, three thousand dollars.—We were and are satisfied with having paid that sum. The material in the establishment was not worth over six hundred dollars. It was the business and the location that we paid so much for. Over himself has repeatedly told different parties that it was the business and good will of his establishment that made it so valuable. The types were worthless, and nothing but a few old cases and stands were of any value.—We have purchased over eight hundred dollars worth of printing material since we took possession. This man Over, we hear, represents that there is an understanding between us. Of course such stuff is false and absurd. There is no understanding between us. If he succeeds, it must be done by dividing the party, and at the expense and injury of the INQUIRER. He has no right to print a paper here. He might as well take our press and types, as to take the business, if he can get it, which he has sold to us. It is gratifying for us to state in conclusion that he is not receiving any support worth anything from the Union men of Bedford County. The movement, we believe, is condemned everywhere by good citizens of all parties. We append, for the information of our readers, a copy of the article of agreement made between David Over and the present publisher of this paper:

ARTICLES of agreement made and concluded this sixteenth day of February, A. D., eighteen hundred and sixty-four, between David Over, of Bedford Borough, on the one part, and B. F. McNeil, of Binghamton, N. Y., of the other part, witnesseth, That the said David Over, for and in consideration of the sum of three thousand dollars, lawful money of the United States, to be paid and secured to be paid by said B. F. McNeil, as hereinafter mentioned, hath granted, bargained, and sold and by these presents doth grant, bargain and sell that certain newspaper establishment now in possession of J. R. Durborrow, known as the Bedford Inquirer, including press, types, cases, imposing stones, and all other personal property of every description belonging to or connected therewith, all which the said David Over covenants, promises and agrees to and with the said B, F. McNeil to transfer and deliver into the possession of the said B. F. McNeil, on the first day of April next ensuing the date hereof, in as good order and condition as the same now are, and the said David Over further agrees to deliver over to said B. F. McNeil, in connection with said establishment, the subscription lists and files of newspapers belonging thereto in the office, and not including files in Over's house, together with the GOOD WILL of him the said David Over. In consideration whereof the said B. F. McNeil covenants, promises, grants and agrees to and with the said David Over, to pay him, the said David Over, his executors, administrators and assigns, the said sum of three thousand dollars, in manner following, to wit: One thousand dollars on the delivery of the property above transferred and sold and the balance in two equal annual payments of one thousand dollars, viz: one thousand dollars on the first day of April, A. D., 1865, and one thousand dollars on the first day of April, A. D., 1866, to be secured by judgment notes to be executed and delivered by said B. F. McNeil on receipt of said property, * * * * * said notes to be left in the possession of John Cessna, Esq., until first of April next and then to be delivered to said David Over. Witness our hands and seals the day and year first above written.

BANNVART'S TROCHES,

For the cure of Hoarseness, Throat Diseases, &c., are especially recommended to Ministers, Singers and persons whose vocation calls them to speak in public.

Read the following

TESTIMONIALS,

From some of our Eminent Clergymen.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 8th, 1864.

C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges and other preparations for hoarseness and Throat Troubles, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of Hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of need most effectually.

Yours truly,
T. H. ROBINSON,
Pastor N. S. Presbyterian Church.

HARRISBURG, Jan., 1864.

To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some gentle expectorant, and that want has been supplied in your excellent Troches. I consider them very far superior to any Lozenger that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from its too frequent use, and impairing the effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses.

Yours, &c.,
JNO. WALKER JACKSON,
Pastor of the Locust Street Methodist Church.

To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir:—Having used your Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried, and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with sore throat or huskiness of voice arising from public speaking or singing.

Yours, &c.,
G. G. RAKESTRAW,
Pastor of Ridge Avenue Methodist Church.

☞ I agree with Mr. Robinson as to the value of Bannvart's Troches. W. C. CATTELL,

HOSTETTER'S
Celebrated
STOMACH BITTERS.

A pure and powerful Tonic, corrective and alternative of wonderful efficacy in disease of the STOMACHH LIVER AND BOWELS.

Cures Dyspepsia, Liver complaint, Headache, General debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Cramps and Spasms, and all Complaints of either Sex, arising from Bodily Weakness whether inherent in the system or produced by special causes.

Nothing that is not wholesome, genial and restorative in its nature enters into the composition of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but it is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants

It is well to be forearmed against disease, and so far as human system can be protected by human means against maladies engendered by an unwholesome atmosphere, impure water and other external causes, Hostetter's Bitters may be relied on as a safeguard.

In districts infested with Fever and Ague, it has been found infallible as a preventive and irresistable as a remedy, and thousands who resort to it under apprehension of an attack, escape the scourges and thousands who neglect to avail themselves of its protective qualities in advance, are cured by a very brief course of this marvelous medicine Fever and Ague patients, after being plied with quinine for months in vain, until fairly saturated with that dangerous alkaloid, and not unfrequently restored to health within a few days by the use of Hostetter's Bitters.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated and the appetite restored by this agreeable Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dispepsia and in less confirmed forms indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperients, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is most conclusive, and from both sexes.

The agony of Billious Colic is immediately assuaged by a single dose of the stimulant, and by occasionally resorting to it, the return of the complaint may be prevented.

As a general Tonic, Hostetter's Bitters produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay and Debility and Decreptitude arising from Old Age, it exercises on electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is The Only Safe Stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innoxious materials, and entirely free from the acid elements present more or less in in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

No family medicine has been so universally, and it may be truly added, deservedly popular with the intelligent portion of the community, as Hostetter's Bitters.

Prepared by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburg.

Sold by all Druggists, Grocers and Storekeepers everywhere.
