

THE PRESIDENT-GONE TO THE ARMY.

Departure of President Lincoln on a Visit to General Grant—Gen. Grant's True Plans—Official Statement of the National Debt.

WASHINGTON, June 21. THE PRESIDENT'S DEPARTURE FOR GEN. GRANT'S HEADQUARTERS.

The United States dispatch boat, Captain Mitchell, left the Navy Yard to-day, with President Lincoln and the Assistant Secretary of the Navy for City Point.

It is understood that Mr. Lincoln and Assistant Secretary Fox have gone to the front to consult upon the future programme of the campaign.

For the first time since crossing the Rapidan the real plan of General Grant for recovering Richmond is growing manifest. It was never his intention to enter Richmond from the North, unless the unforeseen chances and contingencies of battle should make it an easy conquest.

Nature and art have exhausted themselves in making it impracticable from that direction, and General Grant was well advised of this at the outset. But the army was on the Rappahannock when he assumed the general command, confronted by the rebel army withdrawn from there, and transported his army by water from Washington to this place, which he rarely wasted, to have made another demonstration on Washington and the Upper Potomac.

It was considered best to drive the rebel army before us to Richmond, if it could not be destroyed sooner; for its destruction instead of the capture of one or many rebel capitals is the grand objective purpose. To do this effectually, by compelling it to retreat from Richmond on a line of their own selection, the destruction of the railroad through Gordonsville to the westward becomes an important consideration.

While the capture of Petersburg is an accomplished fact the Danville Railroad is the only one that connects the rebel capital with the Southern Confederacy. The width of track on this road is said to differ from all other Southern railroads, and will prevent the withdrawal of rolling stock.

This road can be easily threatened, or even destroyed, from Petersburg so that the rebel Government will feel that Richmond is held by a very slight tenure. The loss of Petersburg is the virtual surrender of Richmond.

A glance at the map will convince the most unbelieving of this. Our communications will be unimpeded, and their lines of retreat, if any, will be cut off. The rebel Government will feel that Richmond is held by a very slight tenure. The loss of Petersburg is the virtual surrender of Richmond.

It is not to be expected that they will all be through by Thursday of next week. In answer to a resolution of the House the Secretary of the Treasury furnished a statement of the public debt of the United States up to June 14, 1864, the totals of which are as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Description of debt items and Amount. Includes items like 'Debt bearing interest in coin', 'Debt bearing interest in lawful money', etc.

BANNVART'S TROCHES, For the cure of Hoarseness, Throat Diseases, &c., are especially recommended to Ministers, Singers and persons whose vocation calls them to speak in public. Read the following TESTIMONIALS.

From some of our Eminent Clergymen. HARRISBURG, Feb. 28th, 1864. C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges and other preparations for hoarseness and Throat Troubles, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully recommend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of Hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of need most effectually. Yours truly, T. H. ROBINSON, Pastor N. S. Presbyterian Church, HARRISBURG, Jan. 1864.

To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some good expectorant, and that want has been supplied in your excellent Troches. I consider them very far superior to any Lozenges I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from too frequent use, and impairing the effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses. Yours truly, JNO. WALKER JACKSON, Pastor of the Locust Street Methodist Church, HARRISBURG, Jan. 1864.

HOSSETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH LIVER AND BOWELS.

A pure and powerful Tonic, corrective and alternative of wonderful efficacy in cases of the Curse Dyspepsia, Liver complaint, Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fever, Cramps and Spasms, and all Complaints of either sex, arising from Bodily Weakness, which is inherent in the system, or produced by special causes.

Nothing that is not wholesome, genial and restorative in its nature enters into the composition of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly potent element; no fiery excitant; but it is a combination of the extracts of various medicinal plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

It is well to be forearmed against disease, and so far as human system can be protected by human means against maladies engendered by an unwholesome atmosphere, impure water and other external causes, Hostetter's Bitters may be relied on as a safeguard.

In districts infested with Fever and Ague, it has been found infallible as a preventive and irremediable as a remedy, and thousands who resort to it under apprehension of an attack, escape the scourges and thousands who neglect to avail themselves of its protective qualities in advance, are met by a very brief course of this marvellous medicine. Fever and Ague patients, after being pined with quinine for months in vain, until finally saturated with that dangerous alkaloid, and put infrequently restored to health within a few days by the use of Hostetter's Bitters.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigor
