The Bedford Inquirer.

BEDFORD PA., FRIDAY, JULY 8, 1864.

THE BEDFORD INQUIRER for the Campaign until after the Presidential Election, will be furnished for sixty cents in advance.

SUBSCRIBERS, who pay their subscriptions before the 8th of July, will be charged only One Dollar and Seventy-five Cents a year. Money is very useful to us at this time, and we hope our subscribers will find it convenient to pay their subscriptions as soon as the time mentioned.

WE WILL furnish the BEDFORD INQUIRER until after the Presidential Election for Sixty cents. Now is the time to increase the circulation of the INQUIRER. No other instrumentality can be made so effective in bringing out and developing the strength of the Union party in this County as this paper.

Meeting of the Union County Committee.

A meeting of the Union County Committee appointed at the last County Convention, will be held in Bedford Borough, MONDAY, JULY ELEV'TH at One o'clock, P. M., at the Washington Hotel. A full and punctual attendance is requested, as matters of importance will be brought before the Committee.

GEO. W. RUPP.
Bedford, July 1, 1864. Chairman.

Sick and Wounded Penna. Volunteers.

Information respecting Pennsylvania soldiers in the Hospitals of Philadelphia, may always be had by application to JOS. PARKER, chief of the Hospital Commission, at the rooms of the Young Mens Christian Association, No. 1004 Chestnut street.

☞ The fourth of July having been duly celebrated by our hands, leaves us this week with less than the usual amount of reading matter.

NOTICE.—Episcopal service will be held (D. V.) at the Bedford Springs next Sunday morning at 10½ o'clock and in the afternoon, at the Lutheran Church at 5 o'clock

The convocation of the Episcopal Church will assemble at the Lutheran Church on next Tuesday; at which, it is expected, Bishop Sstevens, will preside.

☞ Rev. A. C. Crissenhainer will preach in the Lutheran Church Sunday morning at 10½ o'clock.

☞ The Fourth of July was a tranquil and orderly day in this place. There was no celebration, no business, and not as much drinking as might have been expected. In the early part of the day the rumors of a rebel raid produced a little commotion.—But the telegraphic rumors ceased early in the day, we heard nothing more of the raid. At the close of the day every thing raidish was discredited. In Bloody Run an ice cream supper was given in the store of J. B. Williams & brother. It was largely attended and passed off very pleasantly. The proceeds were appropriated to furnishing the Parsonage of the M. E. Church.

LARGE SALE OF REAL ESTATE IN BEDFORD COUNTY —One Thousand Dollars in Stamps on One Deed.—Elisha Riggs and others to the Riddlesburg Coal and Iron Company 3,000 acres of land in Broad Top and Liberty townships for $500,000. This deed contains Government stamps to the amount of $1,000.

Also a deed by the Riddlesburg Improvement Company to Elisha Riggs and others for ten tracts of land in same Townships, for $350,000. This deed is stamped to the amount of $680—all placed in the Recorder's office for record.

Mr. Riggs and his associates are from New York. They contemplate large operations in coal and iron in this county.

ADVANCE IN THE PRICE OF NEWSPAPERS.—While prices generally have advanced, newspaper publishers have been the last to increase their prices. And in consequence of this reluctance to advance the rates, publishers of newspapers have suffered seriously in their business. But they are obliged in the end to yield to the laws of trade and submit to an advance. The New Jersey weekly papers have all been raised from $1.50 to $2.00 a week. The Huntingdon Monitor has advanced to $2.00. The Waynesboro' Record, a paper considerable smaller than ours, has advanced its rates to $2.25 a year. The Miners Journal, of Pottsville, is the same. The Somerset papers are $2.00 a year. If prices remain any length of time, as they now are, we shall be obliged to yield to the advance pressure.

"DAUGHTERS TO SELL."—The "Song of an American Mother," in reply to a "Song by a Lady of Fashion," both of which were published in our paper of the 24th June, was written for the Germantown Telegraph, and first published in that paper, from which we copied it. The song "Daughters to Sell" was credited, correctly as we suppose, to the London Punch. The manner of printing the "Song by an American Mother" in the Telegraph, led us to infer that perhaps the whole was from Punch. Had we known certainly, as we now do, the origin of it, we should have credited it to the Germantown Telegraph, a paper famous for its original good things generally, but more especially in the Horticultural and Agricultural line, on which subjects it is one of the first authorities in the country.

☞ The Gazette endeavors to create the impression that the Board of Enrollment was guility of partiality in its examinations. The insinuation is false. It says that there were no Democrats exempted in Bedford township. Now it happens there were several, and if there had not been any, it would only have sustained the veritable fact that the Democrats have hearkened unto its teachings and remained at home, while the Republicans who were able to go have gone. In Union township nine Democrats were exempted and two Republicans. Why not enlarge about this partiality.

MARRIED.

At the residence of the bride's father, on the 28th of June, by the Rev. Mr. Hunt, Mr. JOHN A. CESSNA, of Bedford, and Miss Minnie Keyser, of Buena Vista, Pa.

DIED.

JOHN LUTZ MONTGOMERY died June 27th, 1864, aged 17 years, 9 months and 6 days.

He was a faithful Sunday School scholar and died happy in the Saviour's love.

On the 28th of June, SALLIE PIPER, the youngest child of Samuel and Mary Tate, aged 1 year, 7 months and 26 days.

On the 31st of May, 1864, Mrs. BARBARA HILLEGASS, wife of Jacob Hillegass, of Bedford county, aged 77 years, 9 months and 28 days.

The deceased was for many years a member of the German Reformed Church. In social intercouse she was courteous and affable, and her conversation was characterized by great prudence, charity and Christian benevolence. Hence she was not only the light and joy of a happy home, but she stood high in the esteem of all who knew her. Her last moments were peaceful. She had a steadfast trust in Jesus and confidingly committed her soul into His hands. As the morning sun was struggling through the clouds that gathered above her native hills, her sun of life went down, but only to rise again in the unclouded splendor of an eternal day. A large concourse of relatives and friends followed her remains to their last resting place. The funeral sermon was preached by Mr. Skiles of Schellsburg.

"For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with Him."

HEADQUARTERS 55TH REG. P. P.
IN FRONT OF PETERSBURG, VA.
June 25, 1864.

MR. EDITOR:

Thinking a short communication from this quarter might interest some of the readers of your valuable paper, and more especialy those who have friends in this regiment, I shall give a short sketch of the operations of the regiment since our return from Cold Harbor. We reached Point of Rocks on the Appomattox on the evening of June, 14th. After landing and taking supper, we spread our tents upon the ground, and covering ourselves with our Indian-rubber blankets we were soon enwrapt in that sweet repose which none knows better how to appreciate than the weary soldier.

At 2 o'clock A. M., June 15th we received orders to be ready to move at a moments notice. At daylight we took up the line of march crossing on the Pontoons, to the south side of the river and moving in the direction of Petersburg. Our Division, the 2nd, moved direct toward Petersburg, while the first moved off to the left. The object of this was not then understood by us, but was afterwards fully and satisfactorily developed. Skirmishers were thrown out and we moved forward slowly and cautiously; our Brigade taking the advance. We came up with the enemy's skirmishers at 9 o'clock A. M., and drove them about two miles, or until we were within range of the enemy's batteries, and in sight of Petersburg. Here we halted and lay in line of battle until near sundown, when the First Division commanded by Brig. Gen. Brooks came around our left and flanking the enemy's right, drove them from their works.—The whole of their first line was then in our possession. Fifteen pieces of artillery, two hundred and fourteen Prisoners together with three or four colors and quite a number of small arms were captured.

Night set in, and all the troops of the 18th Corps Bivouacked for the night except the 55 P. V. and the 23rd Mass. Vols, which were deployed in front of our lines as pickets. The next day June 16th, everything was quiet until near sundown when we received the order to advance and engage the enemy. We moved forward until within two hundred yards o the enemy's second line of works and held our position under a heavy fire till 10 o'clock P. M., when we were withdrawn and went into camp for the night. The 2nd Division rested on the 17th; On the night of the 17th the enemy evacuated his 2nd line on our front and left.

At early dawn on the 18th we again received orders to advance. But orders come generally a few hours previous to moving. So it was this time; we did not get started till about 8 o'clock A. M., moved slowly and halted at intervals, still following our skirmishers, and still looking for decisive orders.—Such orders came at last; we were ordered forward in a charge under the most terrific fire. Our brave boys fell thick and fast, but they still pushed stubbornly on, and established a new line nearly a quarter of a mile nearer Petersburg. Here despite the heavy fire of the enemy, we went to work and entrenched ourselves and held the position. The loss of the 55th in that charge alone was 95. The other regiments engaged suffered proportionally. At daylight the next morning June 19th we were relieved by fresh troops and moved back to the 2nd line where we remained until 9 o'clock P. M., when we marched back across the Appomattox and rested on the 20th. On the 21st we recrossed the river and moved up to the front where the regiment is still lying. Nothing of importance going on in front now. We are in full view of Petersburg. The City is at our mercy, and could be blown to atoms by our batteries; but Gen. Grant's object does not seem to be to destroy, but to capture.

Enclosed I send you a list of the Causialities of Co. H. since coming to Virgina and also a congratulating order issued by Gen. Stannard, Previous to his taking leave of this Brigade to take command of the First Division.

Yours &c.,
JAS. H. MILLER.

☞ A NUMBER of years have elapsed since the introduction of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED BITTERS to the public. The prejudice existing in the minds of many persons against what are denominated patent medicines at first greatly retarded its sale; but, as its virtues and merits became known, this barrier of prejudice was overthrown, and the demand increased so rapidly that in a few years scarcely a village existed in the United States in which the afflicted had not experienced the benefits arising from the use of the "Bitters," and at the present day there are to be found IF ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD vouchers for the great merits of the article. No greater cure for Dyspepsia can be found.

By EDWARD MAYHEW, M. R. V. S., Author of "The Illustrated Horse Doctor." One Vol. 8vo.

II.

A Companion to the Illustrated Horse Management.

NEW EDITION.

ILLUSTRATED HORSE DOCTOR.

Being an accurate and detailed account, accompanied by more than 400 pictorial representations characteristic to the various diseases to which the Equine race are subjected; together with the latest mode of treatment, and all the requisite prescriptions written in plain English.—By Edward Mayhew, M. R. C. V. S., author of several Works on Veterinary Art.

[From the London Globe.]

Every gentleman who possesses or cares for horses would do well to keep this book in his house. Mr. Mayhew's treatment of the worst diseases to which horses are liable is very clearly laid down and the method of keeping horses well and to a prolonged old age, is that of nature, of common sense.

[From the Era.]

No one with the least equine knowledge can require to be told that Mr. Mahew is the man for the task which he has undertaken, and most satisfactorily accomplished.—His high reputation in the veterinary art, and his qualifications as a practiced writer on domestic animals, render him the very person for supplying an intelligent and interesting work on the diseases of the horse, which would be devoid of mere professional localities, while, at the same time, his skill as a draughtsman, and humor as a witty observer of life, enabled him to illustrate with his pencil what he had written with his pen. We advisedly say that "The Illustrated Horse Doctor" is the very best book of the kind which we know; and what gives it an essential charm is, that the author so thoroughly sympathizes with the noble animal which he describes . . . We at once pronounce it as scientific, yet intelligible; informing, yet highly amusing; acceptable to the profound horse doctor, yet the work of all others for the book shelves in every gentleman's sanctum. . . . We give it our unqualified approbation and recommendation.

☞ Either of the above books will be sent by mail on receipt of $3.

SCHOOL ECONOMY.

A treatise on the preparation, organization, employments, governments and authorities of schools.

BY JAMES PYLE WICKERSHAM, A. M.

Principal Pennsylvania State Normal School at Millersville, Pa. 15mo. $1,25.

[From the Mass. Teacher.]

We heartily invite the readers of the Teacher to examine this excellent volume, believing that it will tend to hasten the time when teaching will be recognized as a profession, and the teacher be as fitted for his work as to command the respect of the wise and good.

[From the Com. School Journal.]

This is an excellent book and we welcome it as a valuable addition to the limited lists of works for teachers.—It was written by an earnest and experienced teacher—by one whose heart is in the great work of Education. It is full of useful hints, suggestions and directions, and no true teacher can read it without profit. We sincerely thank Prof. Wickersham for the preparation of this work. It will be good wherever it may be circulated.
