A roving laborer, if a visitor knocks at the front door, will sometimes send word "engaged" though he never had an offer in her life.

The total quota of New York state under the last call for half a million is $9,318.

The Richmond Sentinel of the 22d Inst. says: "We believe the Democratic party will nominate a peace candidate (at Chicago), and that his nomination will probably wind up active hostilities, if not end the war."

To prevent steers from jumping fences, clip off the eyelashes of the under eye, with a pair of scissors, and the ability to jump, is as effectually destroyed as Sampson's power was by the loss of his locks.

New York is fuller than ever of refugees and cowardly southerners, most of them rebels but with no stomach for powder and ball. They fill the hotels and boarding houses, keep the roads, and are a gold mine (a favorite form of helping their brethren at home) for the enrollment roll but do nothing to fill the quotas, and in every way that they have the courage for give aid and comfort to the rebel cause.

On Wednesday evening, July 20, the air in the vicinity of Odgersburg was filled with ashes, and the wind at the time was blowing from the north-west, and they must have come from miles away in Canada.

You would not take me for twenty? said a nice girl to her partner, while dancing, a few evenings ago: "What would you take me for?" "For better or for worse," he replied.

As old bachelor says if a young lady has a purse with two ends—silver on one, and gold in the other—she is sure to open the gold end first.

"GENTLE WOMEN EVER KIND."—Dr. Kane relates that when one day, worn out with fatigue, he turned out on an Esquimaux hut to get a little sleep, the good-natured hostess of the wigwag covered him up with some of her own kaillimats, and gave him her baby for a pillow.

LEATHER PIES.—Army pies are so terribly tough that soldiers call them leather pies. A poor fellow of Grants army, whose arm had just been amputated, was being carried past a stand where he saw a pie. An old woman was selling pies, when he raised himself in the ambulance and called out, "I say old lady, are those pies sewed or pegged?"

NEWSPAPER BUSINESS, by reason of enhanced wages, high prices, taxation, &c., is so unprofitable that one of the most talented assistants of a morning daily in New York city has just thrown down the pen and opened a broom store in West-street; another has turned auctioneer, and a third has gone into the country to work on a farm.

A CHILD THAT TALKED AT BIRTH.—South Troy is just now agitated by stories told about a child that talked at birth. It is prophesied that a comet was coming in a few weeks and was going to give us a terrible drought, and that in consequence of the disappearance of the atmospheric laws there would be a famine according to the inspired baby's prophecy.

A WASHINGTON LETTER WRITER SAYS: "Our theaters are closed, the concert halls can hardly pay expenses, and business of every kind drags heavily. Indeed Washington has seen the usual signs of a panic, and it is not probable that we shall have the Army of the Potomac herabouts any more, and the lucrative sutler's trade will soon be located at Petersburg—then at Richmond."

A tailor, who, in skating, fell through the ice, declared that he would never leave hot goose for cold duck.

A favorite mode of introduction in Brazil is said to be, "This is my friend; if he steals anything from you, I am responsible for it."

WHAT ARE YOU LOOKING FOR?—A man was angry with his wife, and she became so much so, or for some other reason and resolved not to spend to her for a long, long time. He kept his resolution for a few days very strictly. One evening he is lying in bed and wishes to sleep; he draws his night cap over his ears, and his wife may say what she will, he hears nothing of it. He will then take a candle, and carries it to every nook and corner of the room; she removes stools, chairs, and tables, and looks carefully behind them. The husband sits up in bed, and gazes inquiringly at her movements; he thinks that the dim man has a new trick, and that he is mistaken—his wife keeps on looking and searching. The husband loses patience, and cries, "What are you looking for?" "For your tongue," she answers: "and now that I have found it, tell me why you are angry." Hereupon they became good friends again.

REBEL DISAPPOINTMENT BECAUSE WASHINGTON WAS NOT CAPTURED.—The Richmond Dispatch of the 18th Inst. says the fall of Washington was most anxiously expected by the people, who were much disappointed on learning that the invaders had not accomplished this object, but much gratified amid their chagrin, that "the Yankee capital could be frightened out of its wits." The Engineer thinks that Pennsylvania is soon to be secured by 40,000 rebels as it invites foraging on a large scale, and a foray into that region should culminate in a most beautiful harvest of the already worn seeds of peace.

THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.—The Engineer thinks that the Pennsylvania R.R. is in a very precarious position, and that the losses inflicted on Maryland, and hence the popular desire of the South that the Keystone State should be punished by an extensive raid.

LOSSES BY THE LATE MARYLAND RAID.—We find it estimated that the entire loss by the rebel raid in Maryland will not much exceed two millions of dollars. Of this amount the Philadelphia and Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad suffered to the extent of something over one hundred thousand dollars; the Northern Central to about the same amount; the Baltimore and Ohio had seven bridges and four miles of track and several miles of telegraph wire destroyed; telegraph companies were damaged to the extent of three or four thousand dollars; the Chesapeake and Ohio canal had the aqueduct at Antietam destroyed, and all the locks between Antietam and Williamsport demolished with losses estimated at four hundred thousand dollars; the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal had the aqueduct at Antietam destroyed, and all the locks between Antietam and Williamsport demolished with losses estimated at four hundred thousand dollars; the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal had the aqueduct at Antietam destroyed, and all the locks between Antietam and Williamsport demolished with losses estimated at four hundred thousand dollars.

A BEAUTIFUL IDEAL.—In the mountains of Tyrol it is the custom of the women and children to come out when it is bed-time and sing their national songs until they hear the husbands, fathers, and brothers answering them from the hills on their return home.

NEW DISEASE.—The Buffalo Medical Journal, describes a new disease, which appeared at Cheesbrough, in Erie county, New York, of which several persons have died. It commences with diarrhoea, and is followed by emaciation until death supervenes.

FROM THE PRESS OF J. B. LIPPINCOTT & CO. PHILADELPHIA.

Every Owner of Horses Should Possess a Copy of Mr. Mayhew's Invaluable Book, JUST PUBLISHED: MAYHEW'S ILLUSTRATED HORSE MANAGEMENT.

A Companion to the Illustrated Horse Management. NEW EDITION.

ILLUSTRATED HORSE DOCTOR.

Being an accurate and detailed account, accompanied by more than 400 pictorial representations characteristic to the various diseases to which the Equine race are subjected; together with the latest mode of treatment, and the requisite prescriptions written in plain English.

By EDWARD MAYHEW, M. B. C. V. S., Author of several Works on Veterinary Art. One Vol. 8vo.

Every gentleman who possesses or cares for horses would do well to keep this book in his house. Mr. Mayhew's treatment of the worst diseases to which horses are liable is very clearly laid down and the method of keeping horses well and to a prolonged old age, is of that nature, of common sense.

No one with the least equine knowledge can require to be told that Mr. Mayhew is the man for the task which he has undertaken, and most satisfactorily accomplished. His high reputation in the veterinary art, and his qualifications as a practical writer on domestic animals, render him the very person for supplying an intelligent and interesting work on the diseases of the horse, which would be devoid of mere professional localities, while, at the same time, his skill as a draughtsman, and humor as a witty observer of life, enabled him to illustrate with his pen and pencil, the most interesting and instructive subjects that the "Illustrated Horse Doctor" is the very best book of the kind which the author has written; and it is a peculiar charm, that the author so thoroughly sympathizes with the horse and his owner, that he writes with an unequalled approbation and commendation.

Each of the above books will be sent by mail on receipt of $2.

Through theoretical and practical instruction in all branches pertaining to a finished Business Education. The Philadelphia College stands first in the State, both in point of reputation and local advantages. The point aimed at is to place Commercial Education where it belongs—in the front rank of useful instruction. To this end the most thorough course of business training is adopted, and carefully enforced, under the personal supervision of competent Professors in the various departments.

The most perfect system of practical training ever devised has been put in operation, and is successfully carried out, affording to students advantages such as have hitherto been considered possible only in connection with the counting house. After becoming proficient in the sciences of Accounts, Penmanship, Commercial Calculations and Commercial Law, the student is advanced to the Practical Department, where he becomes an actual Book-keeper and Merchant; passes through the different Houses; acts in turn as Teller, Cashier, &c.; learns the duties and responsibilities of each office, and becomes thoroughly informed not only in the forms which are in universal use, but in managing the affairs of business with system and dispatch.

Scholarships issued at one point, are good for an unlimited period in the eighteen Colleges comprising the "Chain."

Diplomas are awarded to those who fulfill the prescribed course of study, and pass the requisite examination. For further information send for a circular. Address, BRYANT, STRATTON & CO., Philadelphia. Jan. 29, 1864—9 mo.

CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS. A pure and powerful Tonic, corrective and Alterative—wonderful efficacy in disease of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.

Causes Dyspepsia, Liver complaint, Headache, General debility, Nervousness, Dropsy, Stiffness of Spine, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Cramps and Spasms, and all Complaints of either Sex, arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or produced by special causes.

Nothing that is not wholesome, genial and restorative in its nature enters into the composition of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It is a purely botanical element; is very excellent but it is a combination of the extracts of rare medicinal herbs and plants with the purest and most effect of all diffusive stimulants.

It is well to be forewarned against disease, and so far as human system can be protected by human means against malice in case of Dyspepsia and less contracted forms of an attack, escape the scourge and thousands who neglect to avail themselves of the protective qualities in advance, are cured by a very brief course of this medicinal medicine. Fever and Ague patients, after being pained with quinine for months in vain, until fairly saturated with that dangerous alkali, and not infrequently resorting to health within a few days by the use of Hostetter's Bitters.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated and the appetite restored by this agreeable Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia and less contracted forms of indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and excretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Loss of Sleep, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony of this point is most conclusive, and from both sexes.

The agency of Billous Colic is immediately assuaged by a single dose of the stimulant, and by ceasing its use, resorting to it, the return of the complaint may be prevented.

As a general Tonic, Hostetter's Bitters produce effects which cannot be experienced or witnessed before they are fully appreciated. In cases of general weakness, Prostration, Debility and Debility arising from Old Age, it exercises an electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a invigorant of the system, and by ceasing its use, it operates to re-ferment and re-establish health.

Last, but not least, it is the Only Safe Stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acid elements, present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

No family medicine has been so universally, and it may be truly said, deservedly popular, with the intelligent and virtuous community as Hostetter's Bitters. Prepared by HOSTETTER & SIBBEY, Pittsburg. Sold by
