JUDGE KIMMELL IN SOMERSET. "Democratic Mass Meeting"

Under this ostentatious and imposing title, a Copperhead meeting was convened at the Court House, on Monday evening of court. It was numerously attended; the court room was well filled, and we suppose that most of the serpents belonged to the Somerset county den were present. This single room full of men is dignified with the title of a "Democratic Mass Meeting." At a moderate computation from a fourth to a third of the Mass were

After the meeting was called to order, several speeches were made.—All of which were of the Vallandigham and Wood type of loyalty—breathing out the rost malignant denunciations of their own Government, but not one word of condemnation of the Valley, were treated well, got all the information to be had, and there is no get such minimization as could be obtained respecting the "Rebs" said to be in that direction; and when those two gentlemen as could be obtained respecting the "Rebs" said to be in that direction; and when those two gentlemen as could be obtained respecting the "Rebs" said to be in that direction; and when those two gentlemen as could be obtained respecting the "Rebs" said to be in that direction; and when those two gentlemen as could be obtained respecting the "Rebs" said to be in that direction; and when those two gentlemen as could be obtained respecting the "Rebs" said to be in that direction; and when those two gentlemen as could be obtained respecting the "Rebs" said to be in that direction; and when those two gentlemen as could be obtained respecting the "Rebs" said to be in that direction; and when those two gentlemen as could be obtained respecting the "Rebs" said to be in that direction; and when those two gentlemen as could be obtained respecting the "Rebs" said to be in that direction; and when those two gentlemen as could be obtained respecting the "Rebs" said to be in that direction; and when those two gentlemen as could be obtained respecting the "Rebs" said to be in that direction; and when those two gentlemen as could be obtained respecting the "Rebs" said to be in that direction; and when those two gentlemen as could be obtained respecting the "Rebs" said to be in that direction; and when those two gentlemen as could be obtained respecting the "Rebs" said to be in that direction; and when those two gentlemen as could be obtained respecting the "Rebs" said to be in that direction; and when those two gentlemen as could be obtained respecting the "Rebs" said to be in the "Rebs" said to be in the "Rebs" said to be obtained respec speeches were made. - All of which were of the Val-

A. K. in the west, or of the McClellan minute Men in the East. We would suggest to the Supreme Commander, Vallandigham, that he give him an office, if he has not already done so, worthy of his talents. Speaking of the Supreme Commander of the Northern traitors, reminds us of an incident that occurred during the delivery of the Hongantleman's speech: A young man whose home is in the vicinity of Vallandigham's residence, but who was the vicinity of Vallandigham's residence, but who was at the meeting on the evening in question, said to us. "Traitor as Vallandigham is, neither he, nor any of his supporters would dare make such a speech as that (referring to the Hon. F. M. K. who was speaking) in Ohio-the people (mark! not the President!) would not suffer it." MR. Erron:—I rend occasionally in the Gusette and as I was looking it over a few days ago: I not ticed a communication of eleven sentences, under the caption of "Bully row" Moxnos," in which a correspondent tells some nine falsehood in trying to ridicule the good citizens of Clearville.

He says "during the late confederate invasion, the ways was affect that a confederate invasion, the ways was affect that a confederate invasion, the Colock P. M.

No doubt the good people of that village were greatly alarmed, when such a report as our corresgreatly alarmed, when such a report as our correspondent speaks of came to them "afloat," or afoot. As the Rebs were making such an orderly approach, perhaps the citizens were fearful lest they might be going to invest the place by siege, or storm it and put the garrison to the sword. "And he tells us in another sentence, that "all the old guns, pistols and knives were in requisition, and they were waiting for marching orders." That is "steamed." The word three were in requisition, which they were waiting for marching orders. That is strange! The word "they" refers to the antecedents, "mns, pistols and knives," and so according to the language of our correspondent, we come to "the astounding conclusions that the stranguage of the st correspondent, we come to the ustounding conclusion "that the excitement was so great as to infuse tiself into all the "old guns, pistols and knives" to be found about the place; make them act like reasoning creatures, bring themselves "into requisition" and wait, as one man, for "marching orders!" I have heard of curious things before now; I have and wait, as one man, for "marching orders!" I have heard of curious things before now; I have heard to give a little spanish fly to a Jack-Ass will cause him to get so excited as to work "like a horse" for twenty four hours; but I never heard such a cock and bull story as our correspondent would have us believe. Then he goes on to say that the orders to march were given, and the Clearville squad was led by one of the war horses of the village (a divine at that) and they proceeded in the direction of Hancock in search of the Rebs." and he tells us that in Bucks Valley, our squad fell in with, and were captured by a party of Union soldiers, and were taken to Warfordsburg and paroled, after trying to escape by taking to the woods, and leaving some of their horses and guns in the road. Now the great squad spoken of consisted of two men, one the unpretending chrisof consisted of two men, one the unpretending chris-tian minister whom our correspondent tries to ridi-cule, and they were sent "on a scout" as far as

We believe the speech of the Hon. F. M. Kimmell, the copperhead candidate for President Judge of this Judicial district, is considered the the master piece of the coming. We have not space to spare this Judicial district, is considered the the majority piece of the evening. We have not space to spare to give even a synopsis of the Hon. gentleman's remarks. Suffice it to say, that there was nothing new in it, only in so far as it came from him, who is a local form of the present century; that he was not born altogether in the untural way, but just came "so so." like a toad stool you know; and that being of an ambitious and roving disposition he got on to the "stage of action" to

ing is from the Philadelphia Press: Two railroad bills of especial significance, passed last spring by the Legislature, and held unsigned by the Governor, have recently become laws under a provision of the Constitution of the State. One of these bills repeals the authority originally granted to the Pittsburg and Connellsville Raifroad Company, east of Connellsville, and limits their jurisdiction to the ground between Connellsville and Pittsburg.— The other bill incorporates a new company, with an-thority to build a road, east from Connellsville to connect with other roads leading to the Susquehanna and Chesprache. Those bills it is east will had to connect with other tonds leading to the Susquenanna and Chesapeake. These bills, it is said, will lead to litigation, uasmuch, as it is alleged, the Pittsburg and Connellsville Railroad Company will carry the matter into the courts. But though legal issues may be invoked, the policy adopted by the state of Pennells in its dogislation of last session, will, no be invoked, the policy adopted by the State of Pennsylvania, in its legislation of last session, will, no doubt, be triumphant in the end, because its design and aim are to develope the southwestern counties of the State, a region abounding in minerals which have been shut out from the great markets, by reason of othe non-completion of the Pittsburg and Connellsville Railroad. There is immediate and pressing need for a direct live of rail communication through the Southern counties of Pennsylvania, west of the Susque hanna river, a desideratum which the new company incorporated last session will supply, since the tail of the Pittsburg and Connellsville is now cut of at Connellsville, leaving it a serpent without rattles and without fangs. A southern Pennsylvania railroad across the Allegheux mountain, controlled within the State, would enhance, develope, and make available the rich coal besens in the soutwestern counties, whose better market is at the soutwestern counties, whose better market is at the seaboard, and whose best route takes Harris-

Washington, January 1, 1864.

Gentlemen.—Having stated it verbally to you. I have no hesitation, in writing the Peet, that I experienced marked benefit from your Hoodand's German Bitters. During a long and tedions session of Congress, pressing and onerous duties nearly prostrated me. A kind friend suggested the use of the preparation I have named. I took his advice, and the result was improvement of health, renewed energy, and that particular relief I so much needed and obtained. Others may be similarly advantaged if they desire to be.

Trulyyour friend,
THOMAS B. FLORENCE.

From John B. Wickersham, Esq., firm of Wickersham

I am the recipient from you of one of the greatest fr I am the recipient from yot of one of the greatest favors that can be conferred upon man, viz; that of health. For many years have I suffered from one of the most annoying and debilitating complaints that the human family can be afflicted with, Chrotic Diarrhea.

During the long time I was suffering from this disease, I was attended by regular physicians, giving me but temporary relief. The cause seemed to refinin until I was induced to try Hoofland's German Bitters. After the use of a few bottles of that aluable medicine, the complaint appeared to be completely cradicated.

I often inwardly thank you for such a valuable specific and, whenever I have an opportunity, cheerfully recommend it, with full confidence in its reliability.

Truly yours,

John B. Wickersham.

Gentlemen: In reply to your inquiry as to the effect produced by the use, of Hoothud's German Bitters, in my family, I have no besitation in saying that it has been highly beneficial. In one instance, a case of dyspepsia of thirteen years' standing, and which had become very distressing, the use of one bottle gave decided relief, the second effecting a cure, and the third, it seems, has continued the cure, for there has been no symptoms of its return for the last six years. In my individual use of it 1 find it o be an unequalled tonic, and sincerely recommend its use to the sufferers.

Messrs, Jones & Evans—Gentlemen:—I have recently
cen laboring under the distressing effects of indigestion, companied by a prostration of the hiervous system, uncrous remedies were recommended by friends, and one of them tested, but without relief. Your Hoofland's compan Bitters were recommended by present Bitters were recommended by present Bitters were recommended. Numerous remeties were recommended by persons who had tried them, and whose favorable mention of the Bitters induced me also to try them. I must confess that I had an aversion to Patent Medicine, from the "thousand and one" quack "Bitters" whose or ly nim seems to be to palm off sweetneed and drugged liquor upon the community, in a sly way; and the tendency of which, I fear, is to make many a confirmed drunkard. Upon learning that yours was really a medicine preparation, I took it with happy effect. Its action was not upon only the stomach, but upon the nervous system, was prompt and gratifying. I feel that I hat e derived great and permanent benefit from the use of a few bottle's. Very respectfully yours,

Dr. Jackson: —Dear Sir: —I feel it due to your excellent preparation, Hoofland German Bitters, to add my testimeny to the deserved reputation it has obtained. I have for years, at times; been troubled with great disorder in my head and neryous system. I was advised by a friend to try a bo'tle of your German Bitters, I did so, and have experienced great and unexpected relief; my health has been very materially benefitted: Teonfidently recommend the article where I meet with cases similar to my own, and have be en assured by many of their good effects.

Restrectfully yours, T. Winder, Roxborough, Pa.
