FROM THE PRESS OF J. B. LIPPINCOTT & CO. PHILADELPHIA.

Every Owner of Horses should Possess a Copy of Mr. Mayhew's Invaluable Book, JUST PUBLISHED:

MAYHEW'S ILLUSTRATED HORSE MANAGEMENT.

Containing descriptive remarks upon the Anatomy, Medicine, Shoeing, Teeth, Food, Vices, Stalls; likewise a plain account of the Situation, Nature and Value of the various Points; together with comments on Grooms, Drivers, Breeders, Breakers and Trainers; also on Carriages and Harness. Embellished with more than 400 Engravings from original designs made expressly for this Work.

By EDWARD MAYHEW, M. D., V. S., Author of "The Illustrated Horse Doctor." One Vol. 8vo.

A Companion to the Illustrated Horse Management. NEW EDITION.

THE ILLUSTRATED HORSE DOCTOR.

Being an accurate and detailed account, accompanied by more than 400 pictorial representations characteristic to the various diseases to which the Equine race are subjected; together with the latest modes of treatment, and all the requisite prescriptions written in plain English. By EDWARD MAYHEW, M. D., V. S., author of several Works on Veterinary Art.

[From the London Globe.]

Every gentleman who possesses or cares for horses would do well to keep this book in his house. Mr. Mayhew's treatment of the worst diseases to which horses are liable is very clearly laid down and the method of keeping horses well and to a prolonged old age, is that of nature, of common sense.

[From the Era.]

No one with the least equine knowledge can require to be told that Mr. Mayhew is the man for the task which he has undertaken, and most satisfactorily accomplished. His high reputation in the veterinary art, and his qualifications as a practical writer on domestic animals, render him the very person for supplying an intelligent and interesting work on the diseases of the horse, which would be devoid of more professional localities, while, at the same time, his skill as a draughtsman, and his taste as a witty observer of life, enabled him to illustrate with his pen what he had written with his pen. We advise every one who has a horse, to possess this book. It is the best book of the kind which we know; and what gives it an essential charm is, that the author so thoroughly sympathizes with the noble animal which he describes. . . . We give it our unqualified approbation and recommendation. . . .

Principal Pennsylvania State Normal School at Millersville, Pa. 1mo. $1.25.

[From the Mass. Teacher.]

We heartily invite the readers of the Teacher to examine this excellent volume, believing that it will tend to hasten the time when teaching will be recognized as a profession, and the teacher be fitted for his work as to command the respect of the wise and good.

[From the Com. School Journal.]

This is an excellent book and we welcome it as a valuable addition to the limited list of works for teachers. It was written by an earnest and experienced teacher, by one whose heart is in the great work of Education. It is full of useful hints, suggestions and directions, and no teacher can read it without profit. We sincerely thank Prof. Wickersham for the preparation of this work. It will be good wherever it may be circulated.

HOSIETTERS' CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

A pure and powerful Tonic, corrective and alternative, wonderful efficacy in disease of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.

Cure Dyspepsia, Liver complaint, Headache, General debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Cramps and Spasms, and all Complaints of either Sex, arising from Bodily Weakness whether inherent in the system or produced by special causes.

Nothing that is not wholesome, genial and restorative in its nature enters into the composition of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but it is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

It is well to be fortified against disease, and so far as human system can be protected by human means against miasms engendered by an unwholesome atmosphere, impure water and other external causes, Hostetter's Bitters may be relied on as a safeguard.

In districts infested with Fever and Ague, it has been found infallible as a preventive and irresistible as a remedy, and thousands who resort to it under apprehension of an attack, escape the scourges and thousands who neglect to avail themselves of its protective qualities in advance, are cured by a very brief course of this marvelous medicine. Fever and Ague patients, after being plied with quinine for months in vain, until finally saturated with that dangerous alkaloid, and not unfrequently referred to languish within a few days by the use of Hostetter's Bitters.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated and the appetite restored by this agreeable Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, it will also upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the flatulence and nervousness induced by irregular action of the digestive and secretory organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Losses of Spirits, and Fits of Langour, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is most conclusive, and from both sexes.

The agony of Billious Colic is immediately assuaged by a single dose of the stimulant, and by occasionally resorting to it, the return of the complaint may be prevented.

As a general Tonic, Hostetter's Bitters produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay and Debility and Deceptively arising from Old Age, it exercises an electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as an invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is the Only Safe Stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

No family medicine has been so universally, and it may be truly added, generally popular, which, in the intelligent portion of the community, is Hostetter's Bitters. Prepared by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburg.

Sold by all Druggists, Grocers and Storekeepers every where.
