FROM THE PRESS OF J. B. LIPPINCOTT & CO. PHILADELPHIA.

Every Owner of Horses Should Possess a Copy of Mr. Mayhew's Invaluable Book, JUST PUBLISHED: MAYHEW'S ILLUSTRATED HORSE MANAGEMENT.

Containing descriptive remarks upon the Anatomy, Medicine, Feeding, Tending, Food, Vices, Stalls; likewise a plain account of the Situation, Nature and Value of the various Points; together with comments on Grooms, Dealers, Breeders, Breakers and Trainers; also on Carriages and Harness. Embellished with more than 400 Engravings from original designs made expressly for this Work.

By EDWARD MAYHEW, M. R. V. S., Author of "The Illustrated Horse Doctor." One Vol. 8vo.

A Companion to the Illustrated Horse Management. NEW EDITION.

THE ILLUSTRATED HORSE DOCTOR.

Being an accurate and detailed account, accompanied by more than 400 pictorial representations characteristic to the various diseases to which the Equine race are subjected; together with the latest mode of treatment, and all the requisite prescriptions written in plain English.—By Edward Mayhew, M. R. V. S., author of several Works on Veterinary Art.

[From the London Globe.]
Every gentleman who possesses or cares for horses would do well to keep this book in his house. Mr. Mayhew's treatment of the worst diseases to which horses are liable is very clearly laid down and the method of keeping horses well and to a prolonged old age, is that of nature, of common sense.

[From the Era.]
No one with the least equine knowledge can require to be told that Mr. Mayhew is the man for the task which he has undertaken and most satisfactorily accomplished. His high reputation in the veterinary art, and his qualifications as a practical writer on domestic animals, render him the very person for supplying an intelligent and inquiring work on the diseases of the horse, which will be beyond of mere professional localities, while, at the same time, his skill as a draughtsman, and humor as a witty observer of life, enabled him to illustrate with his pencil what he had written with his pen. We advise every one that "The Illustrated Horse Doctor" is the very best book of the kind which we know; and what gives it an essential charm is, that the author so thoroughly sympathizes with the noble animal which he describes. We at once pronounce it as scientific, yet intelligible, interesting, yet highly amusing; acceptable to the profound horse doctor, yet the work of all others for the book shaver and amateur alike. We have no hesitations in giving it our unequalled approbation and recommendation.

Either of the above books will be sent by mail on receipt of $3.

MARK'S PENINSULAR CAMPAIGN.

The Peninsular Campaign in Virginia; or, Incidents and Scenes on the Battle-Fields and in Richmond. Illustrated with numerous Engravings. By Rev. J. J. MARKS, D. D., Chaplain of the 63rd Pennsylvania Regiment.—12mo. Price $1.50.

WICKERSHAM'S SCHOOL ECONOMY.

A treatise on the preparation, organization, employment, governments and authorities of schools.

BY JAMES PYLE WICKERSHAM, A. M.
Principal Pennsylvania State Normal School at Millersville, Pa. 15mo. $1.25.

[From the Mass. Teacher.]
We heartily invite the readers of the Teacher to examine this excellent volume, believing that it will tend to hasten the time when teaching will be recognized as a profession, and the teacher be fitted for his work as to command the respect of his pupils and his superiors.

[From the Conn. School Journal.]
This is an excellent book and we welcome it as a valuable addition to the limited list of works for teachers.—It is written by an earnest and experienced teacher, by one whose heart is in the great work of Education. It is full of useful hints, suggestions and directions, and a good teacher can read it without profit. We sincerely thank Prof. Wickersham for the preparation of this work. It will be good wherever it may be circulated.

BRYANT STRATTON & CO'S CHAIN OF INTERNATIONAL COMMERCIAL COLLEGES.

Established in the following cities: PHILADELPHIA, S. E. Corner of Seventh and Chestnut Streets, New York, Brooklyn, Albany, Troy, Providence, Portland, Hartford, Burlington, Newark, Rochester, Buffalo, Toronto, Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Louis. Thorough theoretical and practical instruction in all branches pertaining to a finished Business Education. The Philadelphia College stands first in the State, both in point of reputation and local advantages. The point aimed at is to place Commercial Graduates where it belongs, in the front rank of useful instruction. This is our most thorough course of business training to be adopted and carefully followed, under the personal supervision of competent Professors in the various departments. The most perfect system of practical training ever devised has been put in operation, and is successfully carried out, affording to students the advantages which hitherto been considered possible only in connection with the counting house. After becoming proficient in the science of Accounts, Penmanship, Commercial Calculations and Commercial Law, the student is advanced to the Practical Department, where he becomes an actual Book-keeper and Merchant; passes through the different Houses; acts in turn as Teller, Cashier, &c.; learns the duties and responsibilities of each office, and becomes thoroughly informed not only in the forms which are in universal use, but in managing the affairs of business with system and dispatch. Scholarships issued at one point, are good for an unlimited period in the eighteen Colleges comprising the chain.

Diplomas are awarded to those who fulfill the prescribed course of study, and pass the requisite examination. For further information send for Circulars to the following Address: BRYANT, STRATTON & CO., Philadelphia.
