FOR PRESIDENT. ABRAHAM LINCOLN, of Illinois. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, ANDREW JOHNSON, of Tennessec.

Washington Oct. 12 1864. Maj. Geo. W. Rupp. The returns from ten hospitals and camps here gives Eight hundred and forty three Union, to one Hundred and thirty nine Democratic.

F. JORDAN.

The Elections.

The result in this state on the home vote, on Thursday morning is in doubt. The copperheads claim the State by Eight thousand. We believe notwithstanding it will give a small majority for the Union on the home vote. The soldiers vote must swell this majority very largely-from twenty to forty thousand. Sixteen Union congressmen are reported elected out of the twenty four. In Philadelphia we elect fifteen out of eighteen members of the assembly.

Ohio goes for the Union by an overwhelming and convincing majority-forty thousand on the home vote.

Indianna, claimed by the copperheads, as sure for them, is reported as giving twenty thousand majority for the Union.

In the sixteenth Congressional district, Coffroth will run ahead of Koontz, on the home vote about five hundred, but the soldiers will defeat him. The home vote in this judicial district is very clo

Kimmell may have a hundred majority. His defeat nay therefore be set down as certain, when we take the soldiers vote into account. The vote is close in the representative district krmstrong will be elected by a majority of a hundred over Meyers on the home vote.

A MISCHIEVOUS PROCEEDING

The following remarkable document was poster y Sheriff Aldstadt at the election polls in differt parts of the county. It was intended to intimdate Union men from coming to the polls and to fo ent mischief generally. Quite a number of rebs responded to the call by coming to the polls ned. The fatal difficulty, resulting in the death Mr. Mock in St. Clair township, no doubt ornated in the course taken by the Sheriff, who as in St. Clair a great part of the election day.

The Chicago Platform.

Dr. Mullin, of Schellsburg, has left a pencil tch at our office, illustrating the Chicago Platn. It is a vehicle, ancient and dilapidated, upon ch is inscribed "Chicago Platform." It is ated to the frame of an animal resembling in its ines a horse, which appears to have subsistn rebel rations for the past six months, "Peace" arge letters, on its side indicate its amiable proities. DESPERATE SPEECH DP. JEFF, DAVIS, Fallure of the Peace Campaign -- A Letter

Two-Thirds of His Army Absent without Leave-- He Wan's Sherman crushed --Hood's Army on 'he offensive-Recel Accounts of Opers trons Around Richmond.

The following st peech made by Jefferson Davis at Macon, Ga., Flept, 23, 1864, is extracted from the columns of the Daily Macon Telegraph and Confederate of f Sept. 24:

Ladies aw I Gentlemen, Friends and Fellow-citi-tions—It would have gladdened my heart to have met you in prosperity instead of adversity. But friends an a drawn together in adversity. The son misfor tune has befullen our arms from Decature to Jouesboro', our cause is not lost. Sherman cannot keep up his long line of communication and retreat. Sooner or later he must; and when and retreat. Sooner or later he must; and whe French Empire in its retreat from Moscow will be reacted. Our cavalry and our people will harras and destroy his army as did the Cossacks that o Napoleon; and the Yankee General, like him, will scape with only a bodyguard.

How can this be the most speedily effected By the absentees of Hood's army returning to beir posts; and will they not 2. Can they see the anished exiles; can they hear the wall of their uffering country women and children and no one? By what influences they are made to stanway it is not necessary to speak. If there is on the will stay away at this hour he is unworth of the name of Georgian. To the women no appeal is necessary. They are like the Sparta nothers of old. I know of one who has lost a that she wanted me to reserve a place for him in the ranks. The venerable General Polk, to whom I read the letter, knew that woman well, and said it was characeristic of her; but I will not weary you by turning aside to relate the various incidents of giving up the last son to the cause of our coun-ter, knew to me.

Wherever we go we find the hearts and hands of our noble women enlisted. They are seen wherever the eye may fail or the step turn. They have one duty to perform; to buoy up the hearts of our people. I know the deep disgrace felt by leorgia at our army falling back from Dalton to he interior of the State. But I was not of those who considered Atlanta lost when our army crossed the Chattahouchee. I resolved that it should who considered Atlanta lost when our army crossed the Chattahoochee. I resolved that it should not, and I then put a man in command who I knew would strike a manly blow for the city, and many a Yankee's blood was made to nourish the soil before the prize was won. It does not become us to revert to disaster. Let the dead, bury the dead. Let us, with one arm and one effort endeavor to crush Sherman. I am going to the army to confer with our Generals; the end must be the defeat of our enemy. It has been said that my to comer with our denerals; the end must be the defeat of our enemy. It has been said that I abandoned Georgia to her fate. Shame upon such falsehood. Where could the author have been when Walker, when Polk, and when Gener-al Stephen D. Lee was sent to her assistance.— Miserable man. The man who uttered this was a scoundrel. He was not a man to save our coun-if I knew that a General did not possess the right qualities to command, would I not be wrong if he he was not removed? Why, whenour army was falling back from Northern Georgia, I even heard that I had sent Bragg with pontoons to cross it to Cuba. But we must be charitable. take up his musket. and grown rich, always take the empty sleeve.— Let the old men remain and make bread. But should they know of any young man keeping a way from the service, who cannot be made to go any other way, let them write to the Executive. any other way, let them write to the Executive. I read all letters sentme from the people, but have not the time to reply to them. You have not many men between eighteen and forty-five left.—

The beys, God bless the boys, are as rapidly as they become eld enough, going to the field.

The city of Macon is filled with stores, sick and wounded. It must not be altered and whom ounded. It must not be abandoned when areatened, but when the enemy comes, instead of calling upon Hood's army for defence, the old the must fight, and when the enemy is driven eyond Chattanooga, they too can join in the gental rejoicing. Your prisoners are kept as a sort of Yankee capital. I have heard that one of of Yankee capital. I have heard that one of their Generals said that their exchange would deeat Sherman. I have tried every me pose. Butler, the beast, with whom no Com-sioner of Exchange would hold intercourse, published in the newspapers that if we could consent to the exchange of negroes, all dities might be removed. This is reported effort of his to get himself white-washed by holding intercourse with gentlemen. If an exchange could be effected, I don't know but that I might be induced to recognize Butler. But in the future every effort will be given, as far as possible, to effect the end.

We want our soldiers in the field, and we want the sick and wounded to return home. It is not proper for me to speak of the number of men in the field, but this I will say, that two-thirds of our men are absent, some siek, some wounded, but most of them absent without leave. The man self? It is upon these reflections that I rely to san, who had recently been sent from Richmond with our Generals at headquarters, if there he any other remedy it shall be applied. I love my friends, and I forgive my enemies.

The battle resulted in a brilliant Union victory. The rebel force were driven from the field, pursued twenty-six miles, and eleven pieces of artiflery and

I have been asked to selly reamorements from Virginia to Georgia. In Virginia the disparity in numbers is just as great as it is in Georgia.—
Then I have been asked why the army sent to the Shehandoah Valley was not sent here. It was because an army of the enemy had penetrated that valley to the very gates of Lynchurg, and Ganaral Barky was sent to diving them had. General Early was sent to drive them back. This he not only successfully did, but, crossing the Po-tomac, came well nigh capturing Washington it-self and forced Grant to send two corps of his ar-my to protect it. This the enemy denominated a my to protect it. This the enemy denominated a raid. If so, Sherman's march into Georgia a raid. What would prevent them now, If Early was withdrawn, from taking Lynchburg, and putwas withdrawn, from taking bynanburg, and put-ting a complete cordon of men around Richmond. I counselled with that great and brave soldier, General Lee, upon all these points. My mind roamed over the whole field. With this we can succeed. If one-half the men now absent with-

At three P. M. I took the offensive, sending Birney with two divisions up the Darbytown road. The enemy retreated as he advanced, and Birney has reached and occupies the interchancent which the enemy took from Kautz, and were fostifying for themselves. A force of cavalry under General Kautz which fell into the enemy's hands. They were the Fourth Wisconsin and Battery B. First United States. The latter was commanded by Lieutenant Hill, who is said to have fired all his ammuni-

which the right of the Tench Corps reached. The assault on this part of the line was so desperate that it also was forced back some distance, but the ground was afterwards recaptured by us, with heavy loss to the enemy. This ended the engagement, although skirmishing continued all day. Our loss is not yet known, but must have been considerable, as some of our cavalry were completely surprised. General Knutz was thought to have been captured, but succeeded in making his escape. The enemy were severely repulsed. We took about seventy prisoners, mostly of Longstreet's corps—some of them are fine looking young men, and mostly well dressed, presenting the appearance of haying been lately called into the service.

FOUTZ'S CELEBRATED HORSE AND CATTLE

POWDERS.

THESE Powders have proved, after a trial of several years, to be superior to any preparation of the kind in use. The chief superiority of these powders arises from the fact that they are composed of medicines that have Laxative, Tonic and Puritying properties. The laxative ejects crudities from the stomach and intestines, the tonic gives strength to the system of the Horse, and the purifying medicines contained in them cleanse the blood, and lay the foundation for a vigorous and healthy circulation. The use of them improves the wind, strengthens the appetite and gives the horse a fine, smooth and glossy skin—thus improving the appearance, vigor and spirit of this noble animal.

These powders are not intended, as most powders are to bloat the animal, so as to give him the appearance of being fat when not really so—but to remove the disease and promote his general health.

These powders will strengthen the stomach and intestines, cleanse them from offensive matter, and bring them to a healthy state. They are a sure prevention of Lung Fever, and a certain remedy for all diseases incident to the Horse, as Glanders, Yellow Water, Distempers, Founder, Heaves, Slavering, Coughs, Fevers Loss of Appetite and Vital Energy, &c.—These powders, if used two or three times a week, through the winter and spring, your horses will never got the Lung Fever Coric or Botts. A few doses of these powders will remove the worst cough, on any horse. Were owners of horses to feed a few of these powders every year, they might save the lives of many valuable horses.

MILCH COWS.

The properties this powder possesses in increasing the quantity of milk in cows, gives it an importance and value which should place it in the hands of every person keeping a cow. In fattening cattle, it gives them an ap-petite, loosens their hide, and makes them thrive much faster,

HOGS.

In all diseases of swins, as coughs, ulcers in the lungs and liver, &c., by putting from half a paper to a paper of these powders in a barrel of swill, the above diseases can be cured or entirely prevented. By using these powders the hog cholera can be prevented.

I have found them serving in time of need most effectually.

To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some gentle expectorant, and that want has been supplied in your excellent Troches. I consider them very far superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedly that huskiness of the voice arising from its too frequent use, and impairing the effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses.

Yours, &c.,

Pastor of the Locust Street Methodist Church.

To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir:—Having used your Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried, and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with soar throat or huskiness of voice arising from public speaking or singing.

Yours, &c.,

G. G. RAKESTRAW,

Pastor of Ridge Avenue Methodist Church.
