A HIGH HANDED OUTRAGE.

Deliberate and Wilful Fraud.

One of the most gross attempts at fraud ever perpetrated in this Congressional District was attempted and successfully accomplished, by Mr. Shannon, the Prothonotary of this county, on last Friday at the meeting of the Return Judges to count the soldier's vote. Mr. Shannon was in duty bound by the "Act to regulate elections by soldiers in actual military service," to return a certified copy of ALL the votes received to the Judges at their meeting. This was made necessary, as some one had to receive the votes, and unless the person designated to receive them, was placed under some obligations to return them under oath or by certficate, all such votes as were received, and no more, the door for frauds upon soldiers would be thrown wide open. This section of the law making it obligatory upon the prothonotary to certify the returns received, reads thus:

SECTION 18. It shall be the duty of the prothonotary of the county, to whom such returns shall be made to deliver, to the Return Judges of the same county, a copy, certified under his hand and seal of the returns of votes, so transmitted to him by the jueges of election, as aforesaid, or as officially certified by the Secretary of the Commonwealth, as aforesaid, to said Prothonotary.

This section gives the prothonotary no discretion in the premises, nor was it the intent of the act to do so, it was passed to meet the very issue or case raised by that gentleman, to authorize the production of all votes received, nothing more. Mr. Shannon knew that the law had made provisions for just such cases, when it says:

Section 27.—No mere informality in the matter of carrying out, or executing, any of the provisions of this act should invalidate any election held under the same, or authorize the returns thereof, to be rejected or set aside.

But Mr. Shannon knew as a lawyer that neither he nor the Keturn Judges had any power to reject votes, and still he takes upon himself the responsibility, and asked the Judges to sustain him in his fraud of throwing out 87 votes cast for Gen. Koontz, because he believed the loss of that number would defeat him, and knowing, in all probability, that the some course would be pursued in Adams county, Coffroths election would be secured.—But he will be mistaken.

There appears to be a grand system of frauds inaugurated, by which the Copperheads intended to disfranchize the soldiers, everywhere, from the sending of fraudulent ballots by the dry-goods box in New York, to the throwing out of their votes when returned to those, authorized to receive them.

"An Honest, Independent Man!"

The following notes are characteristic and are no doubt the product of the master mind, whose name stands at the bottom of the sequiter. Mr. Diehl's case is a hard one. He has been drafted twice, the first time he paid a commutation of three hundred dollars. The second time he was frightened out of his wits, and had became raving, before the decision was known, by which, all who had paid commutation, were exempted from the last draft. In this state of mind, he is made to put his name to a statement declaring that for the last year or so he has been thinking he was wrong and he can "now see nothing but a ruinous policy of abolitionists at Washington." What Mr. Diehl has been thinking of for "the last year or so" no one but himself can know.

But we do know, that up to the time of the last draft, he has been unsparing in his denunciations of rebels and copperheads, whom he usurlly classed together. Mr. Diehl is a man of many good qualities, and his present aberration of Union, makes him an object of sincere compassion to his former friends.

COLERAIN TOWNSHIP, October 26, 1864.

DEAR SIR: As an houest, indepenbent man, I address you this note, in view of our coming election. You are like me in being no politician, but what you are, because you have thought you were right. I thought so too until within the last year or so, but I ca see nothing in the future except a ruinous policy of abolitionists at Washington. Nothing to hope for but negro equality——the very doctrine that Jeff Davis & Co. want the men in the North to advocate, so that they can appeal to the prejudices and passions of their people and keep them united and us divided until they get their Confederacy. Lincoln could do no better thing for the South than urge his abolition scheme. And now, look at what is on your frm and mine . a national tax or mortgage of 30 or 40 cents on the dollar, and soon will be 50 or 60. We must pay 5 or 6 prices for what we buy, and get hardly two prices for what we raise, and things getting worse. Must we not have a change? I hope you will think so with me, without regard to politics or party tactics, and vote for a change weich cannot be worse. And also let us get rid of these miserable drafts, for I have no doubt that McClellan's election will secure peace on the 4th of March, with an effort at treaty to which we must come at last.

Yours, &c., H. P. DIEHL.

☞Cut this off and send the above to some Republican with whom it may have some influence. I have the original in my possession and Mr. Diehl's consent to use it. The truths are valuable to know,

O. E. SHANNON.

The above we hear has been freely circulated in in the county.

Aid for the Soldiers.

UNITED STATES SANITARY COMMISSION,
WOMAN'S PENNSYLVANIA BRANCH,
1307 CHESTNUT STREET.

PHILADELPHIA, 7th September, 1864.

To the Aid Societies and Individuals contributing to the Women's Pensylvaaia Baanch.

Your responce to our call for Blackberry Brandy has been most liberal. We are happy to state that we shall be fully able, we hope, to satisfy the demand. We know how much pleasure such information will give to those who so promptly sent what the soldier needed.

Again we make an appeal to our generous contributors, not as before for an immediate, but for a prospective want. God has blessed us with a great abundance of fruit and vegetables. Shall not our soldiers share His liberal gifts with us? We know that you are laying by a store of these articles for your own family use this winter. Will not every housekeeper add to what she is putting bp for her family a few cans of peaches and tomatoes for our soldiers?

This, too, is the season for putting up pickles. If cucumbers are gathered now and put in salt, they will be ready for pickling in October. We beg that they may not be allowed to rot on the vines, when they might prove such a comfort to our soldters. If sent to us in salt, we will gladly undertake to have them prepared with vinegar and spices in this city.

If scurvey appears next winter in our army, every body will wake up and want to do somathing. How much better to be in readiness. Besides, the oomfort of our poor fellows in the hospitals is largely promoted by haveing an abundance of canned fruits and vegitables. They will have them just so surely as you provide the Sanitary Commission with the means. We think the appropriation of funds to this purpose on the part of our Aid Societies will be timely and judicious, and the best work they can now do for the cause. The price of sugar need be no serious objection. One pound of sugar is sufficient for four or five pounds of peaches, and it is possible to put them up in tin cans to keep perfectly well with no sugar at all. The cans should be closely soldered. The cost of cans in this city is sixteen dollars per hundred. Let us have an abundance of both peaches and tomatoes, but especially the latter for next winter's use among our sick soldiers. Past experience teaches us not to question your responce.

MARIA C. GRIER,
Chairman Executive Committee.

BEDFORD COUNTY.

Soldiets' Vote of 1864, October 11.

Cong.	Judge.		Assembly.			Com.	Poor D.	Aud.
Koontz.	Coffroth.	King.	Kimmell.	Armstrong	Ross.	Meyers.	Findley.	Hull.	Werts.	Stuckey.	Davis.	Diehl.	Evans.
405	141	321	131	317	278	96	119	288	99	277	94	281	100

Koontz's majority 264. King's majority 190.

The above is the total vote at fifty three different places as tabled by Prothonotary Shannon.

At place No. 8, "Headquarters of Capt. Henry Wishart, Army of the James, Va.," and at place No. 23, "Barracks No. 1, Soldiors' Rest, D. C." the vote, which is included in the above, is as follows:

	Koontz.	Coffroth.	King.	Kimmell.	Armstrong	Ross.	Meyers.	Findley.	Hull.	Werts.	Stuckey.	Davis.	Diehl.	Evans.
No. 8,	34	18	34	20	32	32	18	18	23	12	23	12	23	12
" 23,	58	29	19	24	19	19	27	27	9	10	9	10	9	10

The vote at No. 8 for Koontz, Coffroth, King, Kimmell, Armstrong, Ross, Meyers and Findley was rejected by Proth. Shannon, and the vote at No. 23 for Koontz and Coffroth was also rejected by him. The loss to each by this unauthorized and illegal action of the Prothonotary is as follows: Koontz 92, Coffroth 47, King 34, Kimmel 20, Armstrong 32, Ross 32, Meyers 18, Findley 18.—Koontz's majority is thus reduced to 219 and Kings to 176. Why did the Prothonotary not throw out the whole of the vote at No. 8? Was it because the small majority of Hull, Stuckey and Diehl could not effect the result? Why did he reject only the vote for Koontz and Coffroth at No. 23? Was it because Kimmell and the other copperheads had a majority?

ADDRESS OF THE UNION STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

To the Loyal men of Pennsylvania.

ROOMS OF THE UNION STATE CENTRAL COM.,
PHILADELPHIA, October 21, 1864.

To the Loyal Men of Pennsylvania.—The smoke of the first engagement has cleared away, and upon the vote of her citizens at home Pennsylvania atands by the government of our fathers, while her brave sons in the field will not give less than twelve thousand majority for the good cause. The last hope, therefore, of the supporters of General McClellan has disappeared, and the only result of continuing to sustain him is to give aid and comfort to the rebellion by increasing the appearance of disunion among ourselves.

General Sheridan dealt a terrible blow to treason on Wednesday, and every patriots heart thrilled with joy upon hearing it; but a great majority for Abraham Lincoln in Pennsylvania would be far more fatal to the armed conspiracy against the Union and the Constitution. Every vote for our tried and faithful President will paralyze some arm raised to shoot down the flag, while every vote for the base surrender at Chicago, and the men who carry its white flag, will encourage some rebel to shoot another northern soldier. The ticket nominated by Vallandigham, Wood, and Seymour is now black with treason, and after it is voted will be red with the blood of our brothers fighting for us. The war has existed for the last year only by reason of our division, and its continuance to-day is solely owing to the activity of the disunion party of the north and the platform of its convention. While any hope remained of the election of its candidates, plausable excuses might be found by misguided men for giving them their suffrages; but after the verdicts of Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Ohio, Indiana, and Pennsylvania, all sensible persons know that the election is already decided by the people, and that it only remains to ascertain the majorities. It follows, therefore, that every vote for McClellan and Pendleton is an earnest invitation to Jefferson Davis to continue this fearful war to waste more of our treasure and to murder others of our sons,

The sublime spectacle of a united north will end the war. We invoke all parties to lend their efforts unceasingly to produce this result. By perfecting the ward and township organizations; by the circulation of documents; by publical dresses, especially by local speakers; by earnest personal efforts with honest but mistaken men; by making arrangements to bring every loyal voter to the polls; by sending tax receipts to every soldier and sailor; by the immediate formation of campaign clubs in every borough and community; by great meetings of the people by daylight and by torch-light, and by all the honest agencies of an active the thorough canvass appealing to the patriotic zeal and kindling the patriotic enthusiasm of a great and loyal commonwealth, we can attest the fealty of our State to the flag of the Union by a majority worthy of the historic character of the contest and of the great issues dependent upon it.

Forward, then, every lover of his country to this good work! Looking not to the past but to the future, forgetting all personal considerations, and appreciating the privilege of some sacrifice for Liberty and the Union, let us relax no effort until the polls are closed. This committee will continue to do its whole duty, and relies upon your instant, earnest and constant assistance.

Grant's march of valor and of glory from the Rapidan to the James sealed the fate of the rebellion. Since then Sherman has turned its left wing. Farragut is closing its avenue of escape. Sheridan has sent its vanguard again whirling down the valley. It only remains for us to sound the charge along the whole line, and wrapping our ballots around our brothers bullets, march to the peaceful, final triumph, which awaits us in November.

Proclaiming the war to be a failure, George B. McClellan is himself the great failure of the war—a general without a victory—a statesman without a record, and if we are faithful, history will add to his epitaph that he was a candidate for the Presidency without an electional vote. Let us all, therefore labor without ceasing. In memory of our buried martyrs, in regard for the wounds of our living heroes, to guard liberty from its deadly peril, and the Union from its treasonable foes, in the interest of religion, and in the hope of the republic of the future, loyal men of Pennsylvania, forward to victory!

In behalf of the Committee,

SIMON CAMERON,
Chairman.

A RECONNOISSANCE BY GRANT, THURSDAY.

The Rebels Attack Hancock--They are Gallantly Repulsed--Grant Wants Lee to Attack Him--Secretary Stanton's Dispatches—Good News from All Points.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, Oct. 28, 9 P. M.

Major Gen. John A. Dix: Dispatches from Gen. Grant, received this evening, inform the department that an advance in force, for the purpose of reconnoissance, was made Thursday by Gens. Warren and Hancock. In the evening, the enemy attacked Hancock vigorously, but were repulsed. The purpose being accomplished, the troops were withdrawn from the advanced positions to which they had been pushed to nearer their line of former occupation. The telegrams of Gen. Grant give all the details received:

CITY POINT, October 27, 9 P. M.—Hon. E. M. Stanton, secretary of war: I have just returned from the crossing of the Boydton plank road with Hatcher's Creek. Our line now extends from its former left to Armstron's mill, thence by the south bank of Hatcher's Creek to the point above named. At every point the enemy was found intrenched and his works manned. No attack was made during the day, further than to drive the pickets and cavalry inside of the main works.—Our casualities have been light, probably less than 200 killed, wounded and missing. The same is probably true with the enemy. We captured, however 7 loaded teams on their way from Stony Creek to the enemy, about a dozen beef cattle, a traveling forge and from 75 to 100 prisoners on our right. Butler extended around well towards the Yankton road without finding a point unguarded. I shall keep our troops where they are until toward noon, Friday, in hopes of inviting an attack. U. S. GRANT,
Lieut. Gen.

CITY POINT, October 28.—Hon. E. M. Stanton, Secretary of War: The attack on Gen. Hancock, now that a report is received, proves to be a decided success. He repulsed the enemy, and remained in his position holding possession of the field until midnight, when he commenced withdrswing. Orders had been given for the withdrawal of the 2d corps before the attack was made. We lost no prisoners except the usual stragglers, who are always picked up. Our captures for the day on the south side foot up 910. The rebel Gen. Dearing is reported killed. Gen. Meade in his report says—"I am induced to believe the success of the operation, which was most decided, was mainly owing to the personal exertions of Major Gen. Hancock and the conspicuous gallantry of Briz. Gen. Eagan." U. S. GRANT,
Lieutenant General.

Reports from Gen. Sherman's department to six o'clock this evening indicate that the rebel army is again threatening demonstrations against Tennessee, but there is no reason to doubt that Sherman and Thomas will be found prepared for whatever movement may take place.

The reports from Missouri and Arkansas concur in stating the defeat of Price, with heavy loss. EDWIN M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

BANNVART'S TROCHES,

For the cure of Hoarseness, Throat Diseases, &c., are especially recommended to Ministers, Singers and persons whose vocation calls them to speak in public.

Read the following

TESTIMONIALS,

from some of our Eminent Clergymen.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 8th, 1864.

C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges and other preparations for hoarseness and Throat Troubles, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds I have found them serving in time of need most effectually.

To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some gentle expectorant, and that want has been supplied in your excellent Troches. I consider them very far superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from its too frequent use, and impairing the effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses. Yours, &c.,

JNO. WALKER JACKSON,
Pastor of the Locust Street Methodist Church.

To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir:—Having used your Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried, and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with sore throat or huskiness of voice arising from public speaking or singing.

Yours, &c.,

G. G. RAKESTRAW,
Pastor of Ridge Avenue Methodist Church.

FOUTZ'S
CELEBRATED HORSE AND CATTLE
POWDERS.

THESE Powders have proved, after a trial of several years, to be superior to any preparation of the kind in use. The chief superiority of these powders arises from the fact that they are composed of medicines that have Laxative, Tonic and Purifying properties. The laxative ejects crudities from the stomach and intestines, the tonic gives strength to the system of the Horse, and the purifying medicines contained in them cleanse the blood, and lay the foundation for a vigorous and healthy circulation. The use of them improves the wind, strengthens the appetite and gives the horse a fine, smooth and glossy skin—thus improving the appearance, vigor and spirit of this noble animal.

These powders are
