McClellan received the smallest, vote of any pres dential candidate except Pickney the tederal candi date in 1804, who got only 14 votes.

The London Times suggests the probability that, republican electors being chosen, a majority of them may vote against Mr Lincoln after all. O segacious Times!

WHILE the deacons were taking up a contribution in a church in New Haven last Sunday a little girl asked her mother, "What do those men pass around corn-poppers for?"

A LOYAL YOUNG LADY.—We are informed that a young lady in Barree, on the day of the election, malked her McClellan beau to the polls and politely requested him to vote for Father Abraham, and he did'nt do anything else.—Hunt. Globe.

POLITENESS.—A bright little boy on hearing one of the Southern proclamations read; said recently 'Jeff Davis is so wonderfully polite, that when we catch him I think we had better ask him whether he would prefer to be hung to a sour or a sweet apple

The terror of the desert of Sahara is being removed by the application of science. In 1860 five wells had been opened, bringing fishes to the surface from a depth of 500 feet. Vegetation is springing up around the wells, and the "desert will blossom like the rose."

A GoodDefinition.—At a school for contraband children in nothern Alabama, the teacher used the phrase "common sense," and asked what it meant? The reply was prompt and decisive from a boy of ten: "Not to steal, to behave yourself, and not to cuss and swear."

An emancipation movement in Cuba, looks to the gradual abolition of slavery, all persons born of servile parents, after the first of next January, to become free at the age of twentyfour, and to be paid for their labour after reaching the age of twenty, at the rate of $102 per annum for four years.

Gone Nowhers.—A little girl who had learned that human beings have souls, but animals have not, recently lost her pet squirrel. She mourned his death bitterly, and when her mother suggested that she ought not to grieve so much at the loss of an animal, she said, pathetically: "I shouldn't care, mother, if Benny went anywhere—he just died and didn't go anywhere."

A PATRIOTIC CLERGYMAN. - Cotton Mather was fa-A PATRIOTIC CLERGYMAN.—Cotton Mather was famous, as many other clergymen have been, including Bishop South particularly, for the dexterous application of Scripture to current topics. A clergyman at Middletown, Ct., recently won notoriety by a happy use of the same quality. On the occasion of a Union torchlight demonstration, he displayed a transparency over his door, emblazoned with this quotation from Genesis 22: 15—"The angle of the Lord called unto Abraham out of heaven a second time.

CAN SHE HOLD OUT-The Weekly phoenix, of Phoe CAN SHE HOLD OUT—The Weekly phænix, of Phoenixville, Chester county, says that a young lady of East Vincent, that county had an offer of marriage from a young gentleman; as follows: That if General McClellan was elected he would marry her, to which she acceded, and if he was not elected she was to remain single four years longer. Four years is a long period in life to a marriageable young lady, and we have some doubts that—if she is handsome, and receives many reconsesses—she early hold onto and receives many proposals—she can't hold out.

A MOUNTAIN OF IRON .- An Immense iron mo A MOUNTAIN OF IRON.—An Immense iron mountain in the Lake Superior region, and about forty-five miles from the Sault 8 Marie, has been examined and surveyed, and is found to be six hundred feet above the level of the plain and nine hundred feet above the level of the lake. It will furnish an almost inexhaustible supply of rich iron ore. The mine was discovered by an Indian, who, in trapping, came to a tree which had been blown down, the upturned roots of which displayed the hidden wealth.

INSANE.-It is stated that Mr Richard Hildreth, INSANE.—It is stated that Mr Richard Hildreth, well known in literary circles in the United States, is said to have become hopelessly insane. Upon the accession of Mr. Lincoln, Mr. Hildreth—then in a very bad state of health—was appointed Consulate of Trieste, which position he still holds. His disease, softening of the brain, superinduced by excessive literary labor, has been gradually progressing for some years, until at length his intellect has been dethroned.

A HACK-DRIVER DOES WHAT LEE CAN'T.—An amusing fact occurred in New York on the visit of General Grant to that city on Monday. He took a hack to conduct him to his hotel. The driver, after depositing the general, gave his friends the following toast:—Here's til meself, Dennis Connelly 'the biggest man in Ameriky but one. I've driven the Lieutenant General of the United States, and its more than Bobby Lee ever did." The listeners appreciated the force of this sentiment and applauded the utterer.

The Mexican ladies place a certain kind of light The Mexican ladies place a certain kind of light ning-bug in their hair to imitate diamonds. Six of the insects were lately sent to Paris, and at a meeting of the Academy of Sciences experiments were made as to the light emitted, and an analysis of its quality. It is proved to be sufficiently strong to admit of reading by the light of one cucujo, which, although of the nature of that of the glowworm, exceeds it in intensity and steadiness, casts no shadow, and has a slightly yellow tinge. Serious efforts are to be made to acclimatize and propagate these insectes bijoux.

TEMPER AND THE VOICE.—The Influence of tem per upon tone deserves much consideration. Habits of quarrelsomeness or ill-nature will communicate a cat-like quality to the singing voice, as infalibly as they give a quality to the speaking voice. That there really exist amiable tones is not an unfounded opinion. In the voice is no deception; it is to many the index of the mind, denoting moral qualities: the index of the mind, denoting moral qualities; and it may be remarked that the low; soft tones of gentle and amiable beings, whatever their musical endowments may be, seldom fail to please; besides which, the singing of ladies indicates the cultivation of their taste generally, and the embellishment

VANDALISM.—The Washington Star says: Person of both sexes have been guilty of clipping pieces from the window curtains, sofa, lounge and chair covers at the President's house. They even go so far as to pull the papering from the walls, and even to steal heavy blankets from the windows and tassels from the curtains. The curtians in the East and Green rooms are very badly cut up, and nineteen out of twenty blankets stolen from the east room alone. This practise is indulged with a view to secure relics of visits to the President's Mansion, and ladies and gentlemen of high standing have been detected in it. Three ladies, whose names are not made known, have been cought in the act within a few days. have been caught in the act within a few days, one of whom fainted when discovered. The annoyance has grown so great that proper measures have been taken to prevent a repetition of the offences.

An Eccentric Hen.—In a stable on the farm of Mr Gerland of Fayette county, Pa., are three little pigs, probably six weeks old. One, which we call a "titman," generally takes the middle berth when turned in for a snooze. As soon as the mother was removed from the pigs an old white hen took upher quarters with them, and seemed determined to make them comfortable, manifesting in all respects the same care and attachment that a hen does to her brood, clucking and calling them when finding a good morsel; and to carry out fully her motherly care, she broods them as she would over chickens. She does this by getting astride of the little one, which lies in the middle, and extending her wings so as to cover those on either side. No amount of force or moral-suasion will force her to leave her adopted family, but if the pigs are interfered with in any way, she is ready to fight their battles as though they belorged to the feathered tribe. Pretty well done for Mrs Biddy.—American Agriculturist.

Maggie-"O Maria, how do you do? How delighted
I am to see you. How have you been since you were at the ball last Thursday evening? Wasn't the appearance of that tall girl in pink perfectly frightful? Is this your shawl on the piano? Beautisul shawl!
Father says he is going to send to Paris to get me a shawl in the spring. I can't bear home-made shawls.
How do you like Monsieur Esprey? Beautiful man, ain't le? Now don't laugh, Maria, for I am sure I don't care anything about him! Oh, my! I must be going. It's a beautiful day, isn't it? Maria, when are you coming up to see me? Oh what a beautiful pin!
That pin was given to you; now I know it was, Maria, don't deny it. Harry is coming up to see me this evening, but I hate him—I do really; but he has a beatiful mustache, hasn't he Maria? Oh, dear, it's very warm. Good morning Maria! Don't speak of Harry in connection with my name to any one, for Harry in connection with my name to any one, for I am sure it wont amount to anything, but I hate him awfully—I'm sure I do. Adieu."

Thorough theoretical and practical instruction in all branches pertaining to a finished Business Education. The Philadelphia College stands first in the State, both in point of reputation and local advantages. The point aimed atis; to place Commercial Education where it belongs—in the front rank of useful instruction. To this end a most thorough course of busines training is adopted and carefully enforced, under the personal supervision of competent Professors in the various departments. The most perfect system of practical training over devised has been put in operation, and is successfully carried out, affording to students advantages such as have hitherto been considered possible only in connection with the counting house. After becoming proficient in the science of Accounts, Penmanship, Commercial Calculations and Commercial Law, the student is advanced to the Practical Department, where he becomes an actual Book-keeper and Merchant; passes through the different Houses; acts in turn as Teller, Cashier, &c.; learns the duties and responsibilities of each office, and becomes thoroughly informed not only in the forms which are in universal use, but in orner of Seventh and Chesnut Streets, New York,

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU.

WM. DIBERT, PROPRIETOR.

THE subscriber would respectfully announce to his friends in Bedford County, and the public generally that he has leased for a term of years, this large and convenient brick hotel, at the corner of Pitt and Julianna Streets, Bedford Pa., known as the WASHINGTON HOTEL, and formerly kept by Mrs. Filler.

This Houce is being thoroughly re-fitted and re-furnished, and is now opened for the reception of guests.—Visitors to the BEDFORD SPRINGS, and persons attending Court, will find this House a pleasant and quiet temporary home. Every attention will be paid to the accommodation and comfort of guests.

The TABLE will at all times be supplied with the best the markets afford. Charges will be moderate.

Extensive Stabling is attached to this Hotel, and a careful and competent Hostler will be in attendence.

Special attention will be paid to the accommodation of the farming community.

Coaches leave this House Daily, (Sundays excepted) at 6½ o'clock, A. M. and 2 o'clock P. M., to connect with the trains going East, from Mount Dallas Station and Bloody Run. A coach will also leave tri-weekly, (Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday) for Somerset. The traveling public will find it decidedly to their advantage to stop with him.

WILLIAM DIBERT. For Weakness arising from Excesses, habits of dissipa-ion, Early Indiscretion of Abuse, attended with the fol-owing symptoms:— Indisposition to exertion, Loss of power, Loss of mem-ry, Difficulty of breathing, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Herror of disense, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Pain in the back, Universal lassitude of the Muscular system Hot hands, Flushing of the body, Dryness of the akin, Eruptions of the face, Pallid countenance.

There symptoms, if allowed to go on, which this medicine invariably removes; soon follows impotency, fatuity epileptic fits, in one of which the patient may expire.—Who will say they are not frequently followed by those direful diseases, insanity and consumption. Many are aware of the cause of their sufering but none will confess the records of the insane assylums. And metanetholy deaths by Consumption bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion. The constitution once affected with organic Weakness requires the aid of Medicine to Strengthen and Invigorate the system, which Hembold's extract buchu invariably does. A trial will convince the most skep tical.
