The form of "proportions" taken we snppose, by oil fevers at certain stages. From researches quietly made it has been discovered that coal oil does exist (to what extent has not yet been ascertained) in various parts of our county, and already the representiatves of an established company-what company we do not know-are on the ground taking leases of the various tracts of land surrounding our town, ing year ..... with the understanding we are informed, that operations shall be commenced at an early day.

HONORABLY DISCHARGED.-First Lieut. M. P. Honorably Discharged.—First Lieut. M. P.
Doyle of Schellsburg of the 21st Cavalry, Co. I, has been honorably discharged the service by reason of disability. Lieut. D. was twice wounded during the late campaign; the last wound was received ring the late campaign; the last wound was received.

This comparison is made not in disparagement of the compariso ficer. The best wisher of the regiment go with to show that the growth of the trade of the Broad Top

"Our Young Folks." for February is very entertaining. An hour's perusal attested to us the interest of three of its articles. "David Matson :" Portrait," and "Trapper in a tree." The first is by John G. Whitteir. A sailor makes a voyage to the Mediterranean, is captured on the Barbary coast, and held in slavery a number of years. He is liberated and on his return home with presents to his wife and boys, he learned at an intermediate Port (from her husband) that she is married again. "God is great" said poor David Matson. His will be done.

Rev. E. W. Kirby, Mr. Wm. Barkla, of Lock Haves Pa., to Miss Caroline C. Potts, of Bedford, Pa. I loved her; but I shall never see her again. Give these with my blessing to her and the boys' and he handed over with a sigh the little bundle containing the gifts for his wife and children. "He shook hands with his rival. "Peletiah" said he looking back as he left the ship, "be kind to Anna and my boys." The story is suggested by "Enoch Arden," and the writer, considering who he is, makes a singularly inaccurate statement in regard to that poem .-He says "who of my young friends have read the sorrowful story of "Enoch Arden," So sweetly and simply told by the great English Poet. It is the story of a man who went to sea leaving behind a sweet young wife and little daughter." Enoch Arden are the sweet young wife and little daughter. COPPERHEAD CAGED. -- For months past; or, eve since the September draft, one J. Nelson Sipes, Esq., the embodiment of Peace Democracy; the man who that he might have his name stricken off the enrollment previous to the nine month's draft, declared upon his oath that were his wife or children to be assaulted in his presence, and brutally ill-treated before his face, he would not, in retalia tion, raise his hand for their defence, so everlasting peaceful was he; the man too, whom the Locofoc party of Fulton county, because of his opposition to the Government, looked upon but as a "little lower than the angels;" and the very same man whom these same Locofocos at the late October Election, notwithstanding their knowledge of the fact that even then he was skulking among the mountains, a fugitive from the draft, a disgrace to his friendes and family, elevated to the position of District Attorney, has eluded the vigilance of the Provost Marshal and the Military. But at last Nel-Patriot was printed, are fer sale. The material is nearly son has "come to grief." On Saturday last a squad of Military, under the command of Special new, having been used only five months. It consists of Agent Hoke, while out on a scout, discovered the a very full assortment of newspaper and job types, a non-acting Dist. Aty. making tracks through a Washington press, cases, stands, rolers, &c., altogether wood. Chase was made, and soon the game was forming a very complete selection for a country newspaper. overhauled and captured. He was brought to town under a select military escort, and temporarily lodged in that burglar proof building familiarly yeleyed "the jail." Here he was kept until Mon day morning when he was taken to Chambersburg from whence, doubtless, he will speedily be sent to "the front." - Fulton Republican.
