A Savannah belle stepped off the sidewalk th

A Savannan belie stepped on the sidewalk the other day, with a pouting expression, to avoid walking under an American flag which hung in front of an officer's headquarters. General Geary, military commandant of the city, immediately gave orders to have her promenade back and forth under the hateful symbol for an hour, as a warning for simi-A KISS A VALID CONSIDERATION. - A Wester

A Kiss a Valid Consideration.—A Western Court has recently decided that a kiss is a valid consideration. It seems that an old bachelor offered ayoung lady, a pony for a kiss. The young damsel accepted the offer, and gave the kiss; but the mean curmudgeon, after receiving the oscillatory salute, refused to stand by his part of the contract. A snit was therefore entered, and the jury decided that the pony, or its value, should be given to the girl.

GOLDIN CONNECTICUT. - Dr. Keith, the well-know GOLDIN CONNECTION.—Dr. Keith, the well-known mineralogist, and the owner of a tract of land in Greenwich, Connecticut, has discovered upon it a gold vein, which he is at present actively engaged in mining. One piece alone of the precious metal was brought to this city, and valued at over $600. The land in which this discovery was made, was former ly mined for copper ore, a considerable quantity of which was at one time dug out.—New York Paper

RELATIVES OF REBELS.—The registration of sout RELATIVES OF REBELS.—The registration of southerners in this department has developed the fact, previously well understood, however, that there are many near relatives of rebels in the field residing in this city. Among these are the wives of Generals Gustavus W. Smith and Mansfield Lovell, three sisters of General Cheatham, and many others. Steps are being taken to place them under due surveillance.—N. Y. Tribunc.

Conversation.—Sincere and happy conversation doubles our power. In the effort to unfold our thought to a friend we make it clearer to ourselves. Conversation fills all gaps, supplies all deficiencies; but the defects of men hinder this Paradise. Very rare are the high and fine gifts which make its perfection. The scholar, the philosopher, is probably an unmagetic man, and cannot conform his conversation with his genius; he sits and suffers. The French say, "He is a blockhead; he is nothing but a genius." — Emerson.

Persons losing themselves in the forest or in a snow storm, manifest invariably a tendency to turn round gradually to the left, to the extenteven of eventually moving in a circle. The explanation is probably that the limbs and muscles of the right side are generally better developed than those of the left side; and under the excitement felt when one is lost, and in the absence of any guiding line, the superior energy of the right limbs throws the pedestrian insensibly round to the left.

ANTI-SLAVERY FEELING IN CUBA. - General Grid uoraria has presented to the President a copy of a letter received by him Cuba, detailing the progress of the anti-slavery feeling in that island. It is stated that the native Cubans are nearly unanimous in favor of gradual emancipation, while the Spaniards and slave traders are opposed to it. The question is causing considerable agitation and excitement in the island, but the abolition sentiment is steadily existing around

A LITTLE MIXED .- The celebrated speech of Sir A LITTLE MIXED.—The celebrated speech of Sir Boyle Roche: "Mr Speaker, I smell a rat; I see him floating in the air; but mark me, I shall yet nip him in the bud," was evidently the model upon which a writer in Kansas framed, the other day, some remarks upon the recent election. The Leavenworth Conservative says that, by the result of the election, which the last convention has been directly described. "the fall of corruption has been dispelled, and the wheels of the State government will no longer be trammelled by sharks that have beset the public was immediately deposited in a cigar box.

ANOTHER ANTEDILUTIAN FROG.—The Eric Dispetch says that probably the oldest inhabitant in Pennsylvania was discovered in a stone in that town last Thursday. It was a living frog about an inch long, which was taken from a piece of bituminous coal that one of the employees of the store had broken for the purpose of burning. His escape from a torturing death was almost providential, and it is a cause of satisfaction that he escaped a death so ignominious after having lived so long and quitely. His advent into the outer world was witnessed by four or five gentlemen connected with the establishment, and he was immediately deposited in a cigar box.

O!—A loguacious sentleman finding binself apass.

O!—A loquacious gentleman finding himself a passenger in a stage-coach with no one but a primand tacturn maiden lady of some forty winters, endeavored in vain to engage in conversation. At length night came; as nothing was said, both fell asleep. The stage finally stopped, and the driver announced to the lady that she had arrived at her place of destination. Her fellow passenger being awakened at the same time, thought he would compel the lady to exchange a word at parting, and addressed her: "Madam, as we shall never again, probably, sleep in the same room together, I bid you a very respectful farewell." A scream, and silence reigned again.

Husband and Wife.—A man is a good husband, you say. It is well. But what would he have been with another wife? No husband at all, perhaps, or worse than none. His goodness is his wife's, or more his wife's than his. It is well, we say, that under any influences he can be good; but let him not take all the credit of his goodness to himself. The bigger share is due to his better half. Some might be good, if tried, to two or three in succession; some, but to one; and some, alas to none. A woman is a good wife. This, too, is well. But how much of her goodness is her husband's? she cannot tell. Perhaps one-half. Perhaps two-thirds. Then let her not be proud. Let her keep from boasting. Let her cherish modest thoughts of herself, form charitable judgements of others, and her virtue will be all the greater, and her comfort all the safer. all the safer.

The Avengers of the Seas.—The following from Abbot's Life of Napoleon Bonaparte is a curious reminiscence: "After the emperor had declared his intention of going to the United States, the Baron Fluery said: 'But will the English allow to cultivate your fields in peace? You have made England tremble. As long as you are alive, or at liberty, she will dread your genius. The Americans love and admire you. You have great influence over them. You might perhaps excite to enterprises tatal to England.' What enterprises?' replied the emperor. 'The English well know that Americans would lose their lives to a man in defense of their native soil. But they are not fond of carrying on a foreign warfare. They are not yet arrived at a pitch to give the English any serious uneasiness. At some future day, perhaps, they will be the 'avengers of the seas.'" THE AVENGERS OF THE SEAS .- The following from

O YES! ANOTHER O YES! THE undersigned have entered into a Partnership in the AUCTIONEERING AND SALE-CRYING

FOUTZ'S CELEBRATED HORSE AND CATTLE

POWDERS.

THESE Powders have proved, after a trial of several years, to be superior to any preparation of the kind in use. The chief superiority of these powders arises from the fact that they are eculposed of medicines that have Laxstive. Tonic and Purifying properties. The laxative ejects crudities from the stomach and intestines, the tonic gives strength to the system of the Horse, and the purifying naedicines contained in them cleanse the blood, and lay the foundation for a vigorous and healthy circulation. The use of them improves the wind, strengthens the appetite and gives the horse a fine, smooth and glossy skin—thus improving the appearance, vigor and spirit of this noble animal.

These powders are not intended, as most powders are to bloat the animal, so as to give him the appearance of being fat when not really so—but to remove the disease and promote his general health.

These powders will strengthen the stomach and intestines, cleanse them from offensive matter, and bring them to a healthy state. They are a sure prevention of Lung Fever, and a certain remedy for all diseases incident to the Horse, as Glanders, Yellow Water, Distempers, Founder, Heaves, Slavering, Coughs, Fevers Loss of Appetite and Vital Energy, &c.—These powders, if used two or three times a week, through the winter and spring, your horses will never get the Lung Fever Coric or Botts. A few doses of these powders will remove the worst cough, on any horse. Were owners of horses to feed a few of these powders very year, they might save the lives of many valuable horses.

MILCH COWS.

The properties this powder possesses in increasing the quantity of milk in cows, gives it an importance and value which should place it in the hands of every person keeping a cow. In fattening cattle, it gives them an appetite, loosens their hide, and makes them thrive much HOGS.

In all diseases of swine, as coughs, ulcers in the lungs and liver, &c., by putting from half a paper to a paper of these powders in a barrel of swill, the above diseases can be cured or entirely prevented. By using these powders the hog cholera can be prevented.

HARRISBURG, Feb. Sth, 1864.

C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges and other preparations for hoarseness and Throat Troubles, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of Hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of need most effectually.

To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal drgans are very much taxed, I have found the need of some gentle expectorant, and that want has been supplied in your excellent Troches. I consider them very far superior to any Lozengee that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from its too frequent, use, and impairing the effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses.

Yours, &c.,

Pastor of the Locust Street Methodist Church.

To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir:—Having used your Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried, and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with sour throat or huskiness of voice arising from public speaking or singing.

Yours, &c.,

Pastor of Ridge Acenue Methodist Church.

Sea I agree with Mr. Robinson as to the value of Bannvart's Troches.
