The gold incomes of San Francisco amount to $13,000,000. The snow is deeper in northern New York than it has been for several years. Petrifed honey has been found in Nevada, sixteen feet below the surface of the soil.

The Province of New Brunswick has issued a greenback in the shape of a three-dollar note. It is proposed to start a daily paper in Chicago with a capital of $500,000, of which sum $250,000 has been subscribed.

Russia has direct telegraphic communication with India. A line passes direct to Teheran, and thence to the Persian Gulf submarine cable. Russia has also reached the frontier China with her eastern line.

A young lady of Greenwood, Me., died a short time since on the day she was to be married, and in ten days afterward her intended husband died with the same disease—diphtheria.

Holland papers, so the London journals say, claim General Sherman as a native of that country, who emigrated to America after a commercial failure in Amsterdam. It is sufficient to dispose of that claim to say that General Sherman is a lineal descendant of Roger Sherman, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence.

A correspondent of the Montreal Gazette says that the ports of Canada are in a state of blockade. Windsor, Toronto, Hamilton, Kingston and Montreal are as effectually blockaded by the passport system of President Lincoln as they possibly could be by his gunboat system, should those gunboats ever be built.

Advices from the tobacco growing districts of Missouri state that the crop of that article raised this year will be small—smaller, perhaps than any yielded for twenty years. The apprehension of a tax on the leaf, and a feeling of uncertainty caused by the predictions of another season of guerrilla operations the coming summer, are said to be the cause that will curtail the crop.

SPRUCE UP.—If you get a moment to spare, spruce up—the gate on its hinges, put a little paint on the picket fence you built last year, make it cosy and inviting; don't say you can't find time for these things. The fact is you have no time to grow slovenly. Your wife and children will be happier, your farm will sell for more money in the market, and be worth more to you at home, if you devote an odd hour now and then in sprucing up.

A man came to the Duke of Wellington with a patented article. "What have you to offer?" "A bullet-proof jacket, your grace. "Put it on." The inventor obeyed. The duke rang a bell. An aide-de-camp presented himself. "Tell the captain of the guard to order one of his men to load with ball cartridge." The inventor disappeared, and was never seen near the Horse Guards. No money wasted in trying that invention.

A Vienna Journal relates a droll story. A young man, who was paying assiduous court to the wife of a dyer, had the misfortune to be caught by the enraged husband, who called his workmen about him, and without any ceremony, the gallant was plunged into a cauldron prepared for imparting a true blue color to various fabrics. In a second the unfortunate youth had acquired such a tint that he dared not appear in public. His friends implored the dyer to restore the poor fellow to his natural hue; but the pitiless answer was, "It is impossible. He is a beautiful color, and all I can do for him is to change him to a green or violet."

A NEW WAR IN INDIA.—The English have another Indian war on their hands. It is not a mutiny that is to be suppressed this time, but an independent State, never under British rule, that is to be conquered and "annexed." Bhootan, a poor and isolated State, hitherto exempt from the ravages of foreign wars, has not only turned the cold shoulder to an envoy from England, who penetrated its dreary wastes, but actually threatened him, so that he conceived that his life was in danger, and hastily retired. For this and other offenses England declares war against Bhootan, and the Bhootans are to be footed down the hill of adversity.

A CAT DENTIST.—A true tale is told of Mr. Slipheimer, the famous Saxon dentist. He had a valuable tortoise-shell cat, that for days did nothing but moan. Guessing the cause, he looked into his mouth, and seeing a decayed tooth, he soon relieved it of its pain. The following day there were at least ten cats at his door; the day after, twenty; and they went on increasing at such a rate that he was obliged to keep a bull-dog to drive them away, but nothing would help him. A cat that had the toothache would come any number of miles to see him. It would come down the chimney even, and not leave the room till he had taken its tooth out. It grew to be such a nuisance at last that he was never free from one of those feline patients. However, being one morning very nervous, he accidentally broke the jaw of an old tabby. The news of this spread like wildfire. Not a single cat ever came to him afterward. This is related as true.

DON'T FORGET YOUR GIRLS.—When lived among the Choctaw Indians, (says a traveler,) I held a consultation with one of their chiefs respecting the stages of their progress in the arts of civilized life, and among other things he informed me that at their start they made a great mistake—they only sent their boys to school. These boys came home intelligent men, but they married uneducated and uncivilized wives; and the uniform result was the children were all like their mothers. The father soon lost all his interest both in wife and children. And now, said he, if we would educate but one class of our children we should choose the girls, for when they become mothers, they educate their sons. This is the point, and it is true. No nation can become fully enlightened when mothers are not qualified to discharge the duties of home work of education.—Parents, give your daughters, as well as your sons, the best education in your power.

TRUTH STRANGER THAN FICTION.—The Doylestown (Pa.) Democrat prints the annexed historic strange, and vouches for its truth. A few years ago there was living in a northern county in Pennsylvania a poor family. The mother was fond of reading. One day a pedlar came along with books to sell, which she wanted, but was unable to buy, for she had no money. He asked her if she had nothing to give in exchange for them, and she said nothing but her children. He said he would take one of them, and a bargain was struck for a fine looking boy. The pedlar dressed him up nicely, and took him off. Years rolled round, and the child was not heard from. He had become almost as one dead. Within a very few months a gentleman living at the county seat of this same county, one night dreamed a dream. He dreamed that somebody had died and left a legacy of six or seven thousand dollars to the brother of the little boy given away for the books, and who was now doing business in this same town. In the morning he told the brother of his dream, who laughed, and said that he knew no one who would leave him that amount of money. A few days afterward the brother received notice by mail that he had been left a legacy of seven thousand dollars, and it was by the little boy who had been taken away by the pedlar. He had settled in the west, and done well, and had died or been killed in the army, after making a will in favor of his brother.
