Whilst it is proper that newspapers should lay before their readers impartial accounts of the proceedings of the Courts, it is exceedingly to be desired that nothing should be published tending to prejudice the minds of the public, from whom jurors are to be selected, in regard to a case yet to

It is not to be supposed that our Copperhead ed statement of the facts in the Trout case forbids any such idea.

Whether the man, or men, who shot Frederick gainst the laws, and whether, if guilty, the the present. No rational persons can now se offence was murder in the first, or in the second bunal before which they may be tried, and the declining prop of the Rebellion. declaration of the Gazette that "There should be no hesitation on the part of any jury called to try these men, to convict them of murder in the first degree," is a continuous manifestation of the same partisan malignity which originated and prosecuted the indictments against the Trouts. The officers of the law are urged to do their duty. No doubt they will do so without being hounded on by the Gazette, whose officious intermeddling they ought to regard as an impertinent and insulting imputation on their character. We advert to the article of our cotemporary, for the purpose of correcting two misrepresents tions. The remainder of its tissue of fabrications are of no moment, in view of the fact that we published a fair account of the case in last week's paper, and also the evidence, in extenso, in our issues of last week and this week. The Gazette avers that Judge King, in his charge to the Jury,

"That soldiers in a body had no business at the election polls, that their presence there was clearly an infraction of the law, and that he hoped they never would be found there again. Also, that the Sheriff had a perfect right to issue the proclamation which he did issue, calling upon the people to prevent armed violence at the polls."

Judge King is far too skillful a Jurist to have asserted either the one or the other of these propositions. In the first place the issue before the Court was the guilt or innocence of James A. Trout. The expression of an opinion by a judge on a point of law foreign to the issue, is a mere dictum, regarded as of no weight as authority, and exceedingly unprofessional and objectionable as likely to be embarrassing when the point fairly arrises for consideration and adjudication. In the second place it did not appear in the evidence, and it is not the fact, that the soldiers were present, in a body, or individually, at the polls, nor that they did, or attempted to do, anything calculated or intended to interfere in any way with the election. It is true they were at Gideon Trout's house, ate their meals there, had their arms stacked on his side porch, and their horses in his stable; and Trout's house is, perhaps, about one hundred yards from the place of election. Their object was to arrest deserters, and the nearest they were to the election house during the hours of the election was in passing on the public highway, at some distance off, in their way to the Ridge, where it was said some deserters were lurking.

But can it be controverted that the Government has the right to arrest deserters wherever they can be found, though that should be at the place of election itself? And any state law in controven tion of this right (if there were any such, which we deny) would be utterly inoperative and void. It will be some time before our designing contem porary perverts Judge King into a states-rights Democrat. The meaning of our state law clearly is, that no body of troops shall be present at the polls to interfere in any way with the election.-Will it be alleged that they might not be brought there under order of the proper authority to quell year, and can be cut off from the note, and will be General Meade had found it necessary to march National or other Bank or Banker. into Gettysburg on election day, ought he to have 4th Question. When must the Government pay been met by a proclamation from the Sheriff of off these 7-30s? Adam's county, calling upon the people to arm and drive him out? The object of a law, the intent of the law-givers, and the condition of the country, are to be looked at in giving it a fair construction. Qui haeret in litera, haeret in cortice.

And this brings us to the proclamation of the Sheriff which the Gazette says Judge King travelknown that several hundred drafted men in this county had failed to report; that many of them were concealed in the woods and mountains, and that some were organized into armed bands for the purpose of resistance: that the draft was denounced by party leaders as tyrannical and unconstitutional, and that it was an object of vital importance to these party leaders to get the vote of these deserters. Hence the cry a free ballot or a free fight. Hence the call upon Democrats to go arm ed to the polls. Hence this proclamation of the Sheriff. It was a mere political trick, well calcu lated to result in disturbance and riots. The alle gation that the Government intended to interfere with the ballot was a reckless partisan falsehood. What do these partisan leaders care for law, except as a means for party success? We are informed that in Londonderry township the polls were opened before the lawful hour, to let in the votes ding to the rate of taxation in varius localities. All of deserters, and again in the evening after they were closed, they were secretly re-opened for the States, and all mortgages, &c., are taxed, not onsame purpose.

Every man owes allegiance to his country. He Cities is bound by Divine as well as by Human law to defend his Government when it is assaulted by foreign foe or by domestic treason. Those who refuse to discharge their duty to their country in its hour of need do not deserve the right of suffrage. And this attempt to inspirit deserters so that they might venture from thier hiding places to the polls under the belief that armed Democrats would protect them from arrest, deserves the condemnation of all right thinking citizens.

HON. A. H. COFFROTH.

Perhaps no public man has lately been more scundly and, as we believe, more unjustly abused by the disunion organs of this Congressional District, than the one whose name forms the subject of our present article.

When we remember that only a few short months ago, A. H. Coffroth stood so high in the affections, and his name dwelt on the tongues, of the loudmouthed politicians of the once proud Democratic of principal and interest. How foolish these peoparty, that from them he received the most ful- ple are, who keep their gold and greenbacks idle Treason. some panegyric, and that they endeavoied by the and locked up, or purchase mortgages or railroad lowest chicanery and the vilest frauds that were stocks and bonds, which pay only 5 or 6 per cent ever perpetrated in our midst, to elevate this very interest, when these Seven-Thirties pay (counting, man to the position which he must shortly yield to the premium on Five-Twenties,) over ten per cent. his successful competitor, we are surprised. But and are so much safer and surer when we hear the great chieftain of the chivalry 9th Question. How many Seven-Thirties are of this County boldly declare in a public speech there, and how much remains unsold? that he hoped that Gen. Koontz would obtain his Answer. Coffroth was legally elected and that his enemies sought to "defraud" him of his seat, we are led to think-

"Can these things be, And overcome us like a summer's cloud, Without our special wonder?"

We confess that our astonishment finds no bounds when we observe the tenacity with which cotemporary cares for such a consideration. The so many of our Democratic friends cling to what utter disregard of truth exhibited in the pervert- the New York World denominates "the dead car cass of slavery." That same old worn-out motto 'The Union as it was, and the Constitution as it is," is ever unceasingly, harped upon by these C. But, alas, for our modern Democrats when sla very is abolished and removed from our statute books, the consequent rights of "their Southren brethren," will likewise disappear in gossamer, and they will then be unable to avail themselves of any pretext to justify secession and treason and to withhold their support to the Government and to the maintainance of the due supremacy of the laws. We do not intend to become the advocate nor even the apologist of A. H. Coffroth, but we are constrained to say that his present vote has done more to redeem his character as a statesman and to give him place and confidence than all his past acts combined. We believe that those sixteen Democrats in Congress who, for the time, forgetting party and looking only to country, have each rendered their names historic, and will ever be gratefully remembered by posterity. The men of to-day may despise them, but coming generations will bless their memory. The eulogiums of time-serving and truculent politicians may not be theirs to enjoy, but after poets will celebrate their praises, and future historians will embalm their nemory in an immortality of freshness and glory. Having cut loose from that foul institution which has engendered and fostered all our woes, they now belong to Freedom and compose the true roll of

If they are worth no more at the end of the two years and a h alf, when you have the right to them, than they now are, this premium added to the interest you receive, will give you "at least 10 per cent per annum for your money-but the opinion is that they will be worth more than 9 per cent premium at that time

7th Question. What other advantage is there in investing in the 7-30 Loan?

Answer. It cannot be taxed by States, Counti or Cities, and this adds from one to three per cent. per annum to the net income of the holder, accorbonds and stocks, except those of the United ly by the Government, but by States, Counties and 8th Question. How does the Government raise the money to pay the interest, and is it safe and

Answer. The Government collects, by taxes, internal revenue, and duties and imports, fully three hundred millions each year. ## ARMY CORRESPONDENCE.

HEAD QUARTERS 138 PENN'A. VOLS., 2D BRIG., 3D DIVISION, 6TH A. C., FORT DUSHANE, FEB., 8TH, 1865. FRIEND S-

I thought a few lines from a old friend would not come amiss. There has been a good bit said about peace, now I will give my opinion on the subject. I can congratulate the country that we are soon to have, not a mean cowardly, dishonorable peace, obtained by compromise with miserable traitors whose hands are red with the nation's best blood, but an honorable beace obtained in the field, and on the sea, by our gallant armies and navy. Such a peace is within our reach. We only have to put forth our hands and secure it. I am glad to know that regardless of the attempt of Jeff Davis to gain time by sending three the shrewdest traitors in the South to Fortress Monroe to talk and argue with Representatives of this government, General Grant is now moving his peacemakers against Wilmington and Charleston, whilst Lee is helpless in the pent up Utica of Richmond, upon the battlements of which will soon float the emblems of peace, placed there by the General-in-Chief of the Rebel armies as a signal of capitulation. In the West and Southwest our armies are not in winter quarters, but on the march. Victory is before them everywhere. I am glad to observe country, whose opinion is worth a pinch of snuff, are decidedly against any peace that would not be alike honorable to the army and navy, and the loyal people of the United States. The latter in re electing Abraham Lincoln to the presidency, solemply declared at the ballot box in favor of conquering a peace, in favor of forcing armed traitors against their legitimate government to lay down their arms and submit to the laws, in favor of the complete abolition of slavery in every State from and all that we have is firmly held for the payment the British Provinces to Mexico, and in favor of punishing the leading rebels for the high crime of

This is the only programme of settlement that will satisfy the loyal people of the nation. worth having. Their first business if at large again would be to plot another rebellion. This must not be, and I have faith enough in the wisdom and sound statesmanship of those to whom this matter is entrusted to assert that I know it will not be. To General Grant we turn for the peace after which all are yearning, that will be lesting, and which all true patriots will hail with joy, a peace that we can hand down to our children with safety and with pride, a peace that will not reflect dishonor upon the memory of our gallast dead, nor bring a blush to the cheeks of a single soldier or sailor who bravely offered their lives upon sea and land for their country's salvation. Such a peace is at hand, and such a peace only will be dignified and honorable to us as a na tion in the eyes of the world.

FOUTZ'S

CELEBRATED HORSE AND CATTLE

POWDERS.

THESE Powders have proved, after a trial of several years, to be superior to any preparation of the kind in use. The chief superiority of these powders arises from the fact that they are composed of medicines that have Laxative, Tonic and Purifying properties. The laxative ejects crudities from the stomach and intestines, the tonic gives strength to the system of the Horse, and the purifying medicines contained in them cleanse the bleod, and lay the foundatine for a vigorous and healthy circulation. The use of them improves the wind, strengthens the appetite and gives the horse a fine, smooth and glossy skin—thus improving the appearance, vigor and spirit of this noble unimal.

These powders are not intended, as most powders are to bloat the animal, so as to give him the appearance of being fat when not really so—but to remove the disease and promote his general health.

These powders will strengthen the stomach and intestines, cleanse them from offensive matter, and bring them to a healthy state. They are a sure prevention of Lung Fever, and a certain remedy for all diseases incident to the Horse, as Glanders, I clow Water, Distempers, Founder, Heaves, Slavering, Coughs, Fevers Loss or Appetite and Vital Energy, &c.—These powders, if used two or three times a week, through the winter and spring, your horses will never get the Lung Fever Coric or Botts. A few doses of these powders will remove the worst cough, on any horse. Were owners, of horses to feed a few of these powders vill remove the worst cough, on any horse. Were owners, of horses to feed a few of these powders will remove the worst cough, on any horse.

MILCH COWS.

The properties this powder possesses in increasing the quantity of milk in cows, gives it an importance and value which should place it in the hands of every person keeping a cow. In fattening cattle, it gives them an appetite, loosens their hide, and makes them thrive much

HOGS.

In all diseases of swine, as coughs, ulcers in the lungs and liver, &c., by putting from half a paper to a paper of these powders in a barrel of swill, the above diseases can be cured or entirely prevented. By using these powders the hog cholera can be prevented.

the hog cholera can be prevented.

TESTIMONIALS,

rom some of our Eminent Clergymen. HARRISBURG, Feb. 8th, 1864.

Harrisburg, Feb. 8th, 1864.

C. A. Bannvart—Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges and other preparations for hoarseness and Throat Troubles, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of Hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of need most effectually.

To C. A. Bannvart—Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some gentle expectorant, and that want has been supplied in your excellent Troches. I consider them very far superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from its too frequent use, and impairing the effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses.

Yours, &c.,

Pastor of the Locust Street Methodist Church.
