BEDFORD, PA., FRIDAY, APRIL 7, 1865.

TO WHOM IT CONCERNS. We are pressed for money. We respectfully ask all indebted to us, to make payment with as little delay as possible. We need not enter into details of our expensesevery body must know they have been very heavy. We will simply state for the benefit of the friends of the INQUIRER, that unless we very soon receive the amounts due us, we may be seriously embarrassed in our business; but if every one who owes us, will promptly pay, we shall get through the present pressure without embarrassment.

We send out the INQUIRER this week to its numerous patrons, enlarged, but by no means as perfect in its matter and make up, as we could desire. The labor of making this change is considerable; and one of our otic efforts to supply the demand for extras, issued on Monday, announcing the fall of Richmond, became disabled, thus leaving our effective force rather weak for the large amount of work to be done-we only ask our friends to accept this week's issue, as an evidence of our good intentions, trusting that the future will show marked improve- cents. Address, ments, in various respects, that will make the INQUIRER more deserving than ever of the liberal patronage bestowed upon it.

The Fall of Richmond. The news of the capture of Richmond was received by our citizens with manifestations of enthusiasm. It is true the intelligence from the different fields of again being cheered with the tidings of vic- may be had at the Book stores, or will be sent by tory and the steady progress of our all-con-quering armies, but it was not until the quering armies, but it was not until the news flashed across the wires that Richmond and Petersburg had fallen, that our people gave expression to their feelings in those rapturous outbursts of joy that seldom occur in a life-time.

For years all eyes were turned toward Richmond, that great citadel of treason, for whose reduction the grandest military combinations known in history, were planned, and all of which failed through the strength and vigilance of the enemy and the culpable ignorance and base treachery of our own generals. There was the Peninsu la campaign, brilliantly commenced but sadly and disastrously terminated, and who can forget the memorable achievements of our brave and heroic dead that strew every battle-field from the Wilderness to the entrenched works before Petersburg. Yet the final blow came, and no wonder our citizens were induced to join in a general jubilee over the downfall of the defiant capital of the traitors, and the utter extinguishment of the last hope of secession. There were, it cannot be denied, some sombre countenances exhibited on that day, all of course of the hissing tribe, but they mostly disappeared from the presence of the Union-loging multiple course of the hissing tribe, but they mostly on our premises, as the law will be rigidly enforced against all who are thus found violating, with-loging multiple course of the Union-loging multiple course of loving multitude, seeking retirement in their covert dens, there to indulge in bitter jeremiades over their forlorn condition. The whole town presented a scene of unusua excitement, and many eager to hear the news rushed to the telegraph offices, while others sought extras at the INQUIRER office. The streets were thronged with the delighted population, who had come out to join in the general rejoicing; processions formed in the streets, in which mingled the glad and the gay; drums beat, cannon (?) boomed, while all the bells of the town rang merrily in sweet harmony with the occasion. The stars and stripes were hoisted from many a propriateness the old Lincoln and Johnson banner of the late campaign was unfurled

Washington, January 1, 1862.

Gentlemen.—Having stated it verbally to you, I have no hesitation, in writing the fact, that I experienced marked benefit from your Hoofland's German Bitters. During a long and tedious session of Congress, pressing and onerous duties nearly prostrated me. A kind friend suggested the use of the preparation I have named. I took his advice, and the result was improvement of health, renewed energy, and that particular relief I so much needed and obtained. Others may be similarly advantaged if they desire to be. ilarly advantaged if they desire to be.

Truly your friend,

THOMAS B. FLORENCE.

I am the recipient-from you of one of the greatest favors that can be conferred upon man, viz:
that of health. For many years have I suffered from one of the most annoying and debilitating complaints that the human family can be afflicted with, Chronic Diarrhea.

During the long time I was suffering from this disease, I was attended by regular physicians, giving me but temporary relief. The cause seemed to remain until I was induced to try Hoofland's German Bitters. After the use of a few bottles of their values are translations and the property of the companion of the companion

I often inwardly thank you for such a valuable specific and, whenever I have an opportunity, cheerfully recommend it, with full confidence in its reliability.

Messrs. Jones & Evans-Gentleman: - My mother-in-law has been so greatly benefitted by your Hoofland's German Bitters that I concluded to try it myself. I find it to be an invaluable tonic, and unhesitatingly recommend it to all who are suffering from dyspepsia. I have had that disease in its most obstinate form—flatulence—for many years, and your Bitters has given me ease when everything else had failed. Yours truly. everything else had failed. Yours truly

From the Hon. JACOB BROOM,

Philadelphia, Oct. 7th, 1863. Gentlemen: In reply to your inquiry as to the effect produced by the use of Hoofiand's German Bitters, in my family, I have no hesitation in saying that it has been highly beneficial. In one instance, a case of dyspepsia of thirteen years' standing, and which had become very distressing, the use of one bottle gave decided relief, the second effecting a cure, and the third, it seems, has confirmed the cure, for there has been no symptoms of its return for the last six years. In my individits return for the last six years. In my individ-ual use of it I find it to be an unequalled tone, and sincerely recommend its use to the sufferers. Truly yours,

JACOB BROOM,

Rev. W. D. Seigfried, Pastor of 12th Baptist Church Philadelphia, December 26th, 1863.

Messrs. Jones & Evans—Gentlymen:—I have recently been laboring under the distressing effects of indigestion, accompanied by a prostration of the nervus system. Numerous remedies were recommended by friends, and some of them tested, but without relief. Your Hoofland's German Bitters were recommended by persons who had tried them, and whose favorable mention of the Bitters induced me also to try them. I must confess that I had an aversion to Patent Medicines, from the "thousand and one" quack "Bitters" whose only aim seems to be to palm off sweetened and drugged liquor upon the community, in a sly way; and the tendency of which, I fear, is to make many a confirmed drunkard. Upon learning that yours was really a medicine preparation, I took it with happy effect. Its action was not upon only the stomach, but upon the nervous system, was prompt and gratifying. I feel that I have derived great and permanent benefit from the use of a few bottles. Very respectfully yous,

W. D. SEIGFRIED,
