

Bedford Inquirer.

BEDFORD, PA., FRIDAY, APRIL 14, 1865.

To Whom it Concerns.

We are pressed for money. We respectfully ask all indebted to us, to make payment as little delay as possible. We need not enter into details of our expenses—every body must know they have been very heavy. We will simply state for the benefit of the friends of the INQUIRER, that unless we very soon receive the amounts due us, we may be seriously embarrassed in our business; but if every one who owes us, will promptly pay, we shall get through the present pressure without embarrassment.

GOD, GRANT, VICTORY!

THE REBELLION CRUSHED!

THE UNION—NOW AND FOREVER!

GRAND UNION JUBILEE.

The patriotic citizens of Bedford County will join in a grand celebration, to be held in Bedford, on SATURDAY AFTERNOON, APRIL 15, over the success which has crowned the Union arms, in the recent battles, resulting in the entire destruction of the Rebel army under Lee, the abandonment of the Southern Confederacy, and the restoration of the Union. Several speakers will be present to address the meeting.

RETURNED.—It is with pleasure that we record the return of our esteemed friend, J. H. Longenecker, Adjutant of the 101st P. V. Mr. Longenecker enlisted at the beginning of the war as a private soldier and was successively promoted for his meritorious conduct till he obtained his present position. He, with his regiment, was captured at Plymouth, N. C., on the 20th of April, 1864, and was taken to Macon, Ga. Afterwards he was sent to Savannah, Charleston, Columbia and Charlotte. Having gone the rounds, and endured rebel barbarity for ten long months, he now comes, we are happy to say, with good health, to his friends, and we feel assured that his talents and influence will be felt in this County. Long life to our brave young officer.

At Home.—Lieut. John B. Helm, of Co. G., 101st P. V., is at present staying in town. He was a prisoner in Rebel hands for nearly a year, and after several unsuccessful efforts, finally succeeded in making his way to the Union lines. Lieut. Helm is a brave soldier and has earned a proud distinction for himself. Besides, he is sound to the core on the great question, and we extend to him the right hand of fellowship. We believe it is the purpose of the Lieut. to return to his regiment.

WASHINGTON HOTEL.—By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that Mr. Isaac F. Grove has leased the above well-known Hotel. The house has been thoroughly refitted and refurnished, and is now, as it ever has been, one of the most attractive in this place. Mr. Grove is a clever and gentlemanly landlord, and we speak from personal knowledge when we say that his table is not to be surpassed by any in Bedford. Our friends from the country, and persons generally stopping town, will find this a very agreeable stopping place.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Rev. S. J. Berlin, to be found in another column. The Professor is a graduate of Pennsylvania College, was an instructor for some time in that institution, and is, we understand, an experienced teacher. He comes to us highly recommended, and we have no doubt will give satisfaction.

We are glad to see a good school in Bedford, and we hope our citizens will liberally patronize him.

RESPECTFULLY DECLINED.—The piece of poetry entitled "Victory," by "Sue." Having no "melange" column, we can not give place to rhymer's rymes. Our fair correspondent should not be in haste to see her poetical effusions go before the literary world.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has decided that "all instruments issued or used by officers of a State, county, city or town, in their official capacity, are exempt from stamp duty. Orders of officials upon their treasurers are not therefore required to be stamped."

WAT NEWS.—By reference to our columns our readers will find an unusual amount of war intelligence. We would ask a careful perusal of the graphic account of the five days fighting before Richmond, which will be found on the first page.

WANTED.—A girl who understands general house-work; is a good baker, washer and ironer. Highest wages given. Address, "B. B." Bedford, P. O.

JUSTICES ELECT.

By the act of Assembly, those persons recently elected to the Office of Justice of the Peace, are required to notify the Prothonotary within thirty days of their acceptance. This has been done in but a few cases. It should be attended to at once, so that I can inform the Governor and obtain the Commission. O. E. SHANNON.

THE TRIUMPH OF THE RIGHT.

By RICHARD COE.

Let every loyal heart to-day, Send up a shout of praise, To the mighty Triumphant God, The Author of our days, That He hath given victory, Unto the cause of right, And laid the rebel minions low, Beneath the bloody fight!

We know full well our cause is just, Our men both true and brave; That Freedom's banner ne'er was meant, To float above the slave;

We know that "truth when crushed to earth, Will rise again" in might; And knowing this we give to God, The glory of the fight!

We have a faith, strengthening time, That this our land shall be, The heritage of all the earth, That labor to be free— That tribulation millions shall arise, And dwell in the right; Believing this we give to God, The glory of the fight!

Now, unto each and every one, That hastened to the field; Who gave his strength and praise, With grateful hearts we yield; But unto Him who led our hosts, And bared his arm of might, To Him we give the choicest praise, The glory of the fight!

Then let each loyal heart to-day, Send up a shout of praise, Unto the mighty Triumphant God, The Author of our days; That he hath sent the victory, Unto the cause of right, And laid the rebel minions low, Beneath the bloody fight!

Then let each loyal heart to-day, Send up a shout of praise, Unto the mighty Triumphant God, The Author of our days; That he hath sent the victory, Unto the cause of right, And laid the rebel minions low, Beneath the bloody fight!

preceding call. The manifest purpose of the proviso is to limit the time within which a credit may be demanded.

This section must be regarded as taking effect from the passage of the Act, unless such a construction is insisted upon, or foisted upon by other parts of the Act.

As is stated in my opinion on your of the 13th March, it appears from the face of this Act that, at the time it was passed, there was a pending draft under a call for troops in December, 1864, and it is carefully provided that nothing in the Act shall operate to postpone the pending draft, or interfere with the quotas assigned therefor. Now, the rule for giving credits, at the time of mustering in, will not postpone the present draft or interfere with the quotas assigned therefor.

It seems to me that there is nothing in the Act that prevents the application of the 14th section to the present draft, unless it may be the proviso thereto. It was intended by that section simply to limit the time within which credits might be claimed, and not to postpone the application of the rule of credits, when mustering in, to future calls.

I am of the opinion that the 14th section of said Act is applicable to the call for troops made by the President on the 18th December 1864.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

JAMES SPEED, Attorney General.

HON. E. M. STANTON, Sec'y of War.
