Loud calls were then made for Gen. W. H. contz, who stated his desire to give way to Ion. John Cessna, who then delivered a hrilling address on the great issue now beore the country. He referred to the recent ctories which had crowned with success the nion arms, and could now congratulate the yal men of Bedford County upon their steayadhesion to principle, whose efforts in the st campaign, with the concerted action of he free people of the North, had resulted in he downfall of the Peace party, and with em the utter annihilation of the rebellion and the total obliteration of the last hope of eason. The Union men in the late election ad succeeded, notwithstanding the efforts of rigues of the miserable wretches who asire to be leaders of the Democratic party in his county, characterizing their duplicity with the honest but deluded men that now compose the remnant of that once powerful organization. He warned the people against stening to those croakers who are trying to frighten the people on account of their taxes, showing bow we have received enormous revenues whilst we were carrying on a gigantic war, and how easily we can discharge the national debt, which our opponents positively asserted would never be paid. After alluding to the pitiable subterfuges and shallow retexts resorted to by these low demagogues who now declare that Lee's surrender was only a compromise, and that all was done in trict accordance with what they call Demoratic principles, he told them that we had tered the enemy in the battle-field and had fairly whipped him and compelled him to accept Gen. Grant's terms of surrender. Gen. W. H. KOONTZ followed with an im ressive speech, in which he reviewed the past career of the pseudo-democracy, clearly stablishing that the assassination of our late amented President was the legitimate fruit of he teachings of the leaders of the opposition and sympathizers with treason during the last our years. He did not believe that after the nagnanimity shown to the Rebels, and the pardon offered them, by Abraham Lincoln, hey were the instigation of this awful crime, out that it had been concocted in the secret onclaves of the Knights of the Golden Cir de. The speaker then dwelt upon the present attitude of public affairs and closed by exhorting his hearers to earnest devotion to muntry, and to the great cause of freedom and constitutional liberty, for which we are at present battling. At this stage of the meeting John Lutz, so., Chairman of the Committee on Resolureported the following which were unanmously adopted: WHEREAS, By the cowardly act of an assas-in, our honored Chief Magistrate, ABRAHAM ASCOLN, has been stricken down at a moment when his self-devotion and untiring energy were about to result in the downfall of the rebellion and restoration of our national integrity; and, whereas, by the great calamity the nation has been bereft of its chief citizen and the Union of its chief defender; and, hereas, by his wise statesmanship, his unfal-ring devotion to and ardent affection for the Union, the purity of his motives and kindness of his heart President Lincoln commanded the respect, the love and the admiration of he loyal people of America, to a degree un-qualled since the days of Washington. known in our town for twenty-four years, wa that assembled in the Presbyterian Church or Sunday evening last to hear the sermon of Rev. Robert F. Sample, on the death of Pres ident Lincoln.

Mr. Sample had made a short address upon that subject to his own charge, on Wednesday, out having to go, that same day, to Bloody Run, to conduct the funeral services of one of the members of his church, a resident of tha place, he was able, at that time, only to al lude to our great national trial, and in conse uence, preached a sermon, suggested by the President's death, on the next Sunday morning, the 23d to his congregation.

This discourse was so much liked, that a etter signed by a large number of our citizent regardless of sect or party, was addressed to its gifted author, asking him to repeat it, with which request he complied on Sunday eve ning last, and on that occasion, received the compliment, his talents and high christian character, richly merited, of (as we before stated) the largest concourse of hearers known in any church in our town, for almost quarter of a century. The subject of the discourse was "The mys teries of Providence," and the audience, although uncomfortably crowded, were held spell bound for more than an hour by the touching eloquence of the speaker. The answering tears of the congregation, bore witness to the beauty and pathos with which our country's great calamity was alluded to, and we have heard but one opinion expressed with regard to he sermon, by those who heard it-that of unqualified commendation. As was said in our columns two weeks ago, concerning the same speaker's remarks on the day of the President's funeral, so may we say of this sermon, (and we but express the opinion of the many who heard it) "It was just what might have been expected from a talented, high-souled and patriotic, christian gen-A copy of the sermon, we believe tleman."

AMERICANS IN MEXICO.-The Emperor Iaximillian of Mexico has not waited for ou official recognition of his own dynasty to reognize the dynasty of American enterprise nd energy. He has given the contract to stablish "regular continuous communication y steam'' between the Mexican ports on the Pacific and Upper California, to a well known American house, that of Benjamin Holladay, of New York and San Francisco. The con tract extends over seven years, and provide for two lines of steamers, one from San Franisco to Mazatlin, and one from Mazatlan to Acapulco, with a subsidy of $85,000 per an um from the imperial government; and the right of sailing under the American flag on he first of these lines. The ratification of such a contract is of good augury for the pacication of Western Mexico; and it may b held to put an effectual damper upon all that we have heard of the "cessasion of Sonora to the French." Guaymas being included in the contract as a port of call for the steamers of the first line.

THE rebel Governor Milton, of Florida, mmitted suicide at his residence in Marian na, on the 1st of April. No special reason is assigned for the act, but it is supposed to have been induced by despair of the success of the rebel cause. There is no Lieutenant Govern or, and the office is now filled by the Presient of the Senate. Several candidates are ounced for the succession at the election to be held in October. WENDELL PHILLIPS writes to the Anti Slavery Standard that he disapproves the project for disbanding the American Anti-Slavery Society at the May Anniversary. He says that while Delaware and Kentucky remain Slave States, and before any decisive action has been had on the Constitutional Amendment, it is no time to disband. He thinks no emancipation effectual which does not allow black men to vote.

DECREASED EXPORTS OF SPECIE.-The shin nents of specie from New York last week mounted to less than eighty-four thousand dollars, while for the corresponding week ast year the aggregate exports footed up over hree millions one hundred and thirty-seven usand. The influx of gold from Califor nia and foreign countries now average nearly million a week. INTERNAL REVENUE DECISION .- The De outy Commissioner of Internal Revenue has lecided that no income tax can be assessed upon any person to whom such income ac rued, where such person died before the 1st Monday of May, 1865; but this decision does not authorize the refunding of any income taxes peretofore assessed and paid. IT APPEARS that Junius Brutus Booth was rrested in Philadelphia, at the house of a elative. When placed in custody he asked he officer: "Do you know if it is in regard to hat letter?" No reply was made, and he was mmediately sent to Washington. The Philadelphia Inquirer says he had little to say du ing the trip, but at one time remarked that "wished John had been killed before the ssination, for the sake of the family ame." Speaking of the name of "Alice" nentioned in his letter, he said he merely ad ded a postscript in it to the assassin, request ng him to give his love to ner, as the lady in estion had frequently sent him such tokens in her correspondence. # CAMP NEAR BURKESVILLE JUNCTION, VA., April 22d, 1865.

MR. EDITOR :- When leaving Bedford, I omised to let you hear from me, and this s the first opportunity of making my word good. On account of unusual delays in rail oad transportation, I determined to go via. Baltimore instead of Washington, and took passage thence on board of the steamer Ade laide. We weighed anchor about 51 P. M. and steamed slowly down the harbor for the broad Chesaneake. Just as we were bidding adieu to the "Monumental City" we cast our eyes in the advance to see what of interest we might be nearing, when we caught sight of our glorious old flag proudly floating in the preeze of "Free Maryland" from the flagstaff of Fort McHenry.

The evening being foggy, night soon cam on and much to our discomfiture hid from view all objects of interest to us. We now began to feel lonely, for all without was hidden, and all on board were strangers. The passengers were mostly soldiers, officers, suters, merchants, and a few ladies, who were on their way to Norfolk, Va. Being tired we oon retreated from the crowd to our state oom to receive rest from "natures' sweet re storer." Morning dawned with a cold, strong preeze. Just now breakfast call was sounded when all rushed for the dining saloon. Soon the crowd was seen returning, some laughing, and some angry, and some showing a smile of approval for the fun that was evidently on hand. The whole was satisfactorily account ted for by learning that the crowd were al 'April fools'' it being the first of April. Steamers and all kinds of craft were seen ying at anchor, which gave evidence of our ear approach to Fortress Monroe. Here we anded about 8 o'clock. At 11 A. M., we took passage on board of the steamer Transit for City Point. During the passage up the James, there was much of interest that might be noted, but first in importance was Newport News, the place of the memorable fight be ween the Union wooden war ships and the rebel iron-clad Merrimac, when thanks to an veruling Providence the noble little Monitor and her bold crew came to the rescue. Jamestown, that early settlement familiar in history to every school boy was also passed on the vay up the river. At 6 o'clock we arrived at City Point, the reat base of the armies then operating aainst Richmond. A perfect wilderness of nasts was there to be seen at this place. The Inited States Military Railroad commence here and over it were carried forward the sup plies of the Army of the Potomac. Arriving at the extremity of this road we were imme diately re-initiated into the horrors of war. The roar of cannon, the fierce rattle of mus-etry, the yell of charging squadrons, and the groans of the wounded and dying were all heard that night. These things all told us that the sons of freedom were following the ebel horde beyond their deserted trenches, nd dealing the death-blow to the slaveholders ebellion.

Sunday and Monday were spent in wande ng through exciting and horrible scenes, in arch of the 81st P. V., to which we had en appointed chaplain. On the evening of fonday we found the 81st and received a earty welcome. If soldiers are generally or too often outbreakingly wicked, you seldom find that niggardly hypocrisy that too often nakes greater claims, though undeservedly so gentlemanly qualities. One day our brigade fought the retreating foe n line of battle, over 15 miles. During a long and tedious session of Congress, pressing and onerous duties nearly prostrated me. A kind friend suggested the use of the preparation I have named. The cause seemed to remain until I was induced to try Hooffand's Ger-man Bitters. After the use of a few bottles of that valuable medicine, the complaint appeared to be completely eradicated. ### From the Hon. JACOB BROOM. Philadelphia, Oct. 7th, 1863.

Philadelphia, Oct. 7th, 1865. Gentlemen: In reply to your inquiry as to the effect produced by the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, in my family, I have no hesitatien in say-ing that it has been highly beneficial. In one in-stance, a case of dyspepsia of thirteen years' stand-ing, and which had become very distressing, the use of one bottle gave decided relief, the second effecting a cure, and the third, it seems, has con-firmed the cure for there has been no avariance of firmed the cure, for there has been rosy. its return for the last six years. In my indivi-ual use of it 1 find it to be an unequalled ton and sincerely recommend its use to the suffere Truly yours, JACOB BROOM,

1707 Spruce St. Rev. W. D. Seigfried, Pastor of 12th Baptist Church Philadelphia, December 26th, 1363. Messrs. Jones & Evana-Gentlemen:--I have recently been laboring under the distressing effects of indigestion, accompanied by a prostration of the nervus system. Numerous remedies were recommended by friends, and some of them tested, but without relief. Your Hooffand's German Bit-ters were recommended by persons who had tried them, and whose favorable mention of the Bit-ters induced me also to try them. I must confess that I had an aversion to Patent Medicines, from the "thousand and one" quack "Bitters" shose only aim seems to be to pain off sweetened and drugged liquor upon the community, in a sly way; and the tendency of which, I fear, is to make many a confirmed drunkard. Upon learn-ing that yours was recelly a medicine preparation, I took is with heavy offer Its action arous make many a confirmed drunkard. Upon learn-ing that yours was really a medicine preparation, I took it with happy effect. Its action was not upon only the stomach, but upon the nervous sys-tem, was prompt and gratifying. I feel that I have derived great and permanent benefit from the use of a few bottles. Very respectfully yous, W. D. SEIGFE ED, No. 2 (1) Short permanent

I was advised by a friend to try a bottle of your German Bitters, I did so, and hare exprienced great and unexpected relieft my health has been every materially benefited. I confidently recommend the article where I meet with cases similar to my own, and have been assured by many of their good effects. Respectfully yours, T. Wixwirk, Roxborough, Pa.
