We stated last week that Mrs. Imler who was arrested and incarcerated for the murder of her child is a soldier's widow. We were misinformed, and therefore take so much of our statement back. She was brought up on a writ of Habeas Corpus before His Honor, Judge King, on last Tuesday, and we understand, remanded for further hearing. We have no opinion to express in regard to her guilt or innocence.

"That which is Bred in the Bone will Appear through the Flesh."—We are informed that a "seecsh" woman in St. Clairsville, Bedford county, displayed her breeding by tying crape upon her dog, when the news was received of the assassination of our lamented President. This female has certainly, through ignorance and political malice, exceeded all the Northern traitors who have so disgraced themselves by exhibiting their disdisgraced themselves by exhibiting their dis-respect for the Nation's great martyr.

But how shall we rank him as a states man? His simplicity was almost childlike, amiable and conciliatory in deportment, his firmness was that of everlasting hills; courting no favors, honor sought him; not ambitious in power, he shrunk from no responsibility.

One of the people, he was identified with their interests. They placed bim in position, and they retained him there. We waged war to construct, not to subjugate. The repentant rebels always found pardon at his hands. He inauways found pardon at his hands. He inaugurated anew system in American politics, as a ruler his type was essentially his own; careful study and anxious thought marked his every public act. Convinced that startling changes must be made, he did not spring them suddenly upon the people, but as if by a silken cord he led the public masses to think his own thoughts. Nor did he claim infallibility in anything. His language when submitting a certain great act was, "This is my plan, I do not know that it is best, and shall certainly change it when a better one is submitted."

But who of us, who of all the land, can improve his public policy? Peaceful relations were sustained with foreign powers, when they but wished for an opportunity to declare war. DANVILLE, Va., May 5, 1865. EDITORS INQUIRER:-The following taken from the Norristown Herald and Free Press, of April 27th, I hope you will publish, that your readers may know that Bedford county can boast as brave patriots as ever fired a gun in defence of their country.

"Just after the assault upon the rebel works, April 2d, some of our men penetrated the country as far as the Southside Railroad, and two men of Co. "F," named Corp. John W. Mauk and private Daniel Wolford were among the number. They tore up two rails of the track, and when returning to the command, they encountered two rebel mounted officers, who at once demanded their surrender. It was, however, refused, and Corp. Mauk shot one of them dead. Private Wolford shot at the other, but he escaped apparently unhurt. The men returned to their regiment and reformation gained from rebel prisoners gives the circumstances of Gen. A. P. Hill's death as similar to that of the officer shot by Corp.

The names of these men have been forwar ded in the commanding officer's report, and they are recommended for a suitable reward for their meritorious services."

Since the above was written additional evidence has established without doubt the corwhat a mighty influence he was destined to Cumberland Valley and private Daniel Wolbear on the history of his country. AND CAN'T MAKE DRUNKARDS.

Washington, January 1, 1864. Washington, January I, 1864.

Genflemen.—Having stated it verbally to you, I have to hesitation, in writing the fact, that I experienced marked benefit from your Hoofland's German Bitters. During a long and tedious session of Congress, pressing and onerous duties nearly prestrated me. A kind friend suggested the use of the preparation I have named. I took his advice, and the result was improvement of health, renewed energy, and that particular relief I so much needed and obtained. Others may be similarly advantaged if they desire to be.

Truly your friend,

Truly your friend, THOMAS B. FLORENCE.

From John B. Wickersham, Esq., firm of Wickersham & Hutchison, the celebrated Manufacturers of Fancy: Iron Works, 259 Canal St.

I am the recipient from you of one of the greatest favors that can be conferred upon man, viz: that of health. For many years have I suffered from one of the most annoying and debilitating complaints that the human family can be afflicted with, Chronic Diarrhea.

During the long time I was suffering from this disease, I was attended by regular physicians, giving me but temporary relief. The cause seemed to remain until I was induced to try Hoofland's German Bitters. After the use of a few bottles of that valuable medicine, the complaint appeared to be completely eradicated.

I often inwardly thank you for such a valuable specific and, whenever I have an opportunity, cheerfully recommend it, with full confidence in its reliability.

Truly yours,

Truly yours,

New York, Feb. 2, 1864. WICKERSHAM. From Julius Lee, Esq., firm of Lee & Walker, the mostextensive Music Publishers in the United States, No. 722 Chestaut Street, Philadelphia. February 8th, 1864.

Messrs. Jones & Evans—Gentleman: — My mother-in-law has been so greatly benefitted by mother-in-law has been so greatly benefitted by your Hoofiand's German Bitters that I concluded to try it myself. I find it to be an invaluable tonic, and unhesitatingly recommend it to all who are suffering from dyspepsia. I have had that disease in its most obstinate form—flatulence—for many years, and your Bitters has given me ease when everything else had failed. Yours truly,

From the Hon. JACOB BROOM,

Philadelphia, Oct. 7th, 1863.

Gentlemen: In reply to your inquiry as to the effect produced by the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, in my family, I have no hesitation in saying that it has been highly beneficial. In one instance, a case of dyspepsia of thirteen years' standing, and which had become very distressing, the use of one bottle gave decided relief, the second effecting a cure, and the third, it seems, has confirmed the cure, for there has been no symptoms of its return for the last six years. In my individual use of it I find it to be an unequalled tonic, and siscorely recommend its use to the sufferers.

Truly yours,

JACOB BROOM,
1707 Spruce St. Philadelphia, Oct. 7th, 1863.

Rev. W. D. Seigfried, Pastor of 12th Eaptist Church
Philadelphia, December 26th, 1863.

Messrs. Jones & Evans—Gentlemen:—I have recently been laboring under the distressing effects of indigestion, accompanied by a prostration of the nervus system. Numerous remedies were recommended by friends, and some of them tested, but without relief. Your Hoofland's German Bitters were recommended by persons who had tried them, and whose favorable mention of the Bitters induced me also to try them. I must confess that I had an aversion to Patent Medicines, from the "thousand and one" quack "Bitters" whose only aim seems to be to palm off sweetened and drugged liquor upon the community, in a siy way; and the tendency of which, I fear, is to make many a confirmed drunkard. Upon learning that yours was really a medicine preparation, make many a confirmed drunkaru. Open teaming that yours was really a medicine preparation, I took it with happy effect. Its action was not upon only the atomach, but upon the nervous system, was prompt and gratifying. I feel that I have derived great and permanent benefit from the use of a few bottles. Very respectfully yous, W. D. SEIGFRIED, No. 254 Shack

From the Rev. Thos. Winter, D. D., Pastor of Rorough Baptist Church
Dr. Jackson:—Dear Sir:—I feel it due to your excellent preparation, Hoofland German Bitters, to add my testimony to the deserved reputation it has obtained. I have for years, at times, been troubled with great disorder in my head and nervous system. I was advised by a friend to try a bottle of your German Bitters, I did so, and have exprienced great and unexpected relief; my health has been every materially benefited. I confidently recommend the article where I meet with cases similar to my own, and have been assured by many of their good effects.

Respectfully yours, T. Winner, Roxborough, Pa.

From Rev. J.S. Hrrman, of the German Reformed Church, Kutztown, Berks County, Pa. Dr. C. Jackson;—Respected Sir:—I have been troubled with Dyspepsia nearly twenty years, and have never used any medicine that did measumuch good as Hoofland's Bitters. I am very much improved in health, after having taken ebottles.
